Where is Bailinger? "I believe," said Secretary Fisher to the American Mining congress, "that the time has passed when the govern-ment should convey an unrestricted title to its coal fields... I be-lieve the leasing system avoids the controvérsies and the difficulties of both extremes of public and of prixboth extremes of public and of pri-ate ownership. . . The adoption of a leasing policy will take away from the promoters of such a road (as one to the Alaskan coal fields) the lure of great gain from the exploita-tion of the coal fields. The govern-ment must recognize that if it with-draws from private capital this incen-tive for railroad construction the gov-ernment itself must assume the obli-gation of making possible the kind of development upon which it insists for the general good."
