DON'T DESIRE EXTRA SESSION

Washington, Nov. 24.—Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri, democratic minority leader, who may be the next speaker of the house, asserted today that he is tired of the extra-session talk.

"I don't think there is one chance in a thousand of an extra-session of congress," said Mr. Clark. "Nobody wants it, except you folk around Washington. The president doesn't want it, and no one is clamoring for it but the hotels and the District of Columbia people."

Representative Mann, of Illinois, who may be the republican minority leader of the next congress, said: "I don't think there will be an extra session although it would be easy to force one."

TO TEACH WORK REQUEST

Wilmington, Nov. 24.—With a trip down the Cape Fear river today on board the United States revenue cutter Seminole, the third annual convention of the North Carolina drainage association came to an end.

A business session was held on the boat.

Congressman Small, chairman of the committee on resolutions, offered a resolution which was unanimously adopted urging the necessity of a drainage engineering course at the Agricultural and Mechanical college, teaching of agriculture in the public schools, especially the rural schools; exemption of drainage bonds from taxation for a period of 15 years, appointment of a drainage engineer to work under the direction of the state geologist, and the establishment of a test farm by the state on alluvial soil which has been reclaimed.

Mr. J. A. Brown of Chatham was re-elected president and Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Elizabeth City was the place decided upon for the next place of meeting.

About two hundred delegates and citizens went on the trip down the river and were delightfully entertained by a special committee of which ex-captain William E. Springer was chairman.

The convention this year was a great success and more interest is being manifested in regard to the subject of drainage than ever before.

A determined effort will be put forth this winter to get favorable action by the legislature on the matters suggested by the above-named resolution.

Hungary Immigrants

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 24.—After a week here, disguised at times as an immigrant, to study in behalf of the Austro-Hungarian government, the conditions among Hungarians in the mill and mine section of Western Territory, M. Arpad Pasztor, of Budapest, a journalist and author, left today for New York for further investigation at Ellis Island, the gateway of America.

"This will be done," said M. Pasztor today, "only as a last resort, and of course it would be a difficult thing to do so thoroughly, but some thing must be done. You have nearly 300,000 of our subjects in this section, or more than in any other part of the United States, and working conditions are very bad and not growing better."

He told as finding hundreds of his countrymen in the Westmoreland coal mining district, where a strike is on, working as strikebreakers.

"But they were brought here from New York," said Pasztor, "ignorant that the jobs promised them were in a strike territory."

THE LEADER HAS BEEN ARRESTED

Mexico City, Nov. 24.—The iron hand of Porfirio Diaz, president of Mexico, has smashed the revolt aimed to crush his power and General Francisco Madero, the rebel leader, is a prisoner in the hands of the federal troops, according to telegraphic advices received from the north today.

Madero's followers are reported to be in flight to the mountains with federal troops in hot pursuit.

The report of Madero's capture reached here today from Eagle Pass, Texas.

Uneasiness as to the situation in southern Mexico whence no dispatches had been received for 36 hours was dispelled shortly after midnight when reliable official reports arrived from points in Yucatan and other states saying that the situation there was tranquil; that but little trouble had occurred at any point and that this situation had been incited by rumors of revolutionary successes in the north.

No troops have been sent south as the local officials report that they will be able to deal with the situation.

Though the government has the revolution well in hand today there is an element of uncertainty as to what effect the aftermath will be. Madero's proclamation of a provisional government with himself as the president and his exhortation not to molest Americans has caused fear of international complications.

The government believes that it is really Madero's purpose to invite attacks on Americans for which the Diaz regime will be held responsible.

Whether with or without Madero at their head the revolutionists are well equipped for guerilla warfare and probably will be able to withstand federal attacks in their mountain fastnesses for months.

The fact is well recognized here that foreigners are in desperate danger in Mexico.

The revolutionists, baffled in their plans to overthrow Diaz, will attack American and British subjects.

Correspondents for English newspapers yesterday wired cable dispatches declaring that the plight of foreigners was a serious and English consular agents were advised today by their government to use every means in their power to protect British subjects.

REBELLION BREAKS OUT IN BRAZIL NAVY

Buenos Ayres, Nov. 24.—All dispatches arriving from Rio Janeiro today were censored but enough was gleaned from them to indicate that three vessels of the Brazilian navy have been captured by the revolutionists after a terrific battle in which scores were killed.

The Minas Geraes and the Sao Paulo brand new battleships, are in the hands of the mutineers and it is reported that they have begun to shell the city that the government censor has blue-penciled the dispatches to indicate that the government will soon be in control.

The third vessel captured is not named, but is understood to be one of the latest cruisers constructed for Brazil.

