AYCOCK'S DEATH AND THE FIGHT FOR SENATOR

MUCH SPECULATION AS WHAT MAY BE THE FINAL OUTCOME

POSSIBLE EFFECT ON SITUATION

CHIEF JUSTICE CLARK MAY FALL HEIR TO THE SUPPORT OF THE LATE GOVERNOR

The Charlotte Observer of recent date says: The death of Governor Charles Brantley Aycock, which occurred with such suddenness in Birmingham Thursday night, was the sole topic of conversation in Charlotte yesterday. There were expressions of sorrow and regret on all sides.

The Charlotte Observer of recent date says: The death of Governor Charles Brantley Aycock, which occurred with such suddenness in Birmingham Thursday night, was the sole topic of conversation in Charlotte yesterday.

In the estimation of the weather-wise political prophet, the sudden removal of the third factor in the contest has clarified matters considerably and that the race is now one of the other of the two leaders.

NOTED AFTER REUF NOW PENITENT

THE POLITICAL BOSS MAKES EXPOSE OF HIS ASSOCIATES

SHOW 'EM UP HIS INTENTION

BEGINS A SERIES OF ARTICLES AGAINST THE MEN WHO WERE INDUCTED WITH HIM

San Francisco, Cal., April 9.—Abraham Ruef, convicted political boss of San Francisco, now serving a sentence in San Quentin penitentiary, began today a series of articles which he declares will constitute a complete expose of the men associated with him in the trust prosecution but not convicted.

Ruef goes back 16 years when he first gained a reputation from industrial men. The first period is abridged by the significant sentence: "A few years later found me associated with the tools and messengers of the railroads."

WEEKS WEATHER

Temperature will be near the reasonable average throughout the country this week with rains generally light and local according to the weekly bulletin.

Excelsior Pictures

The weeks bill at the Excelsior opened with the manager exhibiting strictly motion pictures, and to say they were considered to be a class that appealed to every man woman and child who is considered to be any judge of good photoplays.

Lyric Tonight

The Lyric tonight presents a program of songs and recitations. The program is given only a short synopsis of features that appear on the bill.

MAINE REPUBLICANS ARE DIVIDED

Bangor, Me., April 9.—Views by the delegates already on the field present a bitter contest in the Republican State convention, which is to meet here tomorrow for the selection of delegates to the national convention, which is to meet here tomorrow for the selection of delegates to the national convention at Chicago.

MUCH IMPROVED

It will be gratifying news to the many friends of Mrs. E. Brooks here and elsewhere to learn that she is now completely and that her speedy recovery is hoped for in two days. Elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of the visitors.

Taft and Roosevelt Kicking But Ignoring Real Issue

And the Democrats Anxious and Willing to Inform the People Where They Stand on the Tariff.

Special to the Daily News.

Washington, April 9.—A perusal of the "literature" sent out daily by the press agents of both Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt reveals that these candidates for the honor of leading their party are making a lot of noise and kicking up a lot of dust about everything except the one thing that its going to be the real issue of the coming campaign, namely, the tariff.

All the Democratic candidates are not only willing, but anxious to tell the people where they stand on the tariff. Look to the opposition headquarters for a discussion of this vital subject and you are greeted with a silence so thick that it could be cut with a knife.

So apparent has it become that the tariff trusts have been using the tariff all these years as a weapon to gouge profits out of the consumers of the land, that it is next to pathetic to hear the protectionists in Congress still shouting, as they occasionally do, to remove the tariff, or reduce the rates of the present law, would take away the "protection for the American working man."

