A KIND WORD FOR RICHES.

Mr. Carnegie's latest great benevolence—the giving of ten million dollars to establish a peace foundation—has inspired many reflections about peace, and not a few about benevolence. It might also quite logically serve as a text for observations on "power of wealth." Unhappily when that phrase is used, it seems natural to think first of wrong and cruel things that the mere possession of money has enabled men to do.

Certain it is that there are a lot of extremely desirable things extremely good things that cannot be done in this world by any other agency than a great deal of money. Rich men of public spirit and intelligent foresight and princely generosity can help civilization along as no other class of men can.

To get rich merely for riches' sake merely for one's own sake, may be rather poor business, but to get rich, honestly, for the sake of the good one can do with a heap of money—that is a different matter. We are optimistic enough to believe that there are a good many men in the world who really have precisely this ambition.—Harper's Weekly.

SENSATIONAL STATEMENT THAT JAPAN IS PREPARING FOR WAR

Washington, March 18.—Most remarkable confirmation of the hostile attitude of Japan toward the United States came today from J. de Savornin Lohman, a citizen of Holland, who has arrived in Washington direct from the Japanese Empire.

Following is Mr. Lohman's thrilling statement: "Since my arrival in this country, I have been surprised at the indifference of the American people toward the attitude of Japan. I mingled with all classes of people in the different cities of the Japanese Empire and everywhere it was the main topic of conversation that Japan hates America and Americans. They do not conceal this hatred. They are possessed of a supreme confidence that they can crush this nation."

A Card. Mr. Editor: As the legislature has relieved me of the trial of cases, since March 1st, I think it might be of interest to the citizens to state that I have turned over to county treasurer T. T. B. covering fines of the mayor's court for the last 10 months of our fiscal year. The amount turned in last year ending April 30, 1910, for the same purpose was $174.85. C. H. STERLING, Mayor.

To the Citizens of Washington: Having repeatedly been asked by many of the good people of Washington to allow my name to be used as a candidate for mayor of the city, for the next term, I hereby announce myself for that office subject to the action of the Democratic primary, soon to be held. If selected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability and for the good of all. Respectfully, C. M. BROWN.

Like Esau, the masses of Christendom have sold their birthright of special and peculiar advantage. By the masses, we mean not only the agnostic portion of it, but also the great majority of worldly professors of the religion of Christ, who are Christians only in name, but who lack the life of Christ in them. We are in time of the last or Laodicean stage of the great nominal gospel church of wheat and tares. (Rev. 14-22.)
