GIRL IS ACQUITED

THE GIRL PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO THE CHARGE OF ACCESSORY AFTER THE FACT TO THE MURDER OF BELLE ELMORE. CROWD GREATER THAN IN THE CRIPPEN TRIAL. London, Oct. 25.—Ethel Clara LeNeve was acquitted of the charge of being an accessory after the fact in the murder of Mrs. Belle Elmore Crippen, in Old Bailey court this afternoon after a trial that lasted less than a day. It was for love of Miss LeNeve that Dr. H. H. Crippen, now under death sentence, murdered his wife. The crown's counsel could not show that Miss LeNeve had knowledge of either the American's intention or the crime itself. There were no witnesses called by the defense. Immediately upon the conclusion of the speech of P. E. Smith, Miss LeNeve's attorney, Justice Alverstone delivered his charge to the jury and they retired, returning in 27 minutes with the verdict of acquittal.

THIRD PERIOD GOING; ENDS NEXT SATURDAY. A WORD TO THE WISE.

Reduced Vote Schedule Would Mean Great Loss—Take Advantage of Third Period For Your Candidate—One Year Means 1,350 Votes if New—Race is Drawing Close—

As the fall follows the storm, so is in the tour contest after the storm from the second period. All is apparently quiet with the exception of these active candidates who are occasionally depositing a few thousand notes for the leadership. It is apparently quiet, but not quiet in fact. The voting indicates that their friends know they are still in the race and mean to make a fight for the leadership when the final count is made by the committee of judges. Active contestants are making it campaign, and those who are sincere in their profession of friendship are actually supporting their favorite candidate with a goodly number of votes—supporting her in earnest and arguing her cause for her with their friends. Use your influence in behalf of some candidate. She'll appreciate it and you'll be glad you did it, when the end of the race is reached. Yesterday there were new leaders in each district. Today there is still great shifting in evidence. The top of the battle shows whether it's hot-

TO BE SEEN BY NEWS TOURISTS. One woman was recently heard to say of a contestant: "Has she ever travelled much in this country?" The reply was in the negative, whereupon she of the abundant travel information said: "Well, I can't see why she should endeavor to go to Europe when she could see so much of this country." The reasons are simple. First, she lives in this country and can see it any time, while a free tour of Europe is not so easily obtained. Next, no person of education for a moment doubts the gen-

70-MILES AN HOUR HOME WEDDING THIS MORNING

FLEW TWICE AROUND THE COURSE, AT TIMES PUTTING HIS MOTOR AT FULL SPEED—MAKING 70 MILES PER HOUR. GREAT RIVALRY BETWEEN CONTESTANTS.

Aviation Field, Belmont Park, N. Y., Oct. 25.—With fifty guests of honor, this morning at seven o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Clara W. Kelly plighted her troth in holy wedlock to Mr. William A. Barry, proprietor of the Variety Store, this city. The ceremony was impressively performed according to the ritual of the Christian church, by the pastor of that church, Rev. Robert V. Hope, in the presence of quite a number of friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties.

One of the most beautiful and impressive home weddings of the fall season was held at the home of Mrs. Kelly on East Second street, this morning at seven o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Clara W. Kelly plighted her troth in holy wedlock to Mr. William A. Barry, proprietor of the Variety Store, this city.

The ceremony was impressively performed according to the ritual of the Christian church, by the pastor of that church, Rev. Robert V. Hope, in the presence of quite a number of friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties. The home was attractively decorated for the auspicious event. The parlor in which the nuptials were performed was darkened and the numerous waxen tapers shedding out their soft rays made a scene impressive and long to be remembered. As the couple entered Miss Janie Harris skillfully played Lohengrin and during the solemn words uniting two hearts as one Trammel was heard. There were no attendants. The bride was becomingly attired in a handsome coat suit of Copenhagen blue, with hat and gloves to match.

Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Barry drove to the Atlantic Coast Line where they boarded the 8 o'clock train for a three weeks tour of northern cities, including the former home of the groom in Pennsylvania. After their return to Washington they will reside with the bride's mother on East Second street. At the station a large number of friends and admirers were present to see them off and to wish them every joy. Showers of rice and old shoes were in evidence on all sides. Miss Kelly is one of Washington's most beautiful and popular young ladies. From girlhood to womanhood she has counted her friends by the score and no woman ever plighted her troth carrying with her more well wishes. If this is an omen of happiness then her cup of joy is sure to be full and overflowing. The groom, Mr. William A. Barry, is a native of Kittanning, Pa. For the past eight months he has been a resident of this city as proprietor of the Variety Store. He also owns considerable interests in his native state. Since his residence here he has greatly endeared himself to our people. He is a young man of sterling worth and has a bright and promising future.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry have the well wishes of a host of friends and the Daily News joins in extending congratulations. May their life's afternoon be their brightest and best.

ALL OF HER 40,000 PRAYERS ANSWERED. Goldfridge, Me., Oct. 25.—Known throughout this section of Maine as "The Praying Woman or Aroostook," Mrs. Rufina M. Osgood, has composed 40,000 prayers and can repeat every one of them from memory. She was born in Sherman Mills in 1859, and has taught fifty-four terms of common school.

Since she joined the Baptist church in early life each one of her 40,000 prayers, she says, has been answered. She has composed over 200 sacred poems. In 1891 she entered the Western Maine Normal School in Gorham and was graduated in 1893. Since receiving her diploma Mrs. Osgood has devoted much time to soliciting money for new churches in remote farming communities. In fulfillment of a vow she is now laboring zealously to build two more churches in the northern part of the county.

more and more interesting. Those who will be found the winners are not letting up this period on account of the reduced vote schedule, they're not waiting for "something big toward the finish," they are not looking forward to winning on strength of the efforts of the last period alone. That's not what they're doing. Instead, they're busy, working a delightful trip in theirs if they hard and interesting friends in their ing or not. The shifting of the vote standing is a sufficient indication that the contest kettle is boiling and that many surprises will be in store at the end of the race. Europe is not so far off. Think what is within the possibilities of any one of these young women who are at work for themselves! Think what a delightful trip in theirs if they would but grasp the opportunity!

erally superior educational advantages of a tour of Europe as compared with a tour in the United States, although no one is so unpatriotic as to for a moment doubt the value of touring this great country of ours. The woman who "couldn't see why" was unfortunate. Watch the vote standing and BOOST, WORK, HUSTLE now if ever—now or never.

The Lecture Tonight.

Washington is looking forward to the lecture of Miss Lillian Phelps at the Opera House tonight on the subject of temperance with great pleasure.

She is to speak under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Union. On account of the meeting of the county superintendents at the Public School Auditorium it has been decided not to begin the services in the opera house until 8:30 o'clock. This will give everyone a chance to attend both services.

While in the city Miss Phelps will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter on East Main street.

Miss Phelps lectured in Wilson last night. She comes to Washington bearing with her the highest endorsement as a lecturer. She has spoken in all the leading cities of America and those who are fortunate enough to hear her this evening will be highly repaid.

As an entertainer she sustains a national reputation. All the different church choirs of the city are invited to assist in the music of the evening.

In addition to the lecture of Miss Phelps short talks will also be made by Major Wiley C. Rodman, Hon. B. C. Bragaw and Revs. J. A. Sullivan and M. T. Plyler.

The occasion promises to be one of interest and the speaker of the evening should be greeted by a large audience as the cause she represents is a worthy one.

Remember the hour is 8:30 o'clock sharp.

Prayermeeting.

On account of the temperance lecture in the opera house and the address of President Wright of the East Carolina Training School, tonight, the prayermeeting services in the different churches will close earlier than usual tonight.
