PERSONALLY CONDUCTED TOUR TO WEST POINT, NEW YORK, VIA NORFOLK AND NEW YORK CITY VIA NORFOLK SOUTHERN RAILROAD

Leave Raleigh, Goldsboro, Beaufort and Oriental and Intermediate Stations—Thursday, June 15th, 1911.

Another attractive personally conducted tour has been arranged by the Norfolk Southern Railroad at phenomenally low rates. The destination will be West Point, N. Y., on the Historic Hudson River with five whole days to do New York City.

Rates include Pullman, and state room accommodations and all meals enroute and from New York City and hotel (room only for 5 days in New York City.

From Raleigh, N. C. $29.85
 From Wilson, N. C. 29.35
 From Goldsboro, N. C. 29.85
 From Kinston, N. C. 29.85
 From New Bern, N. C. 29.85
 From Greenville, N. C. 29.35

The rates will be less if Pullman accommodations are not required to Norfolk Va.

The party will be under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Dowell and Miss Flora Creech of Raleigh, N. C.

A most attractive itinerary has been arranged—including a day at Virginia Beach. The trip from Norfolk to New York will be via the Old Dominion line which sails from Norfolk June 16th. Arriving at New York at 3:00 p. m., June 17th, the party will be quartered at the Hotel Halborough, 36th Street and Broadway.

Monday, June 19th, the party will go to West Point, N. Y., the seat of the United States Military Academy. It is needless to elaborate upon the magnificent scenic beauty along the Hudson River, it is incomparable.

Five days in New York will be hardly time enough to see the wonders of the great American Metropolis—but much can be seen in that time.

Teh party will leave New York, returning by the Old Dominion line, at 3:00 p. m. June 23rd, arriving "home" on the afternoon of June 24th.

SOUTHERN COOKING

At Atlantic Hotel to be a Feature This Summer.

What is better than good fresh sea trout just taken from the sea, or Spanish mackerel fresh from the ocean, fried in the good old Southern fashion, corn cakes, made from water, ground meal, good black coffee, every one in North Carolina knows how delicious are the fish at Morehead City—every one likes sea food and corn bread cakes. "Tar Heel" fashion.

Manager Baxter of the Atlantic Hotel is a "Tar Heel" himself and he likes this sort of food as a feature of the service at the Atlantic Hotel this summer will be a return to the old fashion Southern dishes—and sea food will be plentiful at every meal.

NEW SCHEME OF NEW YORK BUSINESS MEN SHOWS IMPROVEMENT.

NEW YORK, (Special)—The development of better boys and girls by means of dance halls.

How's that for an advanced idea? For a maker of the old-time orthodox church members short with disdain, ah!

Well that's just what's being attempted in this city. And everyone connected with the movement—directly or indirectly—will tell you that it is succeeding beyond all expectations.

In consideration for my being an honored member of the above club, I hereby pledge myself to abstain from using paint on my face, which deceives no one but myself. I also waive my rights for any suit unbecoming a lady.

In consideration for my being an honored member of the above club, I hereby pledge myself to abstain from using cigarettes while a member. I also waive my rights for any suit unbecoming a gentleman.

Isn't this a pretty good platform? Subscribing to it is the only thing that costs for membership in the Music Demonstration club, the name of the new dance club. The patrons of the club are the office boys, messengers, bank runners, stenographers and office girls of the financial district. The dance room is in the basement of a building in Maiden Lane, between Nassau and Williams streets.

Dancing begins at 12:10 p. m. every day except Sunday, and ends at 1:30 p. m. In this hour and a half, these shifts of dancers occupy the floor, those whose lunch time is from noon until 1:30, from 12:30 to 1:30, and from 1 until 1:30.

The boys and girls are supposed to spend ten minutes of their half hour's lunch time with their sandwiches, pie and coffee and the other twenty minutes in Terpsichorean pursuits.

Some disaffected folk may object to this, some moralist may say that it is both physically and morally damning and extremists in lines may point the horrible and that awaits the participants in such pleasures, but the boys and girls themselves, their employers and the white-haired man who acts as master of ceremonies will all tell you that the scheme is prolific of good results.

Twenty minutes dancing with Sadie, or May or Rose makes Jimmy a whole lot lighter-hearted and agreeable to his tasks than knocking about the streets or lounging in some dark corner with only a cigarette to claim his attention.

And the same length of time in Freddie's or Bob's or Dick's arms, while the two-piece orchestra (piano and violin) tears off: "Dearie, Your the Only Girl For Me," makes Argie a whole lot more sweet-tempered, winsome and keener for stenographic dictation than loitering over a candy counter or gossiping on the street corner.

If you don't believe all this, ask the employers of these boys and girls, for it is they who pay all the expenses of the dance hall.

They are the keenest business men in the world, this downtown New York crew, and you wouldn't see them wasting any time or money on such "foolishness" as a dance hall unless they actually found that the returns came in the way of improved service.

The walls of the dance hall are newly whitewashed and strung with new paper flags of all nations and Ireland, to boot. But it is the floor that makes the biggest hit. It is of cement, with the surface heavily paraffined.

