THE G. O. P. MAN THAT YOU SEE EVERYWHERE

I meet him every place I go. In trolley and in train, And at the moving-picture show I see his face again; I meet him on Fifth avenue— His auto loudly honks— I meet him on the east side too, I meet him in the Bronx— The Republican who's going to vote for Wilson.

The Democrats are going to vote For Wilson to a man; The Independents too, I note, Will follow that same plan; With voters from the G. O. P.— This man ubiquitous— Why Woodrow Wilson's vote will be Almost unanimous— 'Most everybody's going to vote for Wilson. —RICHARD LINTHICUM.

JOURNAL CHANGES HANDS

HON. J. W. BAILEY

Washington on tomorrow night is to hear one of the state's gifted young orators in the person of Hon. Josiah William Bailey, of Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Bailey comes here in the interest of Senator F. M. Simmons' candidacy for the United States Senate and no doubt he will be heard by a large number.

Little learning is a dangerous thing—so is talking too much—Teddy.

WHY, WHAT A RAIN! Tobacco Grows Four Inches Overnight—Measured After Church.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 17.—Tobacco plants in Suffolk, Conn., grew four inches overnight, according to farmers, as a result of yesterday's rain, the first in six weeks. Planters declare that by actual measurements made on their return from church yesterday tobacco in ten, known as shaded tobacco, had grown seven inches in forty-eight hours. If this rate of growth is maintained ladders will be required to harvest the top leaves.

Veracious farm hands who have been sleeping out of doors during the high temperature complained to their employers today that their slumbers were disturbed last night by the continuous crackling, incident to the rapid growth of the tobacco plants.

NO TIME FOR NEW PARTY SAYS SENATOR WORKS

Declares Republican Party Has No Legal Nominee and Members Are Free to Vote For Democratic Nominee or any one.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—Senator Works of California, an active Progressive Republican, in a statement given out today, declared the promoters of the "new party" would be guilty of dishonorable dealings if they should attempt to retain control of the Republican machinery in States where the Progressive faction controls the Republican party. Senator Works declared neither Taft nor Roosevelt had been legally nominated; that the Republican party had no legal nominee, and that the voters were free to vote for whom they chose. He said that this is no time to form a new party. "That must come later," he said.

FARM CO-OPERATIVE BANKING

More Than 24,000 Organizations in Germany—Operate Largely on a Debenture Basis.

Years before we or any country developed urban combinations, corporations and trusts, Germany, France, Italy and Denmark had developed rural co-operative banking, marketing and purchasing organizations to a marvelous degree and mutual profit. In Germany alone, for instance, there are more than 24,000 such organizations. There are about 20,000 Raiffeisen co-operative banks, and several other systems, exclusively of and for farmers, doing an annual business in excess of a billion dollars, with 1,500,000 customers and farm loans of $500,000,000.

In this country we hear the protests of the consumer and of the farmer due to the pressure of organized finance and commerce, which would be largely reduced if agriculture was as well organized. Protest against big business is idle. We can only regulate and control it. Such control, with equally effective organization on the part of farmers, will re-establish the balance between the various factions and economic factors of this country necessary to maintain our pre-eminence.

In other words, Europe developed combinations first in the country for the general good, while we have first developed combinations in the city, not always for the general good. They have helped themselves by helping the farmer farm, while we have been more disposed to farm the farmer and many of his city cousins.

The farm is the best place God ever planned in which to live broad, free, helpful, efficient, serviceable and honorable human lives.

If any person thinks that free speech is restricted in this country let him go to a baseball game.

Also, it is well not to forget that there is a certain amount of healthy exercise in swatting the fir.

Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union of America
Straight thinking leads to straight living. When two people quarrel, both are losers. A snoring nose has a smash coming to it. A suit that shouldn't suit any man is a lawsuit. When tomorrow arrives, opportunity has passed. Only a fool thinks he never made a fool of himself. A cross-examination sometimes engenders crossness. The small makes up in persistence what it lacks in speed. Some think so much of their ills that they sleep and dine with them every day. A person with a mind of his own ought always to mind his own business. Barking at automobiles as they pass will not oil the axles of your old buggy. When a man lacks faith he is pretty apt to find his engine stalled on life's upgrade. It is better to be a childish old simpleton than a grouchy old doctor of philosophy. You cannot disguise work in any sort of shape to make a lazy man like the looks of it. A soap bubble is a strong and enduring thing when compared to a political reputation. Some folks "burn up the road" to get to town and then burn up time after they get there. The peddler usually carries with him a full stock of trouble. This applies to all the varieties. When you suggest a new idea to some farmers they act as though you were trying to knock their entire underpinning all to pieces.

GREAT ASSETS OF COUNTRY

Not Its Mighty Commerce or Gold Mines, but Its Manhood and Womanhood, Says Barrett.

To the Officers and Members of the Farmers' Union: The greatest assets of this country are not its mighty commerce, its wonderful acreage or its gold mines. Supreme above all these rise the assets of manhood and womanhood. And the boy and girl of today, too often snubbed and too seldom studied, are the men and women of tomorrow.

I speak advisedly when I say that never in the history of the republic have opportunities been vaster or more plentiful than they are in this year of our Lord, 1912. I know it is popular to say that the "trusts" and commercialism have stifled competition and muzzled opportunity. The statement is only a half-truth. I have been from one end of the country to the other. I have visited every state. I have studied conditions in practically every city of importance. I have observed above and below the surface in every line of trade and industry.

And, as a result, I am convinced that the loudest cry today is for men and women—not just men and women, but men and women with trained ability and character. Across the front of every vocation of moment, they ought to erect in big letters the sign: "Men and Women Wanted." It would be the absolute truth, provided the men and women were properly equipped to answer the advertisement.

Do not treat your boy or your girl simply as a private possession, to be worked in the fields when you need help, to be yanked out of school in their most receptive years in order that you may squeeze a little money out of the land. Money won in this way is the dearest bought imaginable. Money, or advantage of any sort, won at the expense of the men and women of tomorrow, is blood-money. Not only will the parents themselves pay for it some day, but the penalty will also be visited upon the republic in a weakened citizenship, whether of husbands or wives, fathers or mothers.

The old folk adage runs "children should be seen and not heard." It's a lie. They should be both seen and heard. Seen with the eye of loving, self-sacrificing intelligence, heard with the ear with faculties keen enough to catch the tramp of posterity, as well as the patter of today. Unless we follow this course, we fall in the duties, not only of parenthood, but equality of common American citizenship.

HUBERT LATHAM IS KILLED BY BUFFALO

PARIS, July 17.—Hubert Latham, the famous Anglo-French airman, one of the pioneers of the heavier-than-air aviation, was killed by a wild buffalo yesterday, during a hunt in the French Congo. Telegraphic advices say Latham was out with several natives in the forest when he shot and wounded a buffalo which charged him and gored him to death.
