DEMONSTRATION MEMORIAL DAY

The Club Will Add to Celebrating Memorial Day—Program Will be Announced Later—Preparation for Club House Still Going On

There was a most enthusiastic meeting of the Tar Heel Motor Boat Club at the office of the commodore, Dr. John C. Hodman, last evening. A good representation of the members were present and matters of vital importance were considered. The committee on the celebration reported and after a full discussion of the report it was decided to increase the powers of the committee. They will make another report at a meeting to be called by the commodore.

It was decided by the club to have a demonstration on the afternoon of Memorial Day. All the boats in the club are to assemble at the Atlantic Coast Line dock by three o'clock on Memorial Day for the purpose of taking any stranger or visitor in the city on that day around the harbor. A full program of the day will be published in this paper later on.

The Motor Club desires to aid in every way possible towards maintaining the station on this memorable occasion.

Suitable resolutions were also passed in reference to the work done by Mr. C. E. Fuller of Rhode Island, an honored member of the club during his stay in Washington.

Several new members were added last evening. The condition of the organization was found to be in first class shape and the future of the club is propitious.

Preparations are still going on for the erection of the club house.

MR. NEWLAND IN THE RAGE

Caldwell County Man Making Fight For Governor

Raleigh, N. C., May 2.—Lieutenant Governor W. C. Newland, of Lenoir was in the city today enroute to Franklin county, where tomorrow he will make an educational address. A former lieutenant governor, Hon. W. D. Turner, of Statesville, was also in the city at the same time. Mr. Turner came to appear before the supreme court.

He reports progress on the Statesville Air Line, the proposed road from Statesville to Yadkinville. Fifty converts are of work near Statesville.

Mr. Newland says that he is still in the race for governor. He, too, is a mountain man and will likely be the only opponent to Hon. Locke Craig.

As president of the senate, the lieutenant governor added other friends to his long list and his admirers say that he will be under the ropes at the finish.

Another possible candidate for governor next year is Mr. C. W. Tillett, of Charlotte, who is a close personal and political friend to Governor Kitchin.

Mr. Tillett however has not sought the office, and it is probable that the contest will be between the two gentlemen from the tall peaks.

THE W. C. T. U.

Important Meeting to be Held Tomorrow Afternoon

There will be an important meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian League Rooms. The speaker of the afternoon will be Rev. B. H. Broom, pastor of the First Methodist church. Every member is urged to be present and any others who desire to attend.

TO FIGHT THE FLY.

So completely have the house flies been exterminated in England that screens are no longer used in windows and doors. This shows what can be done. A solution of formalin or formaldehyde in water is the best and cheapest exterminator. Try it once and you will see. Burn pyrethrum powder in a room and sweep out the flies. Or put twenty drops of carbolic acid on a hot shovel. The vapor is deadly to the pest. Put a dram of bichromate of potash in half a glass of water and sweeten. Expose a little of the solution in saucers. Sticky fly paper also will do the work.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

BILL WILL NOT PASS THE SENATE

Much Speculation About Bill Now Under Discussion

THE FREE LIST TARIFF BILL

The Farmers' Free List Bill is the National House.—The Savings Would be Tremendous if the Bill is Passed.

Washington, D. C., May 2.—There is considerable speculation concerning the farmers' free list bill. Chairman Underwood, of the ways and means, thinks it is a good thing. He believes that it will help the farmer. Mr. Wilson, of Illinois, declared on the floor of the house last week that it was a take, made to catch rural votes.

Others say that it is a political measure which will pass the house and die. Mr. Underwood announced that it would pass both houses of congress and be signed by the president. Very few people believe that the bill will ever pass the senate.

But, it is said, what if it did pass the senate and receive the president's signature? What then? How much would the consumer of the articles on the free list gain? What revenue would be realized?

The exemption from duty of all articles affected by the bill would reduce the tariff revenue by $16,022,892, based on importations for last year.

Included in this are the duties to be remitted under the reciprocity treaty with Canada, amounting to $1,852,313, which deducted would leave $14,170,579.

There is no way to reach an absolutely reliable conclusion about what will be saved by consumers. The imports, in no instances, are very small; for the duties are prohibitive, and we have monopolies.

If other countries build factories and compete with us on farm implements and other things prices may be affected.

But reduced to the final analysis, to which there is very little prospect of it ever being, the saving would be tremendous. Here are the figures: The consumption, measured by the net supply, in values, of the articles on the free list follow:

- Salt, consumption, $9,549,824; saved, $4,862,005.014.
- Farm implements, $90,627,110; against $12,875,141.54.
- Bopping for cotton, sacks, burlaps, etc., $26,921,644 against $6,922,090.
- Cotton ties, hoop or band iron, $12,629,952 against $2,617,238.49.
- Leather, boots and shoes, harness and saddles, $295,005,262 against $27,452,795.49.
- Barbed wire, rods, balling wire, etc., $112,027,205 against $22,861,064.26.
- Fresh and preserved meats, $614,225,212 against $133,427,753.04.
- Floor, grain, etc., $485,041,622 against $26,299,146.21.
- Lumber, bats and shingles, $699,529,222 against $29,225,652.41.
- Sewing machines, $4,497,764 against $2,549,229.20.

