SATURDAY, MAY 6, 1911

CRUEL PUNISHMENT

terrible crime in which Jesse Pe roy, a fad of 11 years of age, mur-dered two little children. The crime was a particularly atroctous one, no brutal and horrible that the boy was sentenced to solitary confinament for life.

through an application made now by the may of 49 years to be allowed to work and mingle with the other prin oners in the Charlestown, Mass., pen itentiary in which he is confined. The Baltimore Sun says:

"For thirty-five years, more than a generation, this prisoner has been denied all intercourse with his kind. If he spoke a word to one who passed his cell, the person addressed went by in silence. Days pass and he does

Section 1. Collection of the prisoner happens desired all intercourse with his kind if he spokes a word to one who passed went by in silence. Days pass and he does not hear he sound of a human voice, his meshe being fent to him through an opening in the grating of his cell.

"Its is difficult to understand how a child off 14 years could be consciously guilty of a crime that deserved such punishment as this. It would seem that one who did as he did must be irresponsible or mentally and morbeit provides the provides of the case he should have been treated accordingly. Nowedays science and more would deal with such a case diffreently from the manner in which the law dealt with this boy of 14 thirty ne years ago.

"The constitution of the United States and doubless those of nearly all of the states of the United States and doubless those of nearly all of the states of the United States and doubless those of nearly had not been subjected to cruel and unusual pointhments. If Jesus Pomeroy has not been subjected to cruel and unusual pointhment. If Jesus Pomeroy has not been subjected to cruel and unusual pointhment, and the University of the states of the United States and to be have made an ent to it at ouce, would have been subjected to cruel and unusual pointhment, the ferm is meaningless? To save Beet unusual pointhment in absolute identification of the wheely, or tore angart by will horses and so to have made an ent to it at ouce, would have been sent to it at ouce, would have been subjected to cruel and unusual pointhment in absolute identification of the disease and group and despair.

"The legislative committee were the only persons who had a legal right to apack to this prisoner, and pardon. The legislative committee were the only persons who had a legal right to apack to this prisoner, and pardon. The legislative committee were the only persons who had a legal right to apack to this prisoner, and the law and the subject of the same and the prisoner were the only persons who had a legal right to apack to this ad privilege of occupation, of hard labor among the other convicts of the prison."

World. These who have been reading the preceding stories of this featmating series being gives with the Sunday World will surely get this one and the sight others to follow, a complete narrative each week for eight consecutive Sundays.

You will remember Sheriock Holmes as the great delective character made famous the world over by the great English author, Bir A Cohar Doyle These are his newest and best singles. Order your Sunday World in advance.

PIGHT HOOKWOHM DISEASE

DR. P. W. COVINGTON TO

Dr. P. W. Covington, of Rocking

CHOICE

J. L. O'OUINN & CO.