

LAST OPPORTUNITY FOR DOUBLE VOTES END THIS WEEK

PROMISES ARE NOT GOOD IF NOT FULFILLED - SEVERAL CANDIDATES BUILDING UP BIG VOTE QUIETLY - LOOK OUT FOR "DARK HORSE" IN EVERY RACE - THIS WEEK TELLS - 1 SUBSCRIPTIONS MAY DECIDE YOUR CANDIDATE'S FATE - ALL ABOARD FOR EUROPE.

About that Chapereau. It might be a pretty good idea to remember the importance of being chosen the fourth member of this tour party. There's no way of telling what district the chapereau will be selected from, except that it is certain that the chapereau candidate who gets the greatest credit from subscription ballots will be the fortunate one. And it's also pretty safely assured that the chapereau candidate so chosen will have the pleasure of being accompanied by the principal candidates as for any other, and some one is going to win this extra trip. It will be the one who accomplishes the most. Principals and their chapereaus who are working together for success will head the lists at the end of the contest.

End of Double Votes. "Opportunity Period" ends this week. Are you going to let it slip away from you without getting all your promises fulfilled? Is your subscription-promising friend going to let you lose this trip on his subscription alone? That would be possible. Don't let it happen. Heavy Voting. Mr. strife for district leadership. See the vote standing today. Where is your candidate? Why isn't she ahead? You could put her there and keep her there by just speaking to a few of your friends. Remember, her opportunities are fading.

LABOR INSPECTOR Commends Postum Plant

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 31.—The pure food factories of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., of Battle Creek, Mich., which are visited by from 15,000 to 18,000 tourists annually, entertained an unexpected visitor the other day in the person of Sylvester Grousel, Michigan State Factory Inspector.

With the practiced and unassuming eye this state official investigated the great group of factory buildings where Postum Cereal, Grape-Nuts and Post Toasties are manufactured. The result of his visit was shown by the following special report which he made to the Michigan State Labor Commission. Mr. Richard Fletcher, Commissioner of Labor and Statistics, Lansing, Mich.—Dear Sir: I have this day (Sept. 30, 1910), carefully inspected every department of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., and I think they are entitled to an especially complimentary report for the following reasons: FIRST. All the mechanical appliances of this splendid factory are in perfect condition—everything safeguarded. SECOND. The sanitary conditions are of the best. Everything is furnished employees—fresh water, wash-rooms, dressing and toilet rooms. THIRD. With the large number of persons employed in the breakfast-foot department, there have been no accidents. FOURTH. I find the statistics of the wages paid men and women are the highest I have found in any factory I have visited in Michigan. FIFTH. They do not employ any child labor under 16 years of age. IT IS A MODEL INSTITUTION IN EVERY RESPECT. Yours respectfully, (Signed) Sylvester Grousel, State Inspector.

Poor Mr. Credit is Dead. Died a natural death the other day at Baker's Studio. He is not to be grieved after. He never measured up to his expectations. He has always been over-rated. The policy he advocated was not wise, and those who knew him best are rejoicing at his death.

Correct English. Don't say, "Between you and I"; it should be "Between you and me." Don't say, "A new pair of shoes"; it should be "A pair of new shoes." Don't say, "If I am not mistaken"; it should be "If I mistake not." Don't say, "I had rather walk"; it should be "I would rather walk." Don't say, "If I was him"; it should be "If I were he." Don't say, "Three weeks back"; it should be "Three weeks ago." Don't say, "On either side of the street"; it should be "on each side of the street." Don't say, "I am going across the bridge"; it should be "I am going across the bridge."

Don't say, "How do you do?" it should be "How are you?" Don't say, "I differ with you"; it should be "I differ from you." Don't say, "In case I succeed"; it should be "If I succeed." Don't say, "He jumped off the platform"; it should be, "He jumped from the platform."

STARTS ON TRIP EIGHT PERSONS SERIOUSLY HURT

Walter Wellman Sails on Voyage Across Atlantic in Balloon SENDS WIRELESS MESSAGES

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 15.—Sailing into a thick fog that hung low over the Atlantic ocean early today, Walter Wellman, with a crew of five men, is tonight believed to be on an epoch-making voyage to Europe in the huge cigar-shaped airship America. Starting from the beach near the inlet a few minutes after 8 o'clock this morning, the big aircraft was soon out of sight of the cheering crowd.

