NOT JUSTICE TO THE HOME MERCHANT

The New Bern Journal in a recent issue well discusses a question that is of vital importance to every town of any size in North Carolina. The Journal says:

Thousands of dollars have been spent in this city during the past few years in large store windows, where display of goods could be effectively made. Extra care is taken daily by the merchants in making these windows attractive, most of these merchants have and are spending money in local advertising, so that the combination of window display advertising warrants that these merchants should be given the preference by local buyers over the outside mail order houses, over every traveling solicitor with his little bag of samples, going from house to house offering so-called bargains.

In the face of this local effort by the home merchant to display and advertise in a way to attract his own home folks, there are annually many thousands of dollars given by New Bern people to traveling solicitors and sent through mail order houses that should by all right be given to local merchants. A single instance is the sending away from here in money orders in one week, recently, of seven hundred dollars for ready made clothing. This had no connection with local dealers, and without question, every dollar sent away, every order that was filled, could have been as acceptably spent, and been as cheaply and well executed, through some local merchant. This seven hundred dollars is but an item casually discovered and covering but a few days. No doubt this same drain continues throughout the year, greater during certain seasons, but in the aggregate a sum that would improve of immense impetus if given to local merchants. It is just, to the local merchant, who stands ready to fill orders, to give orders and money to outsiders? Remember that there is a profit in every one of these outside orders, that should be given in full fairness to the local merchant, who stands by his community and spends his earnings among his own people.

THE ALIMENTARY CANAL TALKS

I am your Alimentary Canal. I ask you to listen to me, for you will find it to your advantage. I am a faithful servant, patient, and long-suffering. I am thirty feet long, and you can have my length, strength or weakness to you, just as you wish. If you abuse me, I shall struggle hard to withstand the abuse and adapt myself to it. However, if you are such a fool as to carry your abuse too far, then look out!

Let me tell you what a plenty I'll do to tell you if you persist in abusing me: I'll quit discharging. Then you will whip me with cathartics. This will seem to you all right for a while, but really conditions will be worse finally, for I will not stand your whippings and will quit you again. After this second quitting I will make some poison and put them into your blood. The blood will distribute them to every cell of your body, and then you will have pimples and eruptions, bilious attacks, coated tongue, foul breath, sweaty hands, cold clammy skin, lusterless hair, putty complexion, dulled vision, dulled taste, dulled smell, dulled hearing, loss of memory, loss of continuous thought and attention, headaches, dizziness, dyspepsia, loss of weight, loss of strength, rheumatism, insomnia, and all kinds of pains and aches. Your hair will fall out, your teeth will decay, you will have shortness of breath, your nails will become brittle, your skin will become dry and harsh, cancer may appear, and premature old age, and a miserable lingering death will be your portion!

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well. I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years. Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chamberlain Medicine Co., Chas. Chamberlain, Lowell, Mass., and 24-page book, "How Treatment of Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

The Health and Vigor of Your Wife and Children Depend Much Upon Their Surroundings.

Nature scenes in Washington Park give rest to the nerves. Its freshness from dust strengthens the vitality, upbuilding the entire system. Such conditions allow you to live a high quality life. Come build for your health.

A. C. HATHAWAY.

and mustard stimulate and irritate my muscular lining and the tanning in them puckers my pores and hinders elimination. They don't help digestion, as you may probably think; they finally break me down. They are an abomination.

Don't send down ham sandwiches smeared with mustard; they are poison. The ham is embalmed hog, embalmed with chemicals, namely salt-peter, salt, and cresote; embalmed much like the mummies of Egypt were.

If you want to further injure me so that I cannot serve you well send down lots of strong tea and coffee. The tanning in them will pucker me (your) mucus surfaces, causing constipation and stop the flow of juices, and their drug, caffeine, will whip your nerves and excite your kidneys. And if you once get your kidneys mad, you'll have no end of pains and misery. Bright's disease is no nice and neurasthenia makes you a nuisance to others and to yourself.

What shall you eat? That is a simple question. Don't eat stuff which makes poison. Coffee, tea, vinegar, spices pickles, and alcohol, all make poisons. Especially give me sour milk, butter milk you call it. It's fine for making strength and a clear brain. Rice whipped Russia. Give me rice, give me grits, hominy, mush, corn bread white bread, rye bread, oatmeal, potatoes, beans, onions, melons, oranges, celery cabbage, parsnips, carrots, apples, pears, cherries, grapes, pineapples, bananas, grape fruit, tomatoes, etc.

There is an abundance of foods which do not make poisons. And for the sake sanity, don't say as some fools have "I'd rather live fewer years and have some fun than eat you you prescribe." Is it fun to be sick? Is it fun to be bent and twisted with rheumatism? Is it fun to have dull wits, dull sight and dull hearing? Is it fun to have loss of memory and to enter doddering old age at the time you should be strong, healthy, useful and happy? Go to, for indeed a soft head and a fool to want to eat stuff which sickens and kills you and you call it fun!