The Sao Paulo recently brought President Fonseca back from Lisbon where he witnessed the naval mutiny that resulted in the overthrow of King Manuel and the Portuguese government.

Desperate fighting is reported to have taken place on the Minas Geraes.

The signal for mutiny was given on that vessel at noon yesterday and a conflict immediately ensued. The officers of the vessel were taken by surprise, but fought bravely at the head of 90 men to remain loyal.

The battle raged for an hour and then the loyal sailors yielded to the 250 mutineers who had killed the ship's captain in the first few minutes of fighting. The other officers were seized and locked in their cabins.

By this time a conflict was raging on the Sao Paulo but this ceased when the mutineers on the Minas Geraes trained their guns on her sister ship and called upon the loyalists to surrender.

The cruiser was the next to yield under the frowning guns.

The entire Brazilian fleet was in the harbor at the time the mutiny broke out but no further effort was made to curb the mutiny.

Peace overtures were made by representatives of the government and at the last advices a conference was being held in an attempt to reach a compromise.

The dispatches received here say nothing of any bombardment of the city.

STORY CONFIRMED IN LONDON London, Nov. 24.—Dispatches received here today confirm the report of a mutiny at Rio Janeiro, Brazil, but stated that President Fonseca and his government has the situation well in hand, though a reign of terror existed in the capital and a condition of martial law prevailed.

Though the crews of several warships had planned to mutiny only one was successful in seizing its officers and turning its guns on the city.

These were soon silenced as the government made overtures to settle the mutineers' demands for increased pay.

Only a few shells were fired and these did practically no damage, as they were poorly aimed, the dispatches add.

Mr. Walls was assisted in entertaining his guests by Mrs. Walls, who in this role proved most charming.

The day will be long remembered by all who were so fortunate as to be the guests of this honored citizen.

May he have many happy and joyous returns, is not only the wish of the Daily News but everyone in Washington.

CHRISTIAN CONVENTION ADJOURNED LAST NIGHT. PROFITABLE SESSION

The sixty-sixth session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention and the North Carolina Christian Women's Board of Missions, that has been in session here for the past three days adjourned last night with a most delightful and interesting service. The closing exercises were witnessed by a large number. The past convention was not only one of the pleasantest, but the most profitable in the history of the Christian church in North Carolina.

The president of the convention was Mr. J. W. Hines of Rocky Mount, and the secretary, Rev. C. W. Ware of Greenville, both officers filled their respective positions with credit and ability.

One of the many features of the convention last evening was the music.

A quartette consisting of Misses Spain and Down and Messrs. Gurganus and Settle of the Atlantic Christian College favored all with selections and Messrs. Gurganus and Settle sang solos. Prof. Milcherberger, presided at the piano.

The address on "Home Missions" by Robert M. Hopkins, of Cincinnati the national secretary of Bible Schools, was a great talk. For over half an hour this attractive speaker held his audience spell bound and regrets were heard on all sides when he said he had finished.

Mr. Hopkins is performing a great work in his department of the church and what he had to say was more than gratifying to this large and growing denomination in this state. Mr. Hopkins was followed by Rev. John Wood of Winder, Georgia. His theme for discussion was "Genevances."

This was easily one of the strongest talks it has been the pleasure of the News man to hear in some time.

Mr. Wood is of fine physique, commanding appearance and so draws his hearer from the beginning as to hold his undivided attention to the end. He made a strong appeal for the orphan and friendless. After his strong speech he called on the convention for help and succeeded in raising over $200 in cash and pledges for this noble work.

The address of Rev. G. W. Muckley on "Church Extension" was another fine address. Although the hour was late he proved to those present he could hold their closest attention. After announcements and the reports of committees the session came to a close.

It has been a great meeting. Washington was delighted to entertain the visitors and the Daily News joins every citizen in wishing that at no distant day the Christian Convention of North Carolina will again decide to become our guests.

9. That the N. C. C. W. B. M. heartily concurs in these resolutions.

10. That copies of these resolutions be presented to the local daily paper and Carolina Evangel for publication.

HAYES FARRISH, CHAS. C. WARE, Committee on Resolutions. We your committee on temperance recommend first, That the legislature be called upon to abolish the near beer saloon.

Second, To petition congress for relief in the interstate liquor traffic.

Third, We urge that faithful and fearless officers be elected to positions of trust and we call upon all people to support these officers in the discharge of their duty.

Fourth, We suggest to the ministers the advisability of preaching to the end that the illegal sale of whiskey be overthrown.

Fifth, We endorse the work of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League and its literature, suggesting to the church that they give it moral and financial support.

Respectfully submitted, H. A. SETTLE. (Continued on Page Four.)
