U. S. WILL MAKE PROTEST

Washington, Nov. 11.—United States Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City, acting on instruction from the state department will make protest to the Mexican government against the disrespect shown the United States flag and the stoning of United States citizens during the anti-American demonstration by a mob in the Mexican capital yesterday.

The state department this morning received the following dispatch from Consul General Arnold Franklin, in Mexico City, sent last night when the rioting was in progress:

Students are rioting and parading the streets in an anti-American demonstration. They are crying "Death to the Americans" and are threatening my life. They have desecrated the flag of the United States, pulling down one displayed by an American business house and trampling it under foot.

In state department circles it was said that the immediate cause of the anti-American outbreak was the recent killing of a Mexican in Texas.

National Guard

Perhaps the most interesting event which has happened in connection with the present meeting of the National Guard officers here, occurred last night in the armory, when Capt Carl Batts and Lieutenant "Silk" Suggs, of Wilson walked onto the floor. The boy officers of Company K were greeted with cheers by every man in the hall, and there was much clapping to breasts and hand-shaking. The happiness of the boys officers was complete at their appearance for it brought back many fond recollections and tales of times gone. In all the history of the Second Infantry nothing has been so noteworthy as the friendship of companies K and G. In fact so strong has been this friendship of a quarter of a century that the two companies have been considered an inseparable combination of the other 10 units of the organization. Last night and today all the officers save one of G and K have been united once more, and there has been a love feast beyond comparison, and Batts and Suggs have been lionized more than all their seniors together, for the officers of G love them, and the enlisted men worship them.

County Farmers' Union

The Farmers Union of the county of Beaufort met at the courthouse, this city, today at 11 o'clock. Quite a number of farmers from all sections of the county were in attendance and the meeting was enthusiastic and beneficial. Mr. W. H. Patrick, of Chocowhatchy, is the president of the union.

COUNTRY VOTE IS CANVASSED

The canvassing board for the county of Beaufort met at the courthouse yesterday morning at 11 o'clock for the purpose of canvassing the election returns of the county as voted in Tuesday's election. Mr. Joseph G. Chauncy of this city was chairman of the board. The Daily News gives below the result of the canvass giving the majorities each candidate received in all the precincts of the county. The vote was as follows:

HALCON CLUB 25 ANNIVERSARY

The Halcon Club celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary as a club last night in elaborate style. Both the Elks Hall and the Red Men's Hall were masqueraded for not only the society of Washington but those visiting from other towns. The occasion last night was the crowning event in the history of this well-known and popular social club and today nothing but the highest encomiums are pronounced for the members of the club and the management for the success achieved in their efforts towards furnishing so much pleasure and enjoyment in this city. The event last evening was a conspicuous success; nothing was lacking—everything was complete and the Daily News takes this occasion to congratulate the club. No similar organization in the state has done more for the social life.

In the year 1885 the Halcon Club was organized. Since that time there have been only four presidents viz: Hon John H. Small, Mr. J. K. Hoyt, Dr. John G. Blount and Mr. F. H. Bryan.

The club has had six secretaries: Mr. C. C. Callala, Colonel W. B. Rodman, Mr. Jonathan Havens, Mr. Jno. G. Bragaw, Mr. F. S. Worley and Mr. Lindsay C. Warren.

The Elks Hall where the dance was given was elaborately and attractively decorated and festooned in the club colors, white and blue. The scheme was the work of Mr. I. H. Morris and his skill and taste were the admiration of everyone. The booths occupied by the Washington Concert band and the chaparrons, banked with ferns and greens were the cynosure of all. The anniversary german was led by Mr. F. H. Bryan, the leader, with Mrs. William Schuette of New York; he was ably assisted by Colonel H. Churchil Bragaw with Miss Helen Crist and Mr. Lindsay C. Warren with Isabelle Carter.

