Governor Woodrow Wilson this afternoon denied the rumor that he would go to Baltimore for the purpose of making a personal appeal for his nomination. The Governor says that he is content with his Manager's activity.

(By United Press)

BALTIMORE, MD., June 28.—
The situation is badly muddled and the conference of the bosses to day may decide the foreating of candidate Clark. It is known now Mr. Murphy last night promised the Clark leaders that he would throw the New York's ninety votes to me. Clark when his followers told him that such an act would start a stampede and that Clark would surely go over on that ballet or the first or second succeeding one. It was pointed out by the Clarkites to Murphy has Me New York to Murphy has Me New Yor second succeeding one. It was pointed out by the Clarkites to Murphy that Mr. Bryan was favorable to Mr. Clark and that the nomination of Mr. Clark would placate the Nebraskan

Clark would placate the Nebraskan and cement the party. Mr. Murphy after 10 evelock this morning issued an until after mid-night before throwing New York's vote to Clark. He didn't want to take any chances on a switch as of Friday.

Promised Stampede Fails

The promised Stampede Failed to develop. The delegates favorable to Harmon, Wilson, Underwood stuck to them. After New York's votes went to Mr. Clark, Murphy new neems convinced that Clark known is favorable to underwood and he may throw New York's strength to him although he fears if he does that Mr. Bryan who declares that Underwood in the fear is the does that Mr. Bryan who declares that Underwood in the fears if he does that Mr. Bryan who declares that Underwood in the fears of he morning will be vined.
