RECOMMENDATION OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The suggestion or recommendation of the Finance Committee that their duties be transferred to the Auditor is a good one, provided the county is to continue the office of Auditor and this opens up the question of whether an auditor is a necessity and a benefit to the county.

In its present condition the office is a mere farce, as the duties and requirements are only such as have been heretofore attended to by the board.

Given the proper powers and duties the office could probably be made a valuable one to the county.

The Auditor should be made business manager of the county and he be held directly responsible to the Board for his acts, in a bond of sufficient amount to guarantee the proper conduct of the office. He should not be permitted to engage in other business and should be paid a salary sufficient to secure his entire time.

Under our present system no individual is directly responsible for the business management of county affairs, therefore, it is left open for speculation and as a rule the county pays high prices for what it buys.
 The board passed a resolution several months ago requiring the publication of the monthly statement of the Auditor, but not one has been published. The clerk to the board has failed to carry out these instructions, and why, if it was necessary to order them published, was it not necessary to have that order complied with.

NOT BEFORE PRIMARIES.

Since it has been charged that the articles heretofore published in the News relating to County conditions were published for political purposes and in the interest of one candidate as against another, the News will not publish its reply to the article signed by the Board of Commissioners until after the primaries are held.

The News feels that this action is justified by the fact that it does not desire that any candidate shall profit thereby.

TO MOVE STALL.

Messrs. Cozens, who have been occupying one of the stalls in the City Market, are now engaged in fitting up the building opposite to the Court House, where they propose to open their beef and fresh meat market on or about October 1. The room is being fitted up in the very latest style and will be sanitary and in keeping with the city rules throughout.

VERMONT TOWN 150 YEARS OLD.

MONKTON, Vt., Aug. 23.—The town of Monkton donned gala attire today in celebration of the 150th anniversary of its settlement. Many visitors joined with the citizens in the celebration. Ellsworth Lawrence, of Malone, N. Y., a descendant of one of the first settlers of Monk-ton, delivered the anniversary address. In addition to the literary and historical exercises, the day's program comprised a parade, band concerts and numerous other features of entertainment.

A LIFE WORTH LIVING

Many of Washington people who live in crowded, dusty, stifling homes, and they are wearing themselves out trying to keep the house clean. They find it can't be done; get reckless, close the windows and take the heat. Even the clean dust drifts through cracks. Do you call that living?

NO! The darker and closer you make your rooms, the greater the danger of all germ diseases, besides such conditions sap one's vitality. It simply allows one to exist. There can be no comfort; and ill health causes discontent.

In Washington Park one finds a complete change: 'Tis here the grass, the trees, the waves greet you. Thy bid you welcome. The murmuring, dancing river thrills your pent up soul with joy and elight, which makes life worth living. The wife here finds freshness from dust to bring roses to the cheeks and discontent caused by low vitality to vanish.

Come! Be fair and just to yourself.
