A PLEASANT SAIL LAST EVENING

It was a happy congenial party that enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Annie Gray Weston last evening who entertained in honor of her friend, Miss Ruth Spencer of Hyde county. The party gathered at Miss Weston's home at 8 o'clock and at 9 o'clock went for a sail on Pamlico river. The night was an ideal one and after a beautiful run to Mauls' Point on Captain Foreman's motor boat they returned and repaired to Miss Weston's home where Mrs. B. B. Weston served refreshments in her usual attractive way. Those present were: Misses Mary Tankard, Margaret Gordon, Belle Cox, Edna Herlock, Eastern Shore of Maryland; Carrie and Rebecca Simmons, Mary Isabelle Carter, Ruth Spencer, Messrs. Norman Carrow, Jay Hodges, Ralph Weston, Walter Barnhill, Clyde Stallings, Christopher Bright, Guy Weston, Caleb Bell and George Bonner. Mrs. Charles W. Thomas chaperoned the party.

ALL ARE INVITED THIS EVENING

Another Service at the Christian Church Well Attended.

There was another good attendance at the Christian church last night. The subject of the discourse by Rev. H. C. Bobbit on "The Dead Iron Devil" was a masterly presentation and much enjoyed and appreciated by all present. Tonight there will be services at the usual hour. The subject will be "Boy Gone Wrong".

After the services last night the rite of baptism was administered to three persons. All cordially invited to be present this evening.

TWO BOYS ARE MURDERED ONE A MYSTERY

Lad Found in a Thicket Near Suffolk, Face Scarred

DANVILLE SLAYER A BOY

THROAT WAS MARKED BY PRESSING FINGERS - THE BODY WAS DRAGGED FROM THE ROAD - HAD VISITED FRIENDS - A NEGRO IS HELD.

Suffolk, Va., May 30.—With his face scarred and bruised, his neck broken and finger marks on his throat, Charles Brinkley, the 15-year-old son of J. W. Brinkley, a prominent merchant and farmer at Nursey Station, six miles from Suffolk, was found dead in a thicket near his home last evening.

They boy left home Saturday evening to visit friends at the home of Jeddie Boyd, three-quarters of a mile away. The body, which had been dragged into the woods about twenty yards from the county road, was found by friends. His friends said he left them at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night.

John Garner, a negro man employed by Mr. Byrd, has been arrested as a suspect.

Another Boy slain
Wanville, Va., May 30. — Sam Priddy, a white boy 13 years of age, shot and almost instantly killed Frank Mahan, 14 years of age, and a fellow workman in the cotton mill this morning as he was getting off a car to go to his work.

Mahan was shot without any warning. Three balls took effect in Mahan's body and another bullet struck a negro, but did not seriously wound him. The trouble grew out of a fuss the two boys had Saturday.

It was reported that Priddy's plans were to kill his foreman in the mill also, but the little prisoner denied this.

Priddy stated that he decided Saturday to kill Mahan and that this morning he slipped his father's revolver in his pocket before he left home, intending to use it for that purpose.

Priddy was arrested about five minutes after the tragedy occurred and placed in jail.

POPULAR COUPLE WERE WEDDED THIS MORNING

Mr. R. A. G. Barnes and Miss Hannah Bonner Shaw, First Presbyterian Church

LARGE NUMBER PRESENT

THE CEREMONY WAS IMPRESSIVELY PERFORMED BY THE PASTOR, REV. H. B. SEARIGHT - THE COUPLE LEAVE FOR A BRIDAL TOUR OF NORTHERN CITIES - HAVE MANY FRIENDS OVER THE STATE.

The First Presbyterian church, of this city, was the scene of a beautiful spring wedding this morning at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Hannah Bonner Shaw became the bride of Mr. Roscoe A. G. Barnes.

No more popular couple ever brightened their troth at the altar. If well wishes is an omen of happiness then Mr. and Mrs. Barnes begin their married life under the brightest of skies.

For weeks this approaching marriage has been the topic among our people and today its consummation was but the fulfillment of an expectation long realized. The ceremony was beautiful in its simplicity yet it varied with it a solemnity and dignity long to be remembered.

The church, attractive within itself, around the chancel was a perfect bower of lilies of the valley, exergreens, spring lilies, etc. The decorations were the work of deft fingers and were much admired by all present.

Prior to the coming of the bridal party Mrs. Frank C. Kugler rendered a most attractive musical program on the massive organ.

The guests of honor intimate friends of the bride-elect, entered the church just before the bridal party were announced. They were: Miss Colla Bridgman, Miss May Styron, Miss Ella Mallison, Miss Annie Cox, Miss Jennie Cox, Miss Lottie Bonner, Aurora; Miss Minta Bonner, Aurora; Mrs. Paul Sparrow, Aurora; Miss Janie Roberts.

After they were seated the organ under the skillful touch of Mrs. Frank C. Kugler Gilded in Lohengrin's wedding march and the bridal party entered as follows: First came the ushers, Mr. H. H. MacLean of Farmville, N. C., and Mr. Lyndon Shaw, a brother of the bride. Wending their way up the respective aisles they took their places at the chancel.

Next to enter were the bridesmaids Miss Mary Elizabeth Thomas and Miss Helen Shaw, sister of the bride. They were comely attired in white batiste dresses, white hats, gloves and carrying bouquets of pink sweet peas.