Dancing was indulged in until 12:30. There were ninety-three couples on the floor—the largest number in the history of the club. At the hour of midnight Leader F. H. Bryan and his partner Mrs. Schuette took their places at the main entrance holding two large decorated baskets decorated with the club colors; they were filled with favors. Colonel Bragaw, a veteran leader of attractive and unique figures, led the couples by Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Schuette when favors were presented.

The ladies received White Silk Vanity badges and the gentlemen silver tie clips. Both contained the monogram of the club and the dates of its organization. At 12:30 o'clock all repaired to the Red Men's Hall where the banquet was served. Here too the decorations were much admired. The luncheon was, of course, the acme of the evening. Hon. John H. Small did the honors as toastmaster and it is needless to state he proved par excellence in this role. Hon. Stephen C. Bragaw, Mr. F. H. Bryan, Mr. John Bonner, Major W. C. Rodman, Mr. J. F. Taylor, Mr. Norwood L. Simmons, Mr. R. S. Neal of this city and Mr. Donnell Gilliam of Tarboro responded to toasts. All the speeches had as their theme, the women, their beauty, their attractiveness, their winsomeness.

The following did the honors as chaperons for the auspicious occasion: Mesdames J. B. Moore, A. M. Dumas, L. L. Knight, John H. Small, W. L. Laughlinhouse, Mrs. Herbert Bonner and Miss Julia Hoyt.

On account of the large number of couples present last night it is almost impossible to give a correct list of those participating on the floor. If the data had been furnished the News it would have been given space.

Has Recovered.

Mrs. Daniel Taylor who has been confined in the Fowle Memorial Hospital for the past six weeks as the result of an operation for strangulated intestine, was able to be carried to her home on yesterday.

There is no more news to her many friends throughout the city.

Don't get wildly excited over politics so as to make themselves believe some of it.

Revival Closed

After nearly two weeks of special meetings, the revival meetings at the First Baptist church closed last night. As a fitting close, Rev. O. L. Owens preached a most powerful sermon on the text, "Ye Will Not Come Unto Me That Ye Might Have Life." The appeal to come to Christ seemed to be irresistible, and many no doubt did not come forward last night will be led to a decision later. There were several who manifested an interest in their spiritual condition.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to several candidates last night before the beginning of the regular service. Several others have been approved for baptism and will receive the ordinance later. There are others who will unite with the church by statement and letter.

Altogether, the meetings have been the best ever held in the Baptist church.

Rev. Mr. Owens, Dutton and Handy left this morning for their homes in Baltimore. They carry with them the affections of the large congregations who have attended on their ministry. After the meetings closed last night, a large crowd remained and had the ministers to sing several of the selections which have become so popular. They continued for quite a long time, and seemed loath to say the last farewell.

They visited the school auditorium this morning and sang several selections for the students. The scenes there were very affecting, and the ministers thoroughly appreciated the kind reception accorded them there. It is earnestly hoped that these godly men may visit Washington again, and minister in sermon and song to the spiritual welfare of the people.

Are in the City.

Messrs. W. H. West, Clarence Mayo, W. H. Mayo, Lloyd Godley and John Jones of South Creek, were here today attending the meeting of the Farmers' Union.

Leave For Aurora.

Quite a number of our citizens left this morning for Aurora on a special train over the Washington and Vandemere road to take in the Corn Judging Day and Agricultural Fair being held in that town today under the auspices of the Retail Merchants Association. A dance will also be a dance there tonight a gala day is expected. The citizens of Aurora will furnish free entertainment.

He Gets There

One man told me the other day, he thought everybody read my advertisements in the Daily News; said he, you don't say anything about prices or that you can do better work than anyone else, but somehow or other you get at the people in such a way if anyone happens to go to Washington and fails to register their faces in Baker's Studio they left out of the most important part and their trip was incomplete. Come next Thursday—Corn Judging Day.

Operated On.

Mr. Thomas Butt of Mackey's Ferry was brought to the city this morning suffering with an attack of appendicitis. He was taken at once to the Washington hospital where he was operated on. Mr. Butt is engineer on the Norfolk Southern road and has many friends. It is to be hoped that he will soon be convalescent.

