Yesterday after-noon at 4:30 o'clock after serving her mission with fidelity and fully trusting her Lord, the sweet spirit of Miss Callie Gabriel entered the charlot and rode to the Celestial city scorted by Angels. Although ill for me she never complained of her lot. Her life was devoted to the pleasure of others and to the very ast she gave the smile of consolation to those less fortunate. The deceased was born and reared the town of Beaufort, North Carolina and for the past eleven years she has been a resident of Washington, living with her niece, Mrs. C. F. Bland, on East Main street. From the first, as a resident of this city, she gaihed the love and confidence of those with whom she mingled and this miendally ripened as the years went by and now that she lies c ld death's embrace those who knew her best stand with bowed head near her resting place-for truly a triend ed has gone to that "Undiscovered Country."
