

SHOWERS TONIGHT AND SUNDAY. MODERATE SOUTH WINDS.

TWO SERMONS ON EDUCATION TOMORROW

Special Discourses at First Presbyterian Church at 11 A. M. and Methodist at 8 P. M.

Two sermons on education are to be delivered in the city tomorrow. Rev. H. B. Garright, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, speaks on this great theme tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. His subject will be "Education as a means of Grace."

EAST CAROLINA TRAINING SCHOOL

President Robert H. Wright, attended the Southern Educational Conference in Nashville, Tenn. The new class of students, numbering thirty six, entered at the beginning of the new term, are entering the work and school life with zest.

An interesting basket-ball game between one of the regular teams, the Gobblins, and a team selected from the whole school, was played on April 9, the Gobblins won.

Many of the students went home for the Easter holidays, which extended from noon on Good Friday to Tuesday, April 9th. The students that remained had a pleasant time and were not allowed to get home sick.

The Y. W. C. A. Sunday evening service has been quite interesting recently. They have been conducted by Rev. C. M. Rock, of the Baptist church of Greenville, by Prof. Austin and by the Music Committee of the Y. W. C. A.

Prof. H. E. Austin delivered an address at the closing of the Chocowinity school Tuesday, April 9th.

Prof. C. W. Wilson addressed the Craven County teachers at New Bern on April 6th. Twilight story telling on Thursday evening is quite a feature in the school life. The different classes are taking turns in telling stories.

The One Year Class gives the school an unique entertainment on the evening of April first. Four fools imitating the Shakespeare fool, spoke the prologue and epilogue and commented on the various types of humanity and follies of the age that were presented in tableaux or dramatization. Snatches of songs were interspersed. While there was much fun there was no buffoonery. It was a high class but greatly amusing entertainment. After the program, the One Year Class gave a reception to the faculty and new students. The Y. W. C. A. hall was beautifully decorated in gray moss and yellow flowers, the class colors. The refreshments were hidden under the fool's caps.

INVENTIONS SHOW IN NEW YORK

New York, April 12.—The brain children of Thomas A. Edison and other famous inventors of the present day are to be seen in the Grand Central Palace, where the Invention Show today for a week's run. F. P. DURAND PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

Funeral Will Take Place Sunday Afternoon From Residence. Interment in Oakdale.

After an illness of over a week with pneumonia Mr. Frank Durand fell on sleep at his residence, East Fourth Street, last night at 7:45 o'clock. As was noted in this paper yesterday the condition of Mr. Durand was thought to be critical but none dreamed that end was so near. At the time of his death he was fifty nine years of age. He was born and reared in Washington. From childhood and early manhood he enjoyed the esteem of a large number and his going is to be deplored. When quite a young man he took an active part in the social affairs of the city—being one of the leaders among his comrades and friends. Big hearted he had the tact of forming and keeping a member in good standing will vived by his widow, one son Mr. Leon Durand and two grandchildren. The funeral will take place from the residence on Fourth Street Sunday afternoon at three o'clock conducted by Rev. R. H. Broom, pastor of the First Methodist Church. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. The Charitable Brotherhood of which he was a member in good standing will attend in a body and conduct the services at the grave. The following pallbearers have been selected: W. M. Chaucer, W. H. McDevitt, Gilbert Runley, Chas. F. Harris, Joseph Tingle and D. M. Lewis.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BEGIN SUNDAY NIGHT

A series of revival meetings will begin in the First Baptist Church, this city, on tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. P. Dalton. A cordial invitation is extended to all who may desire to attend both of the other denominations and the public in general. During the past week preparatory services have been held in the church and considerable interest manifested. The music will be one of the features of the meeting.

TO REPEAT MUSIC

Easter Music Repeated at M. E. Church Sunday Night. At the solicitation of a large number, who were unable to be present on last Sunday evening due to the inclemency of the weather, the Easter music rendered by the choir of the First Methodist Church last Sunday night, will be repeated tomorrow evening. The offering at this service will be for the benefit of the choir.

MAKE FINE SHOWING

Company "G" Rifle Team Practiced Yesterday Afternoon For Meet. The rifle team of Company "G," which leaves tomorrow for Gettysburg to take part in the regimental rifle shoot next week, had a practice yesterday afternoon. The team made an average of 128 out of a possible 150. This record is very creditable.

TO OPEN NEW RAILROAD.

Special to the Daily News. Pittsburg, Pa., April 13.—Tomorrow is the date fixed for the opening to traffic of the new connecting line between the Pittsburg and Lake Erie and Western Maryland railroads. The connecting line is eighty-four miles long and has been built at a cost of nearly $25,000,000. The connection with the Western Maryland roads is made at Cumberland, Md., and with the Pittsburg and Lake Erie at Dickerson Run, Pa. The new line gives Pittsburg a new outlet to the seaboard and a most direct route between Baltimore and Chicago. It will also open up great coal and timber fields along the Youghiogheny River.