Since then, no one, with the exception of ships at sea, has seen the strange craft and the only word from her came by means of wireless telegraph. Numerous messages were received during the day and the latest indicated that Wellman is tonight easily sailing northward off the Long Island shore. The ship, according to this last word from her adventurous crew has set a northeasterly course with the intention of getting into the northern lane of trans-Atlantic liners.

The start of the America was one of the most dramatic events that has ever occurred in this carefree resort of frequent sensations. Roundly criticized by people who did not believe that he would ever undertake what was thought to be a foolhardy venture, Wellman started the whole island by bringing the America out of the harbor and without any ceremony going into the air. It was about 4 a. m. today that the final decision to go up was made by Chief Engineer, Yalman.

All night he watched the weather and as the dawn approached he decided that now was the time. Rousing the other members of the crew who slept in the hanging Vanman called Wellman and told him the time to start had arrived. Jumping into his khaki uniform Wellman summoned the members of his family and soon was on the way to the inlet in an automobile. The great gas bag was warped out of the shed, the greatest care being taken not to rip the heavy silken bag. Finally it was put and Simpson ascended to the top of the huge bag and released the remaining lashings and then came down.

With everything ready for the word "let go" the crew climbed up and into the car hanging from the balloon. The final "good-bye" was said to wives, other relatives and friends and the last word to the men on the ground was given. The great craft gave a lurch, all the ropes and cables became taut and the ship rose, slowly at first and then more rapidly as it ascended higher and encountered the gentle breeze from the west. On the board walk and beach were assembled a crowd estimated at about 1,000.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, October 18, will be the last day at J. K. Hoy's to obtain votes on the Automobile in the payments of accounts. Votes will be allowed as for cash purchases on payment of bills through tomorrow and no longer.

The firm of J. H. Harris Plumbing and Supply Company were on last Saturday night awarded the contract to furnish the city with one thousand barrels of cement at $1.87 per barrel by the Improvement Committee. The local firm were the lowest bidders. Four other firms outside of Washington made bids. The cement is to be used in paving the streets.

The friends of Mrs. C. M. Hays will regret to learn of her illness. She has been confined to her bed on Gladden street for the past week suffering with fever.

The friends of Mrs. E. F. Givens will regret to learn of her illness. She was taken very suddenly last Saturday evening and although still quite ill her physicians are hopeful of her recovery. It is announced that her husband, Mr. Givens, has been in the city since the arrival of the city passenger train from Norfolk to be at her bedside.

IS FATALLY SHOT A RANCH HAND KILLS STANLEY KETCHELL THE FAMOUS PUGILIST

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 15.—Stanley Ketchell, champion middleweight pugilist of the world, died here tonight at 7:05 o'clock, as a result of being shot today by Walter A. Hurts a ranch hand.

The shooting took place on the ranch of R. F. Dickerson, a friend of Ketchell, near Conway, forty miles east of here. An hour before he died Ketchell regained consciousness. There was then thought to be a slight chance for his recovery. His condition soon took a decided change for the worse, however, and the end came quickly.

Three physicians were on the train. An operation was performed on Ketchell at the ranch house in an attempt to locate the bullet. It was not found. Out in the wooded hills east of here, Hurts, Ketchell's slayer, heavily armed is fleeing before a pack of bloodhounds and a posse of officers and citizens. Dickerson has placed a price of $5,000 on his capture, dead or alive. He will be fired upon at sight.

After shooting Ketchell, who was at a breakfast table, Hurts rushed from the house into the yard. He then faltered a moment, turned and went back into the room where Ketchell lay upon the floor. Reaching into Ketchell's pocket he removed the pugilist's 38-calibre revolver and struck him over the head with it. Then he ran from the house.

Hurts is said to have told Mrs. Goldie Smith who is said to have posed as Hurts's wife, that he would meet her here tonight. Officers brought her here and questioned her, hoping to get a trace of Hurts. She revealed nothing as to his whereabouts. Investigation of Hurts's belongings has led officers to believe his real name is Walter Dibley, and that he is from Webb City, Mo.

He has been at the Dickerson ranch since last Wednesday and but few knew anything about him. SHOULD PONDER THEM. From the Bulletin of the North Carolina Board of Health on "Sanitary Sunday" we get the following facts, and we shall do well to ponder them: In the war with Spain the American army of 107,000 men had 20,100 cases of typhoid and 1,500 deaths. One-fifth had the disease; 1 in 63 died with it.