Of course there are many ifs in this. If the farmers' free list bill becomes a law and prices drop as some of the advocates of the bill say they will, in time these figures may be out.

EAST CAROLINA TRAINING SCHOOL

Notes of Interest From This Well Known Institution

Greenville, N. C., May 2.—President Wright attended the fourteenth meeting of the Educational Conference of the South recently held at Jacksonville, Fla.

President Wright has delivered the literary address at the closing of the following schools: Mt. Olive, April 16, Statesville, April 28th; and Jacksonville, N. C., May 3.

Mr. W. H. Bagdole attended the closing exercises of the Griffon Graded School April 27th and 28th.

Mr. C. W. Wilson will attend a picnic and educational rally this week at the closing of the Saratoga school.

Miss Crane, secretary of the Virginia Carolina territory of the Y. M. C. A., spent two days at the school recently. Her visit was a great help to the organization.

On Sunday evening Miss Jenkins showed a number of interesting pictures of Korea that her mission study class has collected. She used the magic lantern. The lantern is a source of much pleasure and profit.

The second year class gave a most delightful vaudeville performance on the evening of April 29th. There were some very amusing original features, a hypnotic show and a minstrel number; tableaux, an illustrated song, a beautiful gaxette and a clever play.

The senior class served a delicious luncheon to the faculty and ex-Governor and Mrs. Jarvis on the afternoon of April 29th. The luncheon of four courses, prepared and served by the class, reflected great credit upon both the class and the instructor, Miss Pugh.

The one year class gave on Saturday evening, an unique entertainment presenting a sample copy of the Ladies Home Journal. The magic lantern was used for throwing poster headlines. The cover picture pages and advertising department were shown in tableaux; the other departments were dramatized.

Miss Dabney, teacher of primary methods has visited several schools near by. By observing the actual work in the school room she is brought in much closer contact with the teachers.

Every indication is that the summer school this year will be much larger than last year. The school at present has received one hundred per cent more applications for attendance than at this time last year. Many county and city superintendents and high school principals will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the course in school administration to be conducted by Dr. Geo. D. Strayer, of Columbia University.

The school has been forced to reject twenty-one applicants to the spring course for lack of room.

Mr. Mason is doing a fine work as the head of this school and grows more popular with the people weekly.

Tariff Discussed in Congress

Washington May 1.—The house of representatives resumed debate on the tariff at 11 o'clock today with a determination to complete the discussion of the free list bill this week.

Representative Mose of Indiana, in a half hour speech declared in favor of the present free list bill and convinced of the merit of the Canadian reciprocity measure recently passed by the house.

Representative Longworth of Ohio a republican member of the ways and means committee, attacked the free list bill in strong terms in the first speech of the day from the opposition side.

He declared the bill was vague in its terms and so loosely drawn that even the democratic leaders could not say definitely what industries it would affect if it became law. Mr. Longworth declared that chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee would not let him even what paragraphs of the Payne-Adrich tariff law are affected by the free list bill.

Death Deplored

News reaches this city of the death of Mr. W. M. Smithwick of Small, N. C., who passed away last night about 2 o'clock. He leaves a widow and six children, four boys and two girls. He was a man of high ideals and did much towards elevating his adopted community. Prior to his demise he had been confined to his bed for several weeks. He was a consistent member of the Free Will Baptist church and his death will be a source of sorrow to his many friends in this well known religious organization.

The burial will take place tomorrow. We express sympathy for the bereaved relatives and friends.

MEMORIAL DAY IN WASHINGTON TO BE FITTINGLY CELEBRATED

A Great Day is Being Planned By Committees in Charge of the Arrangements

Memorial Day in Washington on Wednesday May 10th will be fittingly observed as has been the custom here for many years. Both the Daughters of the Confederacy and the ex-Confederate Association are making great preparations for this memorable event.

The exercises of the day will take place in the public school auditorium on that day beginning promptly at 11 o'clock.

While the order of the day has not been as yet announced we are sure in saying it will be one that will meet with the approbation of every veteran as well as visitor.

The music committee will furnish selections that are appropriate and suitable.

After the regular exercises in the auditorium the parade will form and go in Caldwell cemetery where the graves of the heroes will be decorated.

ed. After the program at the cemetery has been completed the parade will re-form and march back to the city and the armory hall where the veterans will be served with dinner.

It is the intention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to present 100 Crowns of Honor on next Memorial Day.

One of the features of this celebration in Washington is the part the children of the Confederacy take. For several years they have been the center of attraction. This year there will be no exception in this rule.

The celebration this year will be fitting and proper and we assure all who attend they will be amply rewarded.
