BOLL WEEVIL GIVES TROUBLE

BOLL WEEVIL. The cotton boll-weevil is still making steady progress through the cotton-growing areas...

The boll-weevil has not "disappeared" in Texas or any other section where they once established...

But wherever the weevil comes, in every state yet invaded, it has resulted in an almost complete demoralization of cotton-growing...

The weevil fairly knocks the props from under the credit system, at least for a few years...

These things have been placed before the public repeatedly, and any cotton farmer in North Carolina can get literature on the subject by writing to this office...

Of course we all hope that the weevil may not reach us. We hope that if it does reach us it will not be as destructive as in the other sections...

Beginning years in advance, they gradually turned their attention to other crops or to hogs and cattle, but kept on raising cotton up to the very year when the weevil was upon them...

The boll-weevil now occupies all of Texas except the western portion, neighboring parts of Oklahoma and Arkansas, all of Louisiana, about two-thirds of Mississippi, and the southwestern corner of Alabama...

SIXTEEN BODIES ARE RECOVERED

Newark, Nov. 22.—In ten minutes 26 girls were burned alive this morning, or crushed to death on the pavement in leaping from the windows and fire escapes of the four-story brick factory...

The latest count tonight shows that 6 of the 26 bodies recovered have been identified and that 4 girls are still missing...

The rush of the flames was so incredibly swift and threw such unreasoning terror into the huddled working girls on the top story, that the body of one was found still seated on a charred stool beside the machine at which she had been busy when the first cry of fire petrified her with fright...

CARD OF THANKS

The members of the Christian church desire to thank the citizens and friends for the hospitality shown them during their recent convention.

They await an opportunity to return their appreciation not in mere words but by opening their homes, should a convention come to them.

We desire especially to thank the Presbyterians and Baptists for the use of their houses of worship.

The recent convention was largely attended and many expressed the belief that this one was the greatest in our history.

Again in the name of the church we wish to thank you for favors shown.

ROBT. V. HOPE, Minister.

Nov. 23, 1910.

To Attend Conference

Dancing Class

The dancing class will meet at the armory Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and night. There will be an after-dance Tuesday night for adults. A most pleasant occasion is promised all who attend.

Virtue isn't always satisfied with its own reward. It's well to mix a little self-suspicious with self-respect.

Remember, I do not say that you must "quit cotton." I do say that the weevil will of a certainty reach us at all. But I do say that it will in all probability reach us, and that it is our business to be studying the methods by which we can best meet it when it does come.

NAVY WINS FROM ARMY

Philadelphia, Nov. 22.—The old rule which teaches that if one cares to succeed he must try, try, again, was forcibly brought to mind on Franklin Field this afternoon when the navy in a hard and clean game of football defeated their old rivals, the army, by the score of 13 to 0.

After six attempts to boot the ball from placement over the West Point goal line, Dalton, the sturdy half back of the midshipmen's team, succeeded on his seventh effort and the three points which he had been striving for looked good to the navy, and proved to be sufficient to win the game.

It was a pretty kick, squarely between the goal posts and was made toward the end of the last period of play.

The kick almost broke the army's heart, but true to the traditions the army stuck to it and did not show the white feather.

LET DEMOCRATS BEAT LODGE

Gov.-elect Foss of Massachusetts, who has foretold Henry Cabot Lodge's retirement from the Senate, is not been reasonably sure of his position.

Although the legislature has a small republican majority, it is not believed to have a majority of any kind for Mr. Lodge. No other man of his type should control it. Aside from the preference shown for Mr. Foss, nothing was more clearly revealed by the election in the Commonwealth than the disfavor in which Mr. Lodge is held by the people.

The campaign which Mr. Foss is to make on the senatorship issue may be necessary to stiffen the spines of certain Republican members of the legislature, but no argument should be needed to convince Democrats of their duty. They can make easy the defection of independent Republicans by agreeing with them quickly upon the election of the senate of a high-minded Republican who entertains enlightened views upon the tariff and who will not be a mere manikin for special interests.

Political conditions in Massachusetts make party lines almost meaningless.

Most of the Democrats and many of the Republicans are in accord upon the tariff question and upon the Lodge question.

Massachusetts must not be misrepresented in Washington either by Lodge or any other senator.

A fusion in this instance is feasible. It would be honorable to all concerned, because it would be responsive to public opinion. The Democrats themselves in the minority, should be active in its promotion.—New York World.

MASS MEETING AND BANQUET

Baltimore, Nov. 22.—The movement to bring to Baltimore the representative Democrats of the country, in and out of Congress in a gathering that will present an opportunity to rejoice over the recent Democratic victory and to interchange views as to the future, was placed on a definite foundation today when the committee in charge headed by Governor Crothers, after a long conference with Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and Chaup Clark of Missouri, adopted the form of an invitation which will be sent to the leading Democrats in all the States.

Acting upon the advice of Mr. Mack and Mr. Clark, the conference originally considered was dropped and it was determined to make the idea national Jackson Day celebration of Democratic achievements.

The plans, endorsed by Chairman Mack and Mr. Clark, contemplate a big mass-meeting at the Lyric in the afternoon, at which speeches will be made by leading Democrats of the country, to be followed by an elaborate banquet.

It was thoroughly understood at the meeting that the Baltimore celebration will not be in the nature of a conference, the result which will bind or commit either the Democratic party or the individuals participating therein.

There are to be no resolutions adopted, no person boomed for the presidency or for other offices and no resolutions passed indicating or outlining a platform.

Likewise it was made plain that no section of the country and that no sentiment of the party is to be overlooked or left unrepresented, but that the gathering will be open, free and devoted solely to the promotion of party unity and harmony. It is proposed to send invitations to every Democratic member of the present congress on both the house and senate side to invite every country, regardless of their different opinions of the party in the eyes in the past, and to extend a welcome generally to Democrats who desire to keep alive and vibrant the present triumphant spirit of the national Democracy.

Small Fire

There was a small fire on Pearce street Saturday night between 7 and 8 o'clock.

It proved to be a small tenement house occupied by colored people, near the corner of Pearce and Fifth streets. It caught from a defective stove flue and was extinguished by the West End Reel Team before the rest of the fire department reached scene.

The damage will not reach more than $25. Although the department responded promptly to the alarm on account of the distance the flames was put out before they arrived.

It will be ever remembered in Washington as one of the great sermons. Mr. McCullan has been presiding elder of the Washington district for the past four years and no minister of the gospel has ever filled the position with more ability.

According to the laws of the church he will be assigned to another field of labor at the annual conference this week.

Mayo, Fla., Nov. 22.—Richard Lowe a negro was quietly lynched several miles outside the city before noon today for entering the bedroom of the daughter of R. M. Cobb, in the heart of Mayo, late last night. The crime of the negro and the subsequent lynching was a secret until this afternoon.

A crowd of some forty men gathered quickly this morning and easily effected an entrance into the jail. The negro was taken outside the city and hanged to a telegraph pole. After the negro's body was riddled with bullets the mob dispersed.

BRAZILIAN WARSHIPS FLY RED FLAGS

Rio Janeiro, Nov. 22.—The numerous vessels of the Brazilian navy, which put to sea yesterday to await positive assurance of the government of good faith in granting their demands for naval reform and full amnesty, spear the night outside the bar, returning to the bar this morning.

The warships were still flying the red flag but the crews made it known that they would be turned over to the authorities according to terms of current agreement.

It wouldn't be at all if some-minded people were not to keep their noses in the business of other people.

It is better to be a fool than to be a hypocrite.
