Couple Leaves For Tour To
Northern Cities. At Home
Norfolk After June 1.

Nature always beautiful in lovely springtime—a season when the birds mate—never smiled more graciously on a wedding scene than it did for the one witnessed in the First Methodist Episcopal Church last evening at 9:30 o'clock.

Attended by all the brilliancy of a large church wedding—with the great throng of interested friends and well-wishers—with the sonorous tones of the great organ—with the sparkle of gas jets and waxen tapers—with the perfume of flowers, the Creator's ideal of beauty—the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Royster Mayo to Mr. Cecil Henry Fisher took place.

The day preceding the consummation of the happy event was ideal and the evening was one all could wish for. Skilled and deft fingers lent their aid in making the interior of the church in keeping with nature's touch without and also a fitting background to the beautiful scene within.

Long before the time for the marriage vows to be assumed friends thronged the spacious auditorium and it was not long after the doors were opened before every seat was occupied.

When near 9:30 o'clock the first note from the organ under the deft touch of Miss Mae Ayers, flushed the subdued conversation and all looked expectantly for the scene that had brought them thither.

Just before the bridal party entered the guests of honor Misses Jennie and Annie Cox, Mary Cowell, Winnie Nicholson, Isabelle Carter, Mary C. Hassel, Annie Payne, Linda Moore, Nellie Mayo, Mary Louise Archbell, DeLoe, Palmer, Gulf, N. C., Linnie Mann, High Point, N. C., Elizabeth Hill, Mary E. Jones, Mary Elizabeth, Olive Burbank, Mary A. Glover, Statesville, N. C., and Annie Sears, Union, N. C., were assigned seats reserved for them.

As the bridal party loitered in the vestibule Mrs. David M. Carter, sang charmingly and sweetly "As the Dawn." As the sweet notes of the singer died away in space the organ glided into the familiar strains of Lovebirds and the bridal party entered.

The first to enter were the ribbon bearers, sweet little Miss Augusta Simmons Clark, daintily gowned in a frock of lace trimmed in Paris muslin and pink ribbons. She was accompanied by Master James Harlan Kugler of Philadelphia dressed in a white linen suit.

The next to follow were the polite and attentive ushers, Messrs Joseph W. Mayo, William C. Ayers, William B. Rodman Jr., and Leo Davenport.

Down the center aisle were then seen the bridesmaids and groomsmen. First came Misses Julia Mayo, sister of the bride and her cousin Miss Kathleen Louie Kugler, of Philadelphia. Following were Messrs Henry Moore and Walter Fivash, of Norfolk.

The next to enter were Miss Anne Whitaker of Kingston and Miss Mabel Willis, Groomsmen Messrs A. A. Fisher, of Greensboro and E. H. Farris, of High Point. The bridesmaids wore frocks of Paris Muslin, elaborately trimmed over piping mesaline and carrying bouquets of pink carnations.

The dames of honor, both aunts of the bride, Mrs. E. Wilson Ayers and Mrs. Frank Louis Mueller, of Philadelphia, comely attired in frocks of white brocaded satin with bouquets of pink carnations entered and wended their way down the right and left aisles, respectively. The maid of honor, Miss Adelina Ritch Mayo, entered alone. She was comely robed in pink brocaded satin and carried a huge bouquet of white carnations.

Proceeding the bride wended sweet little Miss Etta Gordon Carter sweetly dressed in a trimmed lace Paris muslin gown and white ribbons. Her escort was Master Edward Long

CONGRESS ON HYGIENE AND DEMOGRAPHY

Will Be Held in Washington
D. C. September 23 To 28.
Under Auspices Of Gov.

NORTH CAROLINA TO TAKE PART.

A Great Meeting Is Being Planned And Large Number Of Delegates

Washington, May 16—Active preparations are being made by the State of North Carolina for its share in the Fifteenth International Congress on Hygiene and Demography, which meets in Washington, D. C., September 23-28, 1912, under auspices of the United States Government. Officials of the Congress at headquarters in the National Capital have received Report of the meeting of the North Carolina Committee, with Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary and treasurer of the North Carolina State Board of Health, as chairman. At this meeting it was decided that Dr. Rankin should prepare an exhibit on Vital Statistics and Public Health Literature, that Dr. John A. Ferrell, should be appointed to prepare an exhibit on Hookworm Disease and Medical Inspection of Schools; that Dr. L. B. McBrayer, of Asheville, be appointed to prepare an exhibit on Municipal Sanitation; Warren H. Booker of the State Board of Health have charge of an exhibit on Pasteur Work and Diphtheria Anti-toxin; Dr. R. H. Lewis on Tuberculosis, and Dr. G. Floyd Ross, of Greensboro, on health work.

It was also agreed that the July, August and September bulletins of the State Board of Health should carry articles on the Fifteenth International Congress on Hygiene and Demography, to enlist the public health interests of the State in the meeting.

The North Carolina Committee thoroughly concurs in the recent statement made by Dr. John S. Fulton, Secretary-General of the Congress, in which he emphasized the importance of the forthcoming meetings to municipalities in the country as follows:

"The broad international scope, the distinguished character of the foreign representation, the governmental auspices under which it is held, all insure that this forthcoming event will be the most important and impressive of its kind ever held in this country. To be in attendance, at the Congress, therefore, will be an opportunity for obtaining a new viewpoint with respect to public health which after next September will in all likelihood, not occur again in this country within a generation. Failure to attend on the part of a public health man will constitute an injustice to himself and a misfortune to his locality."

Mayo, brother of the bride, dressed in white linen, both carrying flowers.

The next to follow was the charming and attractive bride leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Harry B. Mayo, who gave her away. Her gown was white Duchess satin, court train-trimmed in-rose point lace and orange blossoms with bridal veil of Tulle caught with orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a pearl and diamond pendant, a gift from the groom.