The dame of honor, Mrs. Charles Lawrence of Scotland Neck, a sister of the bride, entered alone. Her gown was a creation of white, embroidered Marquise, with black hat and gracefully holding a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

All eyes were now centered on the attractive bride as she slowly wended her way down the right aisle leaning on the arm of her sister and maid of honor, Miss Mary Shaw. Her maid wore a beautiful gown of white batiste, white hat, gloves and carried white sweet peas.

The gown of the bride was a handsome going away dress of dark blue serge, with hat and gloves to match. Her bouquet was white sweet peas. Arriving at the altar she was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Frank Cox who entered from the ante room. Facing the pastor of the church, Rev. H. B. Searight they were made one before God and the large company present in an impressive manner.

During the solemn but impressive ceremony the familiar strains of Schubert's serenade hushed the attendees. After the ceremony and to the inspiring notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march and the merry chiming of the marriage bell Mr. and Mrs. Barnes left the church and went at once to the Atlantic Coast Line depot where they boarded the eight o'clock train for an extended tour of northern cities and also a visit to Western North Carolina.

Miss Shaw is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Lida Shaw of this city. For years she has ever been in the forefront for popularity and attractiveness. For years she has been the efficient organist of the First Presbyterian church and the church appreciating her worth presented to her a handsome silver pitcher—a remembrance worthily bestowed. As a musician she ranks among the first in this section of the state and we congratulate the groom on winning such an attractive and winsome young lady as his helpmeet through life's vicissitudes.

Mr. Barnes is at present the traveling freight and passenger agent for the Atlantic Coast Line in this section of North Carolina. He is a native of Wilson county and is a son of Mr. Elias G. Barnes an honored citizen of that county. For quite a number of years he filled the position as agent for the Atlantic Coast Line here and the company appreciating his worth and sterling qualities promoted him to his present position.

CHAPEL HILL IS THE MECCA OF POLITICIANS

All Flocking to the University to Hear Governor Woodrow Wilson Speak

C. MARSHAL, STATE FAIR

THE GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY, SLATED FOR THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO SPEAK AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Raleigh, May 29.—Nearly every politician of the state of any prominence, except one of two who unfortunately slipped up on making dates elsewhere, has moved onto Chapel Hill. The state departments here are practically deserted to day and former university students as well as men who are numbered among the alumni of the institution have journeyed to Chapel Hill, where Woodrow Wilson, governor of New Jersey, is to be the chief attraction tomorrow. There seems to be much interest in this section of the presidential boom of Wilson, and the people are curious to see the "next Democratic presidential nominee," for if one is to follow state Chairman Eller, of Winston, and others, Wilson is to be the man.

Governor Wilson is coming to this state after a journey throughout the west, where he has made numerous speeches in which he has outlined some of the needed reforms that, in his opinion should be made. In order to get the government of the country back into the hands of the people, Governor Wilson would have the initiative referendum and recall brought into use. Although the people of New Jersey are docking his salary at the rate of $500 per month while he is out of the state, Governor Wilson seems to have little fear of a recall being used in New Jersey.

Democrats of all shades of beliefs are going to Chapel Hill and whether he makes a political speech or not, there is much political significance to his address tomorrow. Chief Marshal at State Fair Col. Joseph E. Pogue, secretary of the state fair association has appointed John A. Wilkinson, of Belhaven, as chief marshal of the coming fair, which is to be held October 17, 1911, and 20.

Mr. Wilkinson is a prominent man of Eastern North Carolina, and is a director of the Norfolk Southern Railway Company. It will be quite awhile before he announces his assistants.

It is understood that the state building commission which has charge of the $250,000 administration building at the corner of Morgan and Fayetteville streets, is to hold another meeting June 6, at which time it is probable that the architects will submit plans in accordance with suggestions offered by the members of the commission here recently. After the selection of an architect it is thought it will not be long before bids will be asked for.

The spring term of the supreme court is to come to a close Wednesday when the last batch of opinions for the term is to be handed down. There are several important opinions yet to be announced, among them being the City of Goldsboro vs the Atlantic Coast Line, which involves the power of the city to order the railway company to bring its grade in the city limits to that established for the streets.

Is Improving. The many friends of Mrs. Daniel Simmons who was recently operated on at the Washington Hospital will be pleased to know that her condition is much better today and unless something unforeseen happens she will soon be able to return to her home.

Give Picnic. The Bridge society of the M. E. church gave a picnic to its members and others at Washington Park on yesterday. The day was a most enjoyable one.

Supreme Court Decision in the American Tobacco Case

SEND BACK TO THE LOWER COURT IN ATTEMPT TO CREATE NEW CONDITIONS IN HARMONY WITH THE LAW. - DISSENTS ON TWO POINTS

Washington, May 30.—The American Tobacco Company and its accessories and subordinate corporations and companies including the English corporation yesterday were held by the Supreme Court of the United States to be co-operators in a combination illegal under the Sherman anti-trust act.

The court sent the case back to the lower court, with directions to hear further the parties so as to ascertain whether a new condition cannot be recreated in harmony with the law. Justice Harlan concurred in part with the court's opinion, and dissented in part.

Associate Justice Harlan delivered a vigorous dissent to part of the decision of the Supreme court of the United States in the tobacco case, although he agreed that the American Tobacco Company and its accessory and subsidiary corporations were members of an unlawful combination in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

His dissent as expressed from the bench, centered around two points. First, he took issue with the court for sending the case back to the lower court.
