MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 1911.

Parties leaving town should not fail to see the news follow them with the news of Washington fresh and crisp...

LOOKING FORWARD.

High prices of most products, and especially foods and raw materials, have been a sort of endless-chain burden to labor...

The situation of affairs would seem, indeed, to point to liquidation being necessary in costs of production...

It will hardly be confidently claimed that home demand for food products is sufficient to take up the surplus productions of the country...

On entering the cathedral on a Sunday morning, fully robed, lawn sleeves and all, passing the pew where the old lady sat he would pause and give her the "kiss of peace" before all the congregation...

Bishop Wilson of California had as housekeeper a venerable lady who remembered the duel between Sir Philip Francis and Warren Hastings on Aug. 17, 1780.

Scientist Who Couldn't Light a Fire. Lord Kelvin, like Lord Morley, once amused a Scottish audience with a display of ignorance.

A PROMISING GIRL. Miss Ruby E. Colby, of Windsorville and 15, rode the moving machine last summer behind a pair of three-year old steers to mow 50 acres of grass.

Sheep Bred to a Title. Mrs. Roper expects to marry the count. "Not immediately. There are three questions to be settled first."

More power to Ruby and may her trials increase. Not in the ginghaming assemblies of giggling girls, nor in the romantic environments of dimly-lighted parlors has she selected to shine. No; her field of endeavor is the plowland and kitchen.

The Secret of Health. A physician informs us that the best cure for sickness is to keep well. Some way or other this had long been suspected, and it is a joy to have it confirmed by expert authority.

What is the most valuable knowledge that a statesman can acquire? "The knowledge," replied Senator Sorghum, "of when to change his mind."

It is that is ungrateful has no fault but one. All other crimes may pass for virtues in him.—Young.

If walking were as popular as talking, a lot more people would be both healthier and wiser.

Congress is back on the job—such as it is.

About time to be writing up two days at a time in the new diary.

M. Taft is surely one man who can smile with everything going on.

High-flying has led to the downfall of many a good man who was not even an aviator.

Senator Hale of Maine, certainly had his ear close to the ground when he decided to run no more.