At the chancel rail she was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Richard Kennison, of Raleigh, N. C. As the soft notes of the "Flower Song" began to circulate through the auditorium the solemn and impressive words making them man and wife were said by the pastor, Rev. R. H. Broom.

Soon the vows were taken and to the joyous strains of Mendelssohn and the merry chime of the bell the happy bride and gallant groom left the church and repaired to the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Mayo, corner of Second and Pearce Streets, where a public reception was tendered.

The entire residence was illuminated and festooned in the choicest of flowers and evergreens—being in splendid keeping with such a happy and joyous occasion. The gifts from admiring friends and relatives here and elsewhere tested the custom in which Mr. and Mrs. Fisher are held.

WILSON TIMES EDITOR VS. JOSEPHUS DANIELS

Editor Gold Pays Respects to News and Observer. Calls Upon Committeeman to Show Hand.

Below the Daily News gives its readers an article appearing in the Wilson Times of Monday which explains itself.

"COME LET US REASON TOGETHER" JOE

Are You Guarding Carefully Your Duty to all the People as National Committeeman and Editor of the Party Organ? You Should be very careful.

Neither a Journalistic Harlot Nor a Party Boss

(News and Observer)

The use of money in politics pollutes the spring at its source. Never until this year in North Carolina did the representatives of any candidate use money in conducting a campaign for the presidency. This year the Underwood management has had plenty of money to pay editors to circulate supplements and circularize the whole State. The Wilson management has not had a dollar or a penny to do any advertising, or to send out supplements, or to circularize the voters. The Wilson Times, noting some references to the use of money in the presidential campaign, says:

"The truth of the matter is that Wilson has spent stacks of money and able to corner some of the big dailies of the State while Underwood with little money at his command was only able to enlist a few weeklies and some small dailies in his cause."

The editor of the Times evidently printed the above without reflection. Neither Wilson nor his supporters have spent a dollar in North Carolina with any newspaper. The suggestion that with "stacks of money" he was able "to corner some of the big dailies" calls for a bill of particulars. We do not believe there is a daily paper so wanting in character as to accept a penny from any candidate. The Times also should apologize for saying that Underwood "was only able to enlist a few weeklies and some small dailies in his cause."

These two incidents of the daily and weekly press were evidently written in haste and printed without reflection. If they are true then North Carolina has a venal press. Upon reflection, the Times will withdraw its reflections. We do not believe North Carolina weeklies and small dailies that support Underwood did so because of "money."

WEST VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS MEET TODAY

State Convention to Name Six Delegates to the National Convention.

OUTLOOK FAVORABLE TO 3 TERMER

President Taft Has Support of the State Committee. Fight Warm.

Huntington, W. Va., May 16.—Republicans of West Virginia assembled in State convention here today to name six delegates-at-large to the Chicago convention, nominate two candidates for judge of the supreme court of appeals and select eight presidential electors. The recent county conventions to select delegates to the State convention indicated a preponderance of sentiment in favor of Roosevelt over Taft, but whether this sentiment is strong enough to insure Roosevelt instructions to the delegates-at-large is not altogether certain, in the opinion of close observers of the situation. The uncertainty in regards to the outcome arises chiefly from the fact that the matter will be decided by the leaders and not by the rank and file of the party. The close intermingling of the Taft-Roosevelt fight with the campaign for the governorship and other places on the state ticket and the bitter contest for control of the party organization has brought about an extremely complicated situation. In some quarters there is a disposition to leave the question of presidential instruction in abeyance until the State primaries are held early next month. The Roosevelt managers, however, are confident of their ability to capture not only the six delegates-at-large but also the ten district delegates and it is unlikely that they will be satisfied with anything less than a Roosevelt endorsement by the State convention. Fighting on the Roosevelt side are such prominent party leaders as Governor Glascock, former Governor White and Dawson and former Representative Hubbard. On the other hand, Taft has the support of the State committee, former Senator Nathan B. Scott and other leaders of prominence and a majority of the Republican newspapers.

REVIVAL SERVICES FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Again last evening another large and seriously attentive congregation heard Rev. Luther B. Bridgers, evangelist in the First Methodist church. The speaker had liberty as he discussed in a most forceful manner out of First John 3 chapter and 9 verse. "He that committeth sin is of the devil . . . Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin." The sermon was impressive.

His subject this evening at the First Methodist Church will be "The Devil—his Origin, History and Doom a Resident of Washington occupying a corner lot." Professor Bird will sing. All are cordially invited. The morning services are from 9:30 to 10:30 and the night services at 8 o'clock.

Hear Hon. H. S. Dent at Court House.

Remember tonight, is the night that Hon. H. S. Dent, of Alabama, will make his great national Democratic speech at the Courthouse at 8:30. Every Democrat should go to hear him as he is easily one of the South's greatest speakers. This may be the only time during the campaign that you will have an opportunity to hear a great speaker.

Mr. Norwood L. Simmons will introduce the speaker.

NOT A SINGLE DEATH IN CITY SCHOOL THIS YEAR

There were eight hundred students attending the white public schools of the city during the past season and five hundred students attending the colored school. Out of the thirteen hundred not a single death occurred during the entire year. This is a record for which Washington should be proud. The Daily News doubts if there is a town in the state the size of Washington with the number of students attending school that can boast of as good a record. All this goes to show the healthfulness of this section.

The white schools this year had the same number of boys and girls on the roster. This is another circumstance not to be equalled in the state.

SHAKESPEARE PLAYS TO BE PRESENTED

Shakespearean plays in the open air will be given in this city by the Frank McEntee players composed of former members of the Ben Greet players. The plays are to be given on the old Grist lawn.
