THE GERMAN IDEA

Germany has proclaimed her ten commandments, as follows:

- 1. In all expenses keep in mind the interests of your compatriots.
2. Never forget when you buy a foreign article that your own country is thus made poorer.
3. Your money should profit no one but Germans.
4. Never profane German factories by using foreign machinery.
5. Never allow foreign eatables to be served at your table.
6. Write on German paper, with a German pen and German ink, and use German blotting paper.
7. German flour, German fruit and German beer alone can give your body true German energy.
8. Use only German clothes for your dress, and German hats for your head.
9. Let no foreign flattery distract you from these precepts; and be firmly convinced, whatever others say, that German products are the only ones worthy of citizens of the German fatherland.
10. Which reminds us of the deacon's prayer: "Oh, Lord, bless me and my wife, my son John and his wife—us four and no more!"

MARYLAND WOMEN'S CLUB

Special to the Daily News. Baltimore, Md., April 24.—On the occasion of the annual convention of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs a host of women visitors invaded Baltimore today and will remain in possession of the city until Saturday. An elaborate programme combining business and entertainment has been prepared for the gathering.

MR. PENROSE SEEMS TO BE A RATHER POOR PROVIDER

Chicago, April 24.—For ten years Mrs. John Penrose has denied herself the luxury of tasting a piece of candy or indulging in ice cream sodas or other delicacies in order to save $20 to repay a former suitor who twenty five years ago gave her money to buy a present for herself. The one-time sweetheart was Henry Kohler, of Dorchester, Mass. She broke her engagement with him and he afterward disappeared. "For years I have tried to find Henry Kohler," she said. "If I do not succeed in finding him I mean to present the $20 to the church."

FAMOUS SINGERS TO BE HEARD

Special to the Daily News. Spartanburg, S. C., April 24.—Music lovers from half a dozen states are in Spartanburg for the eighteenth annual South Atlantic States Musical festival. The festival opens tonight and will continue over Thursday and Friday. The participants in this year's program include Mary Garden, Mme Jeanne Jomell, George Hamlin, Ellison Van Hoose and several other famous soloists, assisted by the New York Symphony Orchestra and the large chorus of the Converse College choral society.

KING AND QUEEN TO ATTEND

Special to the Daily News. Rome, April 24.—The King and Queen of Italy, with a distinguished entourage, left today for Venice to attend the dedication of the new Campanile of St. Mark's, the structure recently completed in duplication of the famous tower which collapsed some years ago. The dedication of the new Campanile will take place tomorrow. The event will be accompanied with impressive ceremonies in which distinguished delegates from many countries will take part.

WILL HE HOLD THE ELEPHANTS TRUNKS FOR BOARD BILL?

New York, April 24.—Though a bantam in weight, Sheriff Julius Harburger may be suffering figuratively from a severe attack of elephantiasis. The sheriff complains that Ringling Brothers, who have charge of Barnum & Bailey's circus, have not furnished bonus nor deposited cash in an attachment case in which a bond of $25,000 was ordered by the court.

In the event that the circus should attempt to move to Brooklyn without supplying the bond or depositing the cash, Sheriff Harburger will be forced today to take possession of a herd of twenty elephants, together with one hundred other animals, and take care of them until the court issues further orders.

Should there be no building available to house the animals the sheriff will have to make arrangements with the New York Zoological Park or with commissioner Stover to have them taken in charge in Central Park.

With the possibility of having to provide food and entertainment for such huge hostages at the existing high prices for animal delicacies the sheriff's pulse was rising hourly yesterday while his temper was at fever heat.

Genius and Its Tribulations.

"Genius," says the Washington Post, "is the most curious psychological phenomenon with which the mind of man has ever grappled." And the great trouble is that the mind of man never can be sure even while the grappling is going on that genius is really being grappled with.

Emulated the Ostrich.

In the stomach of a cow recently slaughtered in Davenport, Wash., were found steel nails, a piece of tin can and a 24-point capital O from a font of type.

Bison Practically Wiped Out.

How effectually the bison has been exterminated may be seen from the fact that a fine head lent by Idaho people for the land show at St. Paul is insured for $2,000. One used to coat a morning gallop and a ball from a big pistol.

SPORTS

Bill Louden, the former Newark player, looks like a fixture at third base with Detroit Tigers.

With Jimmy Eamond at short, working like a dynamo, the Cincinnati infield has been displaying real article.

Derrill Pratt has been filling Laporte's place at second base for the Browns and getting away with it in fine shape.

With Pitcher Gregg, Mitchell and George all left handed, the Cleveland Naps are well fixed in the way of pointers this season.

Manager Joe McGinnity has announced that only union-made sausage (slang for hot dog) will be sold at the Newark park this season.

It was up to Pitcher Marty O'Toole to put the Pirates in the win column and the $22,500 beauty turned the trick with a few fancy benders and a smile.

The Pittsburg Pirates lost the opening game, the first since 1907. Since 1887 the Pirates have won 18 and lost 8 games played on the first day of the season.

New York fans were greatly worried during the first week of the season. They expected to hear every minute that the Highlanders had fallen out of the league.

Hub Perdue looks to be the best bet on the pitching staff of the Boston Braves. The Tennessee farmer is causing kinks to sprout in the back of the heavy hitters.

Steve Yerkes who is holding his own with the Boston Red Sox, is a Pennsylvania college boy. Arthur Irwin discovered Steve and gave him his first job in league baseball.

The old Cub machine has not started any forest fires so far this season. Quite a number of critics have picked out a place somewhere between the sixth and eighth position for the former champions.

Kids in school have the sympathy of the Giants. The National League Champs fail to deliver the goods, McGraw keeps the team on the field after the regular game, and compels them to go through an hour's practice.

Cornelius Lyons, the former Western League umpire has been elected a justice of the peace at Indianapolis. He will make only one slight change in his decisions hereafter. Instead of sending the bad actors off the field he will send them to the house-gow.

Joe Jeannette, who is in Paris, says he will return home at once if there is any chance for him to arrange a fight with champion Jack Johnson.

Joe Woodman together with his stable mates—Sam Langford, Porky Flynn, Jack Lester, Cyclone Johnny Thompson and Jimmy Clabby—will sail for Australia on May 21, bound for San Francisco.

Not Exiting. Mrs. Stirling used to tell how, during a brief holiday to somewhere on the Clyde, being kept indoors by three wet days, Stirling read the Greek Testament continuously aloud to her, first in Greek and then in English. She was a truly religious woman, but she owned to being glad when the rain ceased.—Life of James H. Stirling.
