PINETOWN

* * * * *

We are having some fine weather at present.

Quite a large crowd of our young folk went on the excursion Sunday to Morehead City and report a fine time.

Mrs. Hosea Peelle and children, of Plymouth, N. C., returned home Monday, after spending several days with Mrs. Peelle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd.

Marcie May, the little 2-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd, has been quite sick with fever.

The brick store building of Mr. P. F. Waters is progressing rapidly and when completed it will be a credit to the town.

Miss Bertha G. Waters has returned home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Boyd.

Rev. C. E. Lee, of Bunyan, is holding a series of meetings at Pinetown Christian church.

Cotton picking time will soon be here.

Rev. Mr. Vaux, of Ayden, assisted by Rev. Whitford Waters, held a series of meetings at Shiloh Free Will Baptist church last week.

Pinetown defeated Belhaven Saturday in two games of ball.

The writer was one of the excursionists to Morehead Sunday and enjoyed his trip very much.

Mr. Henry E. Boyd is on the sick list here he will soon recover.

The Pinetown correspondent was absent last week. He had a slight attack of Jakeville Jack's crick in his neck and could not write.

Jake it is a bad disease when you have a full case of it.

Oh, no, Bragaw, we don't eat wine nor drink chicken either, but would like to have some of your moon shine watermelons. Don't know where neighbor Brown grows them at, reckon he must grow them on the moon for the writer passed your way not long since and didn't see nothing but saw mills and saw dust.

SHOULD UNITE.

It is the supreme duty of every man to take a firm stand for righteousness. Differences in political and religious views should by no means cause a division among men when it comes to the principles of right living in the school of politics man highest aim should be to contribute to those over whom he exerts an influence the very best that is in his possession; having utmost in his mind a determination to uplift them and place them upon a higher plane of citizenship. In the church, without regard to the denomination, it should be the prayer of all Christians that their hearts be inclined to keep the first and second great commandments, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." (Matt. 22: 38, 39 ver.) A sincere effort on the part of all church communicants, whether they be Methodists, Baptists, Congregationalists, Lutherans, Presbyterians or any other denomination, to abide by this injunction would enable us to wield a mighty power over the sins that so easily beset us. The masses would rise in a solid phalanx above the gloomy shades of ignorance and superstition to a higher plane of christian civilization. Differ as they may along many other lines, or along all other lines, the churches and various organizations concerned about the betterment of mankind must get together upon these commandments. If their existence is to mean the material and eternal salvation of man. For "On these two hang all the law and the prophets."

The people in every community must unite. Especially the leading element who are engaged in shaping the destiny of the masses. The statement that a house divided against itself cannot stand is as true today, and as applicable to the human race as when spoken by Him who died to redeem a sin-cursed world.

This is not a question of individual supremacy, unless it be in the sense that one is supreme when he is best able to render service unselfishly. Nor is it a question of personal greatness. It is a question of elevating the lives of our people. If there be any such a thing as greatness, it comes not to him who boasts and feels that he should be looked upon as the greatest among his fellows, or does something merely for one's goodness and the consecration of his whole being to a righteous cause in spite of his pay.

We are facing a grave problem, and upon its solution rests the fate of our people. The future of our boys and girls is at stake. This is a matter to be considered not only by the parents in the community, but upon the co-operation of the preacher, the teacher, and the leader. Each taking a firm stand for a higher standard of character. Its solution depends not upon talk but actual

MEXICAN TROOPS TO PROTECT AMERICANS.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The Mexican government has ordered Federal troops to hasten to a point between Harmsillo and Nogales, in the State of Sonora, for the protection of two Americans, Frank B. Curtis and Arthur Cunningham, who are beset by rebels, thirsting for revenge. The Americans had been left in charge of a mining camp at El Oro, and had killed several rebels intruding to protect the company's property from raiders.

Army officers along the boundary line report to the War Department that from the information they gather from refugees fleeing from Mexico into America, the conditions in the Mexican State of Sonora are bad.

FOR RECORDER.

To the Democratic Voters of the Washington, Long Acre and Chocowinity Townships:

I beg to announce my candidacy for the office of Recorder in the above mentioned district, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries to be held September 7, 1912.

I was born and reared in the country and have always maintained my intimacy with the country people upon whom I greatly rely for my success in this undertaking.

Several years' experience in the court house in the Superior Court, in the Clerk's office and the office of the Register of Deeds has aided me greatly in becoming qualified to fill this office which I believe I can do to the satisfaction of the people of the community.

In addition to this I was city clerk in the city of Washington for two years, giving a $15,000 bond, and secretary of the County Board of Elections, both of which positions I believe I filled acceptably.

Many of the country people know the treatment often received at the hands of the chief of police of the city of Washington, and if elected to the position of recorder it will be one of my most sacred duties to see that such abuses are not tolerated and that justice shall be meted out to all persons equally.

Respectfully,
 W. B. WINDLEY.

FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Register of Deeds for Beaufort County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries, to be held on the 7th of September, 1912.

I belong to no faction; have no obligations out, other than to serve the public in a clever business way.

Yours truly,
 W. T. HUDNELL.