HORSE AND MULE TEETH DISCUSSED

(By W. Car-Shaden)

Look to the teeth of your best friend, the horse and mule. Why let him suffer with sore tongue and cheeks? Unlike the teeth of the human family in which the teeth cease growing at maturity, that of the horse and mule grows continually, as long as there is life in the animal—the outside of the tooth of the upper jaw and the inside of the lower jaw are new and therefore of much harder composition than the rest of the tooth and by the wear caused by the grinding of mastication of their food, the softer part of the tooth is worn away leaving on the outside of upper jaw a ragged needle pointed snout of exceeding hardness that cuts the outside of their cheeks to such an extent that the animal cannot chew their food without great pain, the results are they swallow their ration in a state of consciousness unimpaired by nature and is the first cause of colic, indigestion, both acute and chronic and finally death before their usefulness is impaired. These teeth are also the cause of horses alighting when the bit is in their mouth and of sides pulling on the reins. I have seen horses teeth in such a condition that their tongues and cheeks were cut and gashed as though some one had taken a knife and slashed their mouth. Now the dressing of these teeth is a simple matter called Veterinary Dentistry and consists of tools purposely made for the work and the study and practice of using the tools is done by rasping with small files (made for the purpose) the sharp points until they are round and smooth and all chance of cutting of the flesh is removed. By having this work done your lengthen the life and usefulness of your horse, at the same time you reduce your food bill as the horse can thoroughly chew his food and aiding digestion. There is no horse or colt over 6 months of age but what needs its teeth looked to at least once a year.

Special Services Baptist Church

There will be a special service at the First Baptist Church every evening this week, except Saturday at 7:45 P. M., preparatory to the series of revival meetings, which are to commence Sunday April 14th.

The members of our church are urged to be present. It is our desire that all Christians, regardless of denominational affiliation, who are interested in the salvation of the lost souls of Washington, come and unite with us, in earnest prayer for God's power and blessing to our coming revival.

These services are not only open to all Christians, but to any that pay desire to be with us.

If you are a Christian, come and join us in prayer for the lost. If you are not a Christian, come that we may pray with you for your own salvation.

A CORRECTION

In our report of the proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners in issue of the 8th it was stated that Mrs. Lucy W. Myers was relieved of payment of taxes on a lot which she did not own. This statement was published as it appeared on the minutes of the Board, but it was not correct. It should have read that Mrs. Myers did own one half of the said lot, and that she was relieved of one half of the taxes amounting to $4.50.

PRESIDENT HAS NO EXCUSE FOR OPPOSITION

DEMOCRATIC WOOL BILL HAS AGAIN PASSED THE HOUSE

DEMOCRATS ARE NOW VINDICATED

PARTY HAS KNOWN FOR LONG TIME THE WOOL RATES WERE TOO HIGH—SO DID TAFT.

The Democratic wool bill of last year proposed a reduction of 40 per cent in the tariff rates on wool and it passed the House by a vote of 221 to 100. The same bill has again passed the House, this time by a vote of 189 to 92.

When he vetoed the bill last year President Taft gave as his reason the fact that the tariff board had not made its report, the Republicans of the House proposed a wool bill calling for a reduction of 40 per cent in schedule K, or just two per cent less than the bill which the President vetoed.

The tariff board, therefore, vindicates the Democratic position on wool, if such vindications are necessary. The Democrats knew, long before the tariff board was created that the wool rates were too high. The President knew it also, for in his speech at Winona, Minn., he characterized the Payne-Aldrich wool tariff rate as indefensible.

As things now stand, neither the President nor the high protectionists will have any excuse for opposing the present bill, and if any of them do so in the way of its final passage, they will convict themselves of trying to grant a special privilege, namely, the privilege of robbing the consumer, to the trust millionaires.

THE BUSTED OIL TRUST

The Standard Oil Company, which the Supreme Court of the United States solemnly "dissolved" some few weeks ago, has declared a dividend of 2,900 per cent. This action was taken by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and was made for the purpose of concealing the enormous profits of the company. It was what is called a stock dividend, that is, for every share of stock owned by a stock holder, he was given 29 additional shares. To do this it was necessary to increase the capital stock of the concern from one million to thirty million dollars. No new capital was added, however. The increase was declared out of the surplus.

Since the "dissolution" of the trust, several melons of this sort have been cut. The Vacuum Oil Company, another subsidiary, recently increased its capital stock from $2,500,000 to $15,000,000, and it is reported that the Standard of Kentucky will declare a dividend of 2,500 per cent.
