HEAR THE LECTURE ON JAPAN TONIGHT

No more interesting and instructive lecture has ever been delivered in Washington than the one by Mr. Cameron Johnson at the First Presbyterian church last evening.

The subject of the lecture was China The Aged Empire. Before showing the numerous views of that great country of the East, Mr. Johnson made a few interesting remarks with reference to these people.

For twelve years he has been a missionary teacher in Japan and Korea and comes to Washington to tell us something of what he saw and heard.

The church was filled with interesting listeners and everyone present were simply charmed with the lecture and the views. Tonight Mr. Johnson will lecture on Japan. The Key to Asia.

It would pay every citizen of the city to hear him. No more interesting talk has ever been given here than the one last night. The Daily News advises all to be present on this evening.
