THE TWO MET TRAGIC DEATH

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 29.—Fathers were the unwilling cause of two tragedies near Winston-Salem, today in which their children were the victims.

A Platoon, J. W. Bennett, while gathering his crop of potatoes, threw one toward the basket twenty feet away. The potato struck his four-year-old son over the heart.

A few miles distant, the four-year-old daughter of J. H. Everhart was instantly killed when her head was caught between the hub of a wagon wheel and a barn.

Disastrous Fire. A FIRE OF AN UNKNOWN ORIGIN AND RAPID SPREAD SWEEPED DEPOT BEFORE ENGINES CAN MOVE CARS FROM THE DANGER POINT—THE LOSS HEAVY.

New Berne, Oct. 29.—One of the most disastrous fires of the present year occurred in this city tonight, when the Norfolk-Southern freight depot, which was located in southern part of the city, was destroyed.

The eastbound passenger train attempted to cross over Trent river bridge, but it was thought best not to attempt this and the train was delayed more than an hour.

FARMER'S UNION. I have come to Beaufort county to take up the organizing work in the unorganized sections of the county.

A Mother's Love. There is an old legend that runs in this wise: At creation's dawn an angel came down to earth, and before returning looked about for something to carry back to heaven.

A Kiss to Chase Bull Care. A father, speaking to his careless daughter said: "I want to speak to you of your mother. It may be that you have noticed a careworn look upon her face."

FREAK BETTING IN NEW YORK. Tammany Man Gives Even Money on Each of Ten Propositions.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—There have been a number of freak bets registered. One of the causes of these oddities has been the inability of the Dixie betters to get straight wagers on a win or lose proposition.

Debate On Strike

SOCIALISTS AND RADICALS DEMAND THE RESIGNATION OF PREMIER BRIAND FOR UTTERANCES ABOUT SUPPRESSION OF STRIKE, PREMIER CALM AND DIGNIFIED.

Paris, Oct. 29.—The debate on the railway strike, in which the government has been bitterly attacked in the Chamber of Deputies by the Socialists, took a new and dramatic turn tonight.

During the session, which was not only the most violent in the history of the French Parliament, but rivaled in the disorder and turbulence the sessions of the national convention during the French revolution, Premier Briand himself was the pivot on which the drama turned.

Smarting under the repeated attacks of M. Jaures, the leader of the Socialists, and others, the Premier leaped to his feet, and defending the cabinet's suppression of the strike as a revolutionary outbreak, exclaimed: "It is the actual laws that have been insufficient, we would not have hesitated to resort to illegality for the purpose of preserving the fatherland."

An uproar followed these words. The socialists jumped up and were joined by a number of radicals. With shouts of anger they moved towards the tribune crying "Resign! Dictator, resign!"

Desks were banged and the Chamber was a perfect bedlam at the noise of shouts and cheers. One socialist tried to fight his way to the tribune to strike Briand.

Throughout all the premier stood calm and dignified and for three-quarters of an hour waited patiently but vainly to make himself heard.

Mr. Briand throughout the tumult hurled back the charges, affirming that he had saved the country from anarchy into which the socialist deputies were trying to plunge it by opening the way for reaction and the disorganization of society.

The premier, in an interview later, declared that the tumult had been arranged by the socialists, who seized upon a fragment of his speech to launch a movement of disorder and win over the republicans who were normally supporters of the government.

THE LAST PERIOD OF TOUR CONTEST HAS NOW BEGUN

Read Very Important Information.

The end of the contest for European tours is near! The last period is here and with it are the last opportunities that will ever be offered in this contest.

When the New's party is waiting for its train with trunks and grips packed and ready, all anxious to start on the first lap of their journey, to Montreal, Canada—then, more than now, will be felt the value of this period of the contest.

The third period was period for rest and some rested. But others were busy at work. Those who worked will see the results of their efforts when the final count is made.

As a final stimulus to public interest in behalf of the tour contestants, the contest department announces two final offers. These are fully explained in the advertisement on another page of this edition, and are positively the last special offers of any kind that will ever be made during the contest.

The set offer means this: Each $15.00 turned in this period in new subscriptions constitutes a set. These sets may be turned in in amounts of $1.50 or over. Now! On each set turned in during this period 5,000 extra votes will be allowed the candidate turning in those subscriptions.

The schedule for this period will be found in the advertisement in this issue. These two offers are in addition to the allowance of the schedule for this period, but the two offers combined are not equal to the double vote offer.

Important Notice. From this time on all candidates are earnestly requested to watch the paper every day, for from this time there will be important announcements bearing on the manner of closing the contest—announcements which no candidate can afford to overlook.

The combination which has been effected between the second and third districts can in no wise effect the results of active contestants. We are merely taking advantage of the rules and conditions of the contest whereby such a combination is permissible.