Yes, I am your intestinal canal. My smile makes glad and my frown is terrible. I will smile if you are wise and I will frown if you are foolish. Come on, if you dare, with your poison-making foods, and, like Samson, I will break and pull down the pillars which support the temple (body) of your soul, and then there will be a ruin commensurate with your foolishness.

CARRIES DISTINGUISHED PASSENGERS

Special to the Daily News. Paris, April 20.—The steamship La France recently completed at St. Nazaire for the French Transatlantic line, sailed from Havre today on her maiden voyage to New York. She carries a large passenger list that includes many persons of distinction. Among those on board are the members of the French mission, headed by M. Hanotaux, which is conveying to America the bronze bust of "La France," by Auguste Rodi, for presentation to the United States. The bust is to be placed at the base of the monument to be dedicated next June to Samuel de Champlain, the French navigator and explorer.

Robert Bacon, the retiring United States ambassador to France, and Mrs. Bacon are sailing on the new steamship, also Arthur Bailly-Blanchard, hitherto first secretary at the United States embassy here, who has been transferred to Tokio. Other passengers on La France include an important French delegation to the Red Cross Convention to be held at Washington next month.

May Ignore Madero

Washington, D. C., April 20.—Acting Secretary of State Huntington Wilson declined to comment officially yesterday on the telegram from the Mexican government.

It was pointed out unofficially, however, that it was entirely improbable that the American government would enter into an academic discussion with Madero at this time, as to the propriety of the sending of Huntington Wilson's note to Orozco, the rebel leader, as well as to the American consuls throughout the Mexican government, so that it could get directly to the people.

President Madero's reply probably will be submitted to the cabinet by Secretary Knox, and considered materially before any answer is returned. It cannot be said that Minister Calero's statement, caused surprise nor has it modified the diplomatic situation.

The note is regarded as an attempt to relieve the Mexican government from financial liability for damages inflicted upon foreigners by the rebels than as an evidence of resentment against the actions of the State Department here.

In the opinion of the administration officials, the Mexican note has not advanced any fresh reasons for intervention.

Laredo, Tex., April 20.—A statement addressed to the American people, giving the grievances of American conductors and engineers who struck yesterday on the Mexican National Railway lines, declares the Americans preferred to walk out rather than to be forced out by a policy of "Mexico for Mexicans."

"In common with thousands of our countrymen," the statement concluded "who are refugees have left millions in property behind on account of the dangers due to anti-American feeling, we submit our wrongs to the American government for further consideration."

SPORTS

BASEBALL NOTES.

More hard luck for Charlie Doan's Phillies. Catcher Killifer is out of the game nursing a broken finger.

The Southern League will use the double umpire system this season for the first time in the history of the league.

From all accounts the Buffalo Club has copied a classy infielder in Arthur Hoes, recently released by the New York Giants.

Bert Kealey, former pitcher with the Washington team, has been engaged as playing manager by the Chicago Club of the United States League.

Pitcher Harmon, of the Cardinals, started the season by downing the Pirates. Last year Harmon tied the Pirates in knots every time they faced him.

Catcher Gabby Street believes that the Highlanders have the strongest pitching staff in the American League in Vaughn, Ford, Caldwell, and Warhop.

Texarkana, Marshall, Paris, Cleburne, Longview and Tyler, six young cities in Texas, from the circuit of the South Central League this season.

Right Fielder Miller, of the Terre Haute Central League team, is from Hillsville, Va., and the bugs have named him Sidna in honor of the great outlaw.

On April 11 George Appleton, the veteran baseball fan of Boston, saw his forty-first consecutive opening game on the old South End grounds—the first in 1871.

Manager Jimmy Burke, of the Indianapolis team, has released Lew Ritter, the veteran backstop, and signed "Nig" Clarke, the former Cleveland—St. Louis catcher.

The Central International Baseball League, which was organized in Duluth recently, will place teams in Winnipeg, Man., Grand Fork and Fargo, N. D., Duluth and Virginia, Minn., and Superior, Wis.

The Cincinnati Reds look strong enough to keep in the running this season, and perhaps Hanks O'Day will show to the world that he is as good a manager as he was an umpire in former days.

The Montreal Club has signed a deaf mute by the name of Irving. Playing with the Akron O and P League team during last season, Irvin batted .352 and stole no less than 61 bases in 85 games.

Evidently the Boston Nationals made no mistake when they grabbed Vin Campbell, the former Pirate. The field is hardly big enough for Vin, as he covers ground like a circus cent.

WITH THE BOXERS.

Jim Stewart, the heavyweight, is ill at his home in Brooklyn with pneumonia.

Promoter McIntosh, of Australia, is building a stadium at Melbourne that will cost him $25,000.

Carl Morris will start another boxing campaign April 28 when he meets Frank McCarthy at Springfield, Mo.

PREACHES TOMORROW

Rev. R. V. Hope who has been absent from the city for the past month will fill his pulpit at the Christian Church Sunday morning at the usual hours.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a scientific cause for this trouble. Mrs. Summers, Box W, Uofre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

FOR FEVERISHNESS AND CHILLS

Whether from Malaria or typhoid. Colds or overheating, try Fick's CAPUDINE. It reduces the fever and relieves the aches. It's liquid.