In the war with Russia the Japanese army of 1,200,000 men had 310 deaths by typhoid; 1 in 4,000. The American army took no precautions against flies and polluted water; the Japanese army did. Result: American soldiers—1 in 63 died of typhoid; Japanese soldiers—1 in 4,000 died of typhoid. Why this shameful spectacle of a great people who, priding itself on science and progress, proved hopelessly deficient in the moment of greatest need? The trouble was not with a lack of knowledge, but in the failure to apply it.

The soldiers did not know and the officials that did were either indifferent or hampered by a lack of system. It is one of the weaknesses of a democracy that in moments of need, it does not make use of its best business wisdom and skill. Its hope must lie in the education and elevation of the common people, in whom is both its weakness and its strength.

There are as yet only a very few who even dimly grasp the immense progress made in the last one hundred years in the improvement in health and the prolongation of life. Says Senator Owen: "Scientific hygiene and increased knowledge of the laws which govern health have had a very striking effect upon the prolongation of human life throughout the world."

POSSE CHASING MURDERER

Shooting occurred on Dickerson's ranch, Conway, Mo. Bad blood between the men—a woman in the case, murderer fleeing.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 15.—Stanley Ketchell, champion middleweight pugilist of the world, died here tonight at 7:05 o'clock, as a result of being shot today by Walter A. Hurts a ranch hand. The shooting took place on the ranch of R. F. Dickerson, a friend of Ketchell, near Conway, forty miles east of here.

An hour before he died Ketchell regained consciousness. There was then thought to be a slight chance for his recovery. His condition soon took a decided change for the worse, however, and the end came quickly. Three physicians were on the train. An operation was performed on Ketchell at the ranch house in an attempt to locate the bullet. It was not found.

Out in the wooded hills east of here, Hurts, Ketchell's slayer, heavily armed is fleeing before a pack of bloodhounds and a posse of officers and citizens. Dickerson has placed a price of $5,000 on his capture, dead or alive. He will be fired upon at sight. After shooting Ketchell, who was at a breakfast table, Hurts rushed from the house into the yard.

He then faltered a moment, turned and went back into the room where Ketchell lay upon the floor. Reaching into Ketchell's pocket he removed the pugilist's 38-calibre revolver and struck him over the head with it. Then he ran from the house. Hurts is said to have told Mrs. Goldie Smith who is said to have posed as Hurts's wife, that he would meet her here tonight. Officers brought her here and questioned her, hoping to get a trace of Hurts.

She revealed nothing as to his whereabouts. Investigation of Hurts's belongings has led officers to believe his real name is Walter Dibley, and that he is from Webb City, Mo. He has been at the Dickerson ranch since last Wednesday and but few knew anything about him.

From the Bulletin of the North Carolina Board of Health on "Sanitary Sunday" we get the following facts, and we shall do well to ponder them: In the war with Spain the American army of 107,000 men had 20,100 cases of typhoid and 1,500 deaths. One-fifth had the disease; 1 in 63 died with it.

In the war with Russia the Japanese army of 1,200,000 men had 310 deaths by typhoid; 1 in 4,000. The American army took no precautions against flies and polluted water; the Japanese army did. Result: American soldiers—1 in 63 died of typhoid; Japanese soldiers—1 in 4,000 died of typhoid. Why this shameful spectacle of a great people who, priding itself on science and progress, proved hopelessly deficient in the moment of greatest need? The trouble was not with a lack of knowledge, but in the failure to apply it.

IS IN STORE

Dr. Minto C. Baldwin, a noted pipe organist is to give a recital at the First Methodist church, this city, Monday evening, October 24. Judging from the notices of this gifted organist the music lovers of Washington have a rich treat in store.

Dr. Baldwin was solo organist at the World's Fair, Philadelphia Exposition, Charleston Exposition, Omaha Exposition and the St. Louis Exposition, besides playing in all the noted cathedrals and churches in Europe and America. The following commendation of Dr. Baldwin's work from Olaf Selberg, organist from Christiania, Norway, will give our citizens some conception of what is in store for them: "Allow me the privilege and the honor of announcing Dr. Baldwin as the foremost and most highly accomplished organ soloist I have ever been my pleasure to hear, although I have heard the most celebrated soloist it has ever been my pleasure to hear, although I have heard the most celebrated soloists in England and America. His interpretations on the organ are a real inspiration and I sincerely advise everyone who can, to arrange to have the public enjoy this rare opportunity. He is sure to win the hearts of all."

