Three candidates are in the field for the Democratic nomination for governor of Georgia this year.

Max S. Hayes, editor of a Cleveland paper, may be the Socialist candidate for President of the United States.

Many politicians predict that Representative William Sulzer will be the next Democratic nominee for Governor of New York.

Gen. Willie Jones of Columbia has decided to retire from the chairmanship of the Democratic State committee of South Carolina, a post which he has held for 20 years.

The delegates at large from Virginia to the Democratic national convention at Baltimore will be selected by a State convention to be held in Norfolk on May 23.

Joseph T. Robinson, who has received the Democratic nomination for governor of Arkansas, has represented the Sixth Arkansas district in congress for ten years.

Thomas B. Catton, one of the new senators from New Mexico, served in the Confederate army as a captain and in his early days in New Mexico was a law partner of the late Senator Stephen B. Elkins.

Many close followers of the Democratic presidential race, are of the opinion that the real strength of Governor Harmon is not likely to be disclosed until after the first ballot in the Baltimore convention.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt is now reputed to be a wealthy man. He has never had extravagant tastes. He is said to be worth over $1,000,000, which represents his savings from the offices he has held and the royalties on his books.

It will be a long time before the senate membership is increased, for all territory in the United States proper is now included within state lines. The possibilities for additions to the number of States are Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines, but it is predicted that it will be a long time before any one of them will be admitted to Statehood.

The Republican and Democratic national conventions are each to have 1,074 delegates. A Republican candidate is nominated by a majority of the delegates, therefore the nominee will need only 538 votes. The Democratic national convention nominates a President by a two-third vote, therefore the winner in the Baltimore convention next June must secure 716 votes.

William Henry Harrison was the oldest President at inauguration—68 years; Roosevelt was the youngest—42 years. Grant, Cleveland, Pierce and Polk passed their fiftieth birthday in office. Jackson retired within 11 days and Buchanan within 50 days of 70 years. John Adams who died in his ninety-first year, was the oldest ex-president.

Washington Park Addition

Washington Park is bound to be the choicest, most sought after residential suburb of Washington and in justice to themselves and family those who consider good health should surmount imaginary obstacles, get out of the germ infected, health destroying dust and come and build in Washington Park Addition and do it before your health or that of some member of your family is lost.

If you'll come you'll be as much enthused as myself. To your closest friends. Those who you want to see pleasantly, delightfully located you'll say:

Won't you come and live near us down by the river shore? 'Tis really so delightful, enchanting, yes and more. 'Twill give you rest and comfort and much improve your health—That's vastly more important than a little of your wealth.

The breeze so bracing buoys one up when they come from town, Where dust they bite, and stifling hot no comfort there is found. Here scenery bright and bold; so grand, it weds you so you'll talk, "Come brother, sister, cousin, aunt, come live here in the Park.

Then come—come now and live near us; here open broad the blinds, The breeze it will come sweeping through, no dust you here will find. 'Tis pleasant, gay and sparkling, here by the river shore; To tell one-tenth about it, would take ten men like Thomas Moore.

So you today come choose the lot to build your cottage gay, Then live the life of pleasure, keep cool by night and day. You'll sleep so sound, to brightly wake, as day light strikes your cot, While drowsy town folks sigh and say, "I didn't sleep, 'twas n o t.

The air here makes one feel so blessed, so cherry full of glee, And then what joy the children have, 'twould do you good to see. Of course your cheeks will rosy grow, here by the Pamlico. So come where health and pleasure bounds, come let all say, "lets go."

Near Washington there exists no more ideal condition for health and comfort than Washington Park Addition. And in justice to yourself and family you should secure one of the choicest homesites I am offering. AC. HATHAWAY.

ward Stibbens, charged with the murder of their father, George W. Stibbens, a Knox county farmer, was called for trial here today before Judge Charles K. Henderson. The case was brought here on a change of venue from Knox county. The trial will consume the rest of the week. It will be conducted by James M. Hudson, prosecuting attorney for this county and the defense will be represented by Eph Inman, of Indianapolis.

George W. Stibbens, who was one of the largest landowners of Knox County, was found dead in his barnyard shortly after dark, on the night of November 17, 1911, with a bullet hole through his head. Certain circumstances led to the arrest of Edward, and three days later his brother Ray was arrested, and both were charged with the murder of their father. It is alleged that the young men had been on unfriendly terms with their father for some time. Miss Nell Stibbens, their sister, has faithfully stood by them since their arrest.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relief between skin diseases and the blood. The skin must be cured through the blood. The germs must be washed out, and so the country has long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema. Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. We have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years. We ourselves vouch for the D.D.D. Prescription for eczema and absolutely guarantee that it will take away the itch the instant you apply it. If you are suffering from any form of skin trouble we would like to have you send us our card, for we have had the name of this remedy for so many years that we can tell you all about it. D.D.D. Prescription and how it cures eczema. In fact, we are in such a hurry that we will send you a bottle of our D.D.D. Prescription and a trial bottle for free. For that matter, a trial bottle for free ought to be sent to absolutely prove the merits of the remedy. Drop into our store anyway and we will tell you all about this great remedy."