Marriages may be made in heaven but they can be unmade in any old place.

COMMITTEE OF JUDGES

HON. STEPHEN C. BRAGAW, Attorney-at-Law. REV. J. A. SULLIVAN, Pastor First Baptist Church. J. K. HOYT, Hoyt's Department Store. B. F. BOWERS, Member Firm Bowers-Lewis Co. L. A. SQUIRES, Assistant Cashier First National Bank. The above named gentlemen have kindly consented to act as judges of the final count in the Daily News' European tour contest. The News takes pride in announcing the names of such men as these act in this responsible capacity, and we feel that the list itself is sufficient assurance that justice will be done to all concerned.

CONTEST HEADQUARTERS CHANGED

For the accommodation of all concerned, arrangements have been made whereby the contest headquarters of the Daily News will be removed to the Chamber of Commerce rooms, where the department and the ballot box will be located all day and evening next Monday, the last day of the contest.

SOME FINAL HINTS FOR CONTESTANTS ON CLOSING OF CONTEST.

Coupons Expire tomorrow—Everyone Hopeful and Working Hard For Results—News Congratulated On Judges—Important Final Announcements.

Today's issue contains the last contest coupon that will be issued. All coupons will be void after 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The Daily News and the contest manager are receiving congratulations from candidates and their friends on the excellent choice of judges, as announced for the first time in yesterday's edition. All of these men are recognized as possessing those qualifications which make conscientious, fair and just judges. With these gentlemen will rest the matter of finding the winners in the contest and judging from the final count of ballots who are the victors.

The News feels assured that all will be satisfied with the result of the work of this committee.

On Monday only, contest headquarters will be located in the office of the Chamber of Commerce, on Main street. The office will be open to contestants and the public at all times, quite as usual.

Important

All candidates are urged to become thoroughly familiar with the rules of closing the contest, and if there is any point about which there is any doubt or the slightest question, the contest manager should be consulted at once.

Candidates are especially requested to turn in as many of their subscriptions as possible before the closing day, in order that they may be received for, and also to facilitate the matter of starting papers to new subscribers, and relieving extra work on the night of the final count. If this is done, the judges will have their duties greatly relieved.

Remember!

All subscription orders must be completely filled out when presented to this office, giving name and address of the subscribers, the date of receipt, and designated new or old. This is especially important these last few hours. The exact amount of money should accompany all subscription orders.

If checks are presented they should be on LOCAL BANKS, for only checks on local banks will be accepted next Monday.

Steady Voting.

The voting during these last few hours of the race for Europe is still a puzzling problem. It has remained mighty close in these past few days, seemingly to make the final count the more surprising.

All candidates are busy, scouring the city and the surrounding territory for every last subscription available. The excitement continues to grow and interest becomes more active and heated as the big contest grows near to its close.

The rest of it remains with the public and the candidates. Now however, is the slogan! On to Europe and success—for some these young women.

THE LISTED BOSSMANS

The Lairs and the Crooks have won! Jackasses bray their victory! The Honest Man his course has run, And all is woe and misery! He sits alone in deepest gloom. Upon his specs the salt tears drop. He sees the country's certain doom. The Constitution's still on top!

Before him, shorn of plumage bright The slanders which he loved to boost:

A naked look, a dreadful sight— His chickens have come home to roost!

His policies, now stark they lie, Too weak, to limp, to even flop Woe, wailing woe! Deep, deepful sigh!

The Constitution's still on top! He shivers in the gripping blast, Shorn of his vaunting and his power;

His mawkish grin has gone at last, That ivory smile at last turned sour!

Smashed, broken, lies the pronoun mill; Exalted "I's" no more 'twill drop;

The mind machine as well is still— The constitution's still on top!

But he is wiser? Ah, who knows? Is he convinced that he was wrong?

That one man can't assume his pose And get away with it for long? He must have learned one thing at least:

He must have heard one hard truth drop: For North and West and South and East—

The Constitution's still on top!