LOCAL B. B. CLUB WINS FROM ELIZABETH CITY

Washington Loses in Joint Debate But Wins in Declaration Contest.

The Washington ball club in the game yesterday won by a score of 3 to 2. This makes three games the Washington boys have won and the team bids fair to be the champions of Eastern Carolina. In the debate between the Washington and Elizabeth City High Schools last night the Elizabeth City debaters were declared the winners. The query was "Resolved: That the United States Senators shall be elected by the people." In the declamation contest Washington carried off the honors and Miss Carlotta Nicholson the Washington representative is today receiving the congratulations of her many friends.

ENTERTAINMENTS AT SCHOOL BUILDING

There will be an entertainment given in the Public Schools auditorium next Tuesday evening for the purpose of creating a lecture fund. The principal part of the program will be given by Mrs. J. J. Kellogg, of Buffalo, N. Y., who has a fine reputation as a reader and entertainer. Her repertoire is remarkably interesting and complete. She will be assisted by local talent. On next Wednesday in the auditorium Dr. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health will speak. Dr. Rankin will also speak in the afternoon of the same day. His subject for 11 a. m. will be "Public Health and Citizenship." A more detailed program will be announced later through these columns.

JACKSON STATUE DAY

Headquarters North Carolina Division. United Confederate Veterans, Durham, N. C., April 5, 1912. General Orders No. 46.

Paragraph 1. The Jackson Memorial Association, of Richmond, Va., has asked that next Memorial Day, Tenth of May, be set apart in the schools of the South as "Jackson Statue Monument Day" and that every child in these schools be asked to contribute ten cents for the erection of an appropriate equestrian statue of the immortal Jackson at Richmond. In furtherance of this most laudable undertaking North Carolinians are requested to do their part as our North Carolina soldiers did their part in winning those battles that immortalized Jackson's name and fame. Every school child in this state, every daughter of the Confederacy, every Confederate Veteran and every other patriotic citizen of North Carolina is hereby urged to contribute the small sum of ten cents for the purpose of thus honoring the memory of one whose name and fame will ever be fondly cherished by all who admire and revere the military genius and matchless exploits of Stonewall Jackson.

Paragraph 2. While there are magnificent statues and monuments erected at Richmond to Davis, Lee, Stuart and others Confederate heroes, yet the only memorial there of Jackson's brave bust in the Capitol Square and that was erected by admiring Englishmen. No adequate statue of him has been erected by his own people, for whom he sacrificed his life. Let this no longer be said, but let North Carolinians, young and old, gladly respond to the appeal of the Jackson Memorial Association and aid in this good work.

Send all remittances to Mr. W. J. Holloway, Cashier First National Bank, Durham, N. C.

RISKS LIFE TO SECURE EASTER HAT

Boston Papers Publish Cuts of Him and His Experience.

Mr. Rosen T. Windley, son of Mrs. W. B. Windley of this city, now a resident of Wilmington, N. C., who was one of the passengers on the Merchants and Miners steamship Ontario, burned off the coast of Massachusetts a few days ago, proved to be one of the heroes on board ship according to the Boston daily papers. In the Boston Daily Globe of April 9 appears on the front page a three column cut of Mr. Windley and Miss Mabel Perkins, whose attractive hat and other valuables Mr. Windley succeeded in saving from the burning ship. In the Boston Journal of the same date appears a one column cut of Mr. Windley. Mr. Windley gave the following account of his experience to the Journal which will no doubt prove of interest to his friends in Washington. He says: "Some one burst in the door to my state room shortly after 1:30 in the morning. The crash woke me and I leaped from the berth, only to find the room filled with choking smoke. Someone yelled 'Get up, for God's sake.' The ship is afloat and sinking." Throwing on a pair of trousers and my overcoat, I groped my way to the upper deck. Here I found Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Perkins of Madbury, N. H., together with their daughter, with whom I had become acquainted with on the trip. Quite a knot of us huddled here for more than an hour and a half until the ship was beached. We were all shivering for reason of our scanty attire and I lent Miss Perkins my overcoat. When the life savers finally arrived Miss Perkins expressed a desire for the clothing in her cabin and a young sailor at the risk of stifling to death, made his way to the room and shoved everything in reach in the pillow slips. He came back, however minus Miss Perkins' Easter hat. Although she begged me not to do so, the hat was such a beauty that I could not think of letting it perish, and so I rescued it." Mr. Windley is expected to be in Washington next Tuesday on his way back to Wilmington, N. C.

MRS. A. S. FULFORD GIVES PORCH PARTY

Mrs. A. S. Fulford entertained a few of her friends at a porch party last evening from eight to eleven at her residence corner of Bridge and Second Streets. The evening was one of pleasure and merriment and Mrs. Fulford proved to be a charming hostess. Refreshments were served and all left, vowing the hostesses many thanks for an evening not soon to be forgotten.