Dr. Baldwin comes to Washington bearing with him the highest endorsement and no doubt a crowded house will hear him on next Monday night. The recital will be free to everyone but a collection will be taken sometime during the evening. A rare opportunity is to be afforded those who love music, especially so when one of the masters is to perform.

To Speak Here. Hon. Lock Craig one of North Carolina's most gifted platform speakers is to address the citizens of Washington on the 20th which is Thursday. It would pay every citizen to be present and hear him. Mr. Craig is a prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor two years hence. He has always been a hard worker for the cause of Democracy and his many friends in Beaufort county hope that he will be the next standard bearer.

A treat awaits all who hear this distinguished speaker next Thursday. A large audience greeted Hon. Stephen C. Bragaw at the Sunday Afternoon of the Young Men's Christian League yesterday afternoon and heard with delight and great profit his masterly talk on the subject: "What Washington Needs." It was a great theme handled by one fully able to present it in a way to attract and elevate and encourage Mr. Bragaw always speaks in a way to draw and on yesterday he was no exception. The comments heard today on his effort were high in praise. Those present on yesterday are to be congratulated.

Rapid Progress. Rapid progress is being made in construction of the new Methodist parsonage. It will be one of the most attractive homes in the city when completed. The plumber saves a lot of money by being able to do his own repair work.—Chicago News. Some men try to save money by not paying their debts.

SEN. DOLLIVER DEAD

U. S. Senator From Iowa Dies of Heart Trouble

Fort Dodge, Iowa, Oct. 15.—United States Senator Jonathan Prentiss Dolliver died of dilatation of the heart, caused by an attack of acute indigestion, at his residence at 7:30 o'clock tonight while being rubbed by an osteopath physician. Senator Dolliver's death was unexpected by his relatives and close friends, who thought that he had almost entirely recovered from the attack of indigestion with which he had been suffering for a week. Senator Dolliver had been up all day and had made a trip from his residence down town. He told several of the men that he met that he believed that he had completely recovered from the indigestion which followed his trip into Wisconsin on a speech-making tour for Senator La Follette.

While working over Senator Dolliver the osteopath physician was using an instrument to listen to the Senator's heart action. The physician unexpectedly discovered that he was no longer hearing heartbeats. He at first thought that his instrument was faulty. An examination revealed that his patient was dead.

County Canvass. The Democratic County canvass began today. The first appointment will be at South Creek tonight at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the candidates will address the people at Idalia and at Aurora tomorrow night 8 o'clock. They expect to be a Bonneton Wednesday October 19 at 9 o'clock, Coreport Wednesday at 9 o'clock and at Edward at 8 o'clock, Wednesday night. It is to be hoped that large crowds will greet the candidates at all these appointments. It behooves every citizen of the county to attend and hear the issues discussed. The appointments of the candidates will be given through the columns of this paper daily until the closing date.

Coming Wedding. The Daily News acknowledges the receipt of the following invitation: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ecklin request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their cousin Olive Cornelia Wicks to Mr. Alfred Clyde Harrison on Wednesday evening, the twenty-sixth of October one thousand nine hundred and ten, at eight o'clock, Christian Church, Washington, North Carolina Reception from 9 to 12 p. m., 613 East Main street.

The plumber saves a lot of money by being able to do his own repair work.—Chicago News. Some men try to save money by not paying their debts.

Silk Petticoats A New Lot of Persian Silk Skirts at $6.00. The greatest value ever offered. An extra heavy lustre Taffeta Silk Skirt, black only, special $3.98. James E. Clark Co. THE HIGH-ART CLOTHIERS The Gem Theatre

Advertisement for Bowers-Lewis Co. Tuesday's Special $1.00 Flannelette Night Gowns, colors white, pink and light blue, one day only at 89c. Bowers-Lewis Co. Raleigh, N. C. North Carolina's Leading Retail Dry Goods Store

Advertisement for Bowers-Lewis Co. Tuesday's Special $1.00 Flannelette Night Gowns, colors white, pink and light blue, one day only at 89c. Bowers-Lewis Co. Raleigh, N. C. North Carolina's Leading Retail Dry Goods Store