WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7.

MR. DAVIS AND THE LEAGUE. First of all, let it be understood that we have no fight with the good citizens that tend to lessen the drink evil.

Next let it be understood that we are not antagonistic to the process of law to prohibit interstate shipments.

We heartily endorse all these BUT in each and every place in which Mr. Davis, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, has appeared in his travels there have been swars of fears of the law.

Raleigh does not pose us the model of the State, notwithstanding it is the home of the Hon. Josephus Daniels.

Mr. Daniels did not need Mr. Davis to tell him, nor the good people of Raleigh, that liquor was being sold under their noses.

Mr. Davis' next bomb, of importance is in Charlotte. The good people of Charlotte did not need Mr. Davis to tell them that whiskey could be bought in their town, by an outsider, nor did he receive the ovation given him in Raleigh.

The truth is the Anti-Saloon League is another one of those bureaus created for the purpose of giving out jobs. Mr. Davis is the Superintendent of the one in this State. He has his job and has to make good.

We have seen their statements and time and again have been offered their "Released Copy," which we have refused to publish, for the reason that it was a reflection upon the good citizenship of the State and a booster for an organization that has no excuse for existence.

We defy any City, of its size, to show the record that Washington has recently shown, not only for lack of drunks, but for minor criminal offenses. All of which we attribute to our efficient police officials—Messrs. Geo. Howard, Chief, and "Dick" Roberts, and the lamented, Geo. Morgan.

The sum that is paid by sundry citizens to pay Mr. Davis' expenses and the expenses of his league, could far better be spent in pensions to widows and orphans that run his waste, than for his exploitations of the iniquities of cities he is visiting.

Bye and bye we will publish a statement showing Mr. Davis' expenses and receipts, and leave it to the good people whether or not Mr. Davis is really working for the good of the people or Mr. Davis.

BROAD CREEK ITEMS. We are having some cold weather at this writing.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. C. C. Cutler.

E. J. Reppas was a visitor at Mrs. W. H. Sullivan Sunday night.

Miss Lizzie Latham spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Allgood, at Slatestone.

C. H. Wallace was the guest of Miss Ira Green, Sunday.

John W. Jordan and Nick Waters of near Pinetown, were in our midst Sunday.

Mrs. W. T. Latham is on the sick list. We hope she will soon recover.

Miss Lella G. Cutler visited the Misses Mable and Ruby Reppas, on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Laura Whitley and Miss Beale Warren spent last Tuesday night with Mrs. W. T. Latham. They are teachers at Shepard school house.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Whitley of Fanteo, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Whitley's parents Saturday night and Sunday.

There was quite a crowd at the home of Mr. Charles Tetterton last Sunday.

Mr. H. B. Wallace and family have moved to the J. B. Reppas farm.

Mack Black and Taylor Pinkham were visitors here Sunday night.

E. F. Black is working on his house near Broad Creek this week.

PEACH SEASON COMING. The fruit from 1700 bearing trees will most likely sell for $1,700, perhaps more. Better buy this peach orchard and make money. See me at once, A. C. HATHAWAY, Washington, N. C.

Downward Course. Past Being Realized by Washington People. A little backache at first. Daily increasing till the back is lame and weak.

Urinary disorders quickly follow; Dropsy and finally Bright's disease. This is the downward course of kidney ills.

Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Washington citizen. Mrs. G. E. Edwards, 223 E. Main St., Washington, N. C., says: "I suffered terribly from backache, accompanied by sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys. The kidney secretions caused me considerable annoyance. I used several kidney remedies but received no relief until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They drove away the pains and lameness in my loins and strengthened my kidneys. That tired, languid feeling disappeared and I was able to rest better at night."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND LINGLETON. The weather is still rough and the farmers have not done much toward their crops for 1912.

Mrs. J. B. Willard is very sick. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery to health. Owing to her illness her daughter, Miss Caddle did not teach today.

There was not much snow Sunday, but the cold weather made up for it. Arthur Moore and Miss Cora Swanner were the guests of Miss Lucie Woolard, Sunday afternoon.

School is not going on at Lingleton this week, owing to the teacher, Miss Annie Louise Hodges being sick. We wish for her a speedy recovery to health.

Mrs. Emley Martin and Mrs. Frances Lilley were the guests of their brother, H. R. Woolard, Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs David Moore and Georgia Hodges were in our midst Sunday afternoon.

J. H. Lingleton met with quite a misfortune Monday. His youngest son struck a match on the ties of a bale of cotton, and it caught the cotton on fire, but they managed to put it out before it did a great deal of damage. He will have to re-bale four bales. We sympathize with him in his loss.

Miss Cottle Lingleton and brother Dave, were the guests of Miss Lucie Woolard, Saturday night.

Mrs. Emley Martin of Sweet Home, who has been visiting in our midst for the past week, went to Cross Roads Sunday to spend a week.

Stole Shoes to Stop Pursuit. Atlantic City, Feb. 6.—John Fators and his wife arose this morning to find their shoes gone. Search of the house for other shoes revealed none. They were forced to remain indoors while the police searched for the thief. He proved to be a boarder who had carried off the shoes to prevent immediate pursuit when he awoke without seeing his shoes.

Something for Nothing. Is not always the best. Some of my competitors advertise to do pressing free. I can't do it that way. I have to live and cannot do so by doing work free. I guarantee every bit of my work and I know personally that it is done right.