It is something new in dance floors but such expressions as "Gee, ain't this swell!" show that the discoverer or inventor of it hit upon something all to the merrily.

Tommy knows just how to look at Marjle and Marjle knows just how to respond and still be a perfect lady (for her white membership card adjusts her to do nothing unladylike) and so anybody that wants a dance at the Music Demonstration club can usually get it.

Owing to the limited time, the length of the dances is cut to one minute each. This gives each shift enough different dances to hear all their favorite music and indulge in all their favorite steps.

FIRST FEW GRAY MAY BE POSTPONED.

A feeling of sadness, consequent upon the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are to be known as the heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs long before they are thirty years of age. It is a natural and normal condition, and there is something wrong with the individual who does not have some gray hairs by the time he is thirty years of age.

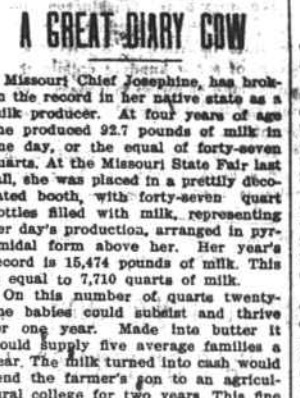

It is a fact that every man has out and becomes bald at every age. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively old people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a shadow of gray.

The ideal restorative of Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulfur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by BROWN DRUG CO.

BROWN RED GAMES ARE AN OLD BREED.

The Brown Red Games have been known as far back as poultry has been known.

The breast plumage of both the male and female of this variety is laced with lemon shading. Like the others of this breed, the Brown Red Games carry their tail in an almost upright position, which gives them the appearance of stiltiness. While this breed is useful, the commercial value of the fowls is so limited as to exclude them from general cultivation.

A GREAT DAIRY COW.

Missouri Chief Josephine has broken the record in her native state as a milk producer. At four years of age she produced 927 pounds of milk in one day, or the equal of forty-seven quarts. At the Missouri State Fair last fall, she was placed in a prettily decorated booth, with forty-seven quart bottles filled with milk, representing her day's production, arranged in pyramidal form above her. Her year's record is 15,474 pounds of milk. This is equal to 7,737 quarts of milk.

On this number of quarts twenty-one babies could subsist and thrive for one year. Made into butter it would supply five average families a year. The milk turned into cash would send the farmer's son to an agricultural college for two years. This fine cow is a Holstein.

Asparagus and Rhubarb Easily Grown.

Asparagus and rhubarb are too delicious vegetables that even the most careless farmer may have in abundance if he gives them a chance to grow. Both contain medicinal qualities of the highest value. Asparagus is one of the best remedies for kidney troubles, and rhubarb takes the place of nauseous physic in putting the system in good working order without violently disturbing the functions. A small plot devoted to each of these will be a good investment, and there is time enough to make a start this year.

Rail Fence Philosophy.

It takes less time to blow the whistle than to turn the wheels and the man who does things is moved by a stronger power than the man who merely talks.

Three-horse energy exhibited upon a one-horse farm will produce wonderfully rich results.

If you have six cows and no separator, sell one of the cows and buy a separator. You will save work and make money by the deal.

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For

GOATS AS TRAIL MAKERS.

There may be some doubt of the truth of the oft-repeated story that a goat will thrive on a tin-can diet, but that it grows fat and fleshy on brush and small trees, bark, and stumps—is being proved every day at the Lassen Forest Preserve in California. Three thousand of the Angora variety are busily engaged in cutting trails for fire guards through the thick undergrowth on the slopes of the mountains out there, and they eat as they work.

The industrious animals have been divided into two bands and are grazed under the care of herders within certain well defined areas. They have practically killed all the brush in the course marked out, either by eating it all or by barking as in the case of the heavy manzanita bushes. When these animals have finished a job which mere man would not have done half so thoroughly and for which he would have charged a good many dollars, they are in excellent condition and worth far more in the market than when they began.—Van Norden's.

CAN YOU DO IT?

Sit on the ground with your legs crossed under you, fold your arms, and get up without unfolding them.

Place the tips of your forefingers together and press them against your chest. Then ask anybody to pull them apart by pulling your wrists. So long as you keep your fingers touching your chest they cannot do it.

Stand sideways close to the wall, with your arm raised flat against the wall, and the rest of your side touching the wall. Then try to raise the leg on the other side without falling over.

Hold up your hand and try to bend each finger separately, leaving the other straight. You will find that you bend the third finger the fourth, or little finger, will bend with it; or if you bend the fourth, the third will bend also.

THE PENNY CURATE.

Many clergy guard against copper in the collection bags, and, of course, people who can afford silver ought not to give pennies only; but here is nothing to be said against copper if there is plenty of it. In a certain parish not long ago the vicar announced that an additional clergyman or second curate was needed. He said the cost of his maintenance was to be provided by a penny fund which every parishioner was wanted to subscribe. The fund was started and was so successful that the income of the new curate was assured thereby. The new assistant is to this day called "The Penny Curate."
