GOOD WOMEN OF COUNTY CALL UPON DEMOCRATS TO PAUSE AND CONSIDER

Mothers Call Upon All Voters to Strengthen the Party Which Has Protected the Womanhood of the County. If its Resolutions Are Not Lived up to Democratic Party Will Cease to Be People's Party.

Men of Beaufort County, come, let us reason together; for political conditions just now are such that possibly you who are in the struggle, cannot fully realize the great danger that threatens you as a party and as men. As women (mothers, not suffragettes) who have been always loyal to Democracy, who are interested in good government, we want you voters to pause and think what the disregard of the two-term resolution as passed by you in convention two years ago will mean.

First, you can never again refer to your party as being one of fair dealing.

Second, "democracy" will become a misnomer, for you will be a party for "the few," not for "the many."

Third, you denounce trusts and yet preserve a trust in your own county court house.

Fourth, for all future time your party sincerity will be questioned, your party word of none effect.

Fifth, your moral weakness will be proven beyond doubt. Now, let us consider the new candidates:

E. B. Nixon, as Treasurer, should serve a second term.

W. W. Hooker, as a man of intelligence, irreproachable character and business ability, would make a safe sheriff.

A man who is a community-builder, who transformed a forested creek-side into an incorporated town containing lumber mill, cotton gin, postoffice, railroad station, state-plant school house, and a church; a man whose private deeds of charity are innumerable deeds dictated by no motive other than a broad and kindly philosophy; a man who, living in the city of Washington, contributing to his church there, still continues to help to support the weak and struggling church in Beaufort, the town he built; a man full of educational enthusiasm—such a man people ought to honor. This man whose history has just been recounted is W. T. Hunsell. Now, this man will make a worthy Register.

Fathers and brothers, we believe your sense of right, your loyalty to principle will in the time of this crisis dominate your hearts.

KATIE STILLEY BONNER,
MRS. E. MATTIE STILLEY.

Free Barbecue and Speaking Among Attractions of the Day.

Great racing is expected at the Car-Skaden race track. Tomorrow is the day and the Car-Skaden track the place. People are coming from all sections of Eastern Carolina and already several horses from elsewhere are already on the ground for the meet. The mule race is going to be great as several mules from this county are entered. Besides the racing a program of which was published in yesterday's Daily News, free barbecue is to be served. Men, women and children are invited and the day promises to be a gala one throughout. Parties desiring to attend the races can do so by being at Fowle's wharf tomorrow any time after 10 o'clock, when they will be carried down by gas boats every few minutes. Besides the gas boats the city transfers will be ready to assist in transportation. Besides the horse and mule racing and free barbecue the attractions of the day will be greatly enhanced by several addresses to be made by prominent speakers here and elsewhere.

Tomorrow promises to be an attraction for horse lovers and too to give all an opportunity to enjoy boat riding, fishing, etc., on the placid Pamlico. The track is now in first-class condition and no doubt the day will be one long remembered by all who attend.

NOTED RAILROAD MAN SOON TO STEP ASIDE

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5.—George F. Baer, president of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company, will attain his seventieth year on the twenty-sixth day of this month. According to the rules of the company's pension system he will then cease to be the active head of the great railroad and coal properties of the Reading Company. So far no official announcement has been made concerning Mr. Baer's prospective retirement. It is not believed, however, that any exception to the retirement rule will be made in his case and it is expected that he will relinquish his duties as president as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made in regard to his successor.

The retirement of Mr. Baer will remove from the active ranks one of the most dominant figures in American railroad and industrial circles. For more than forty years he has had an intimate connection with Pennsylvania's leading industries and during nearly half of that period he may be said to have guided the destinies of the whole field of anthracite coal mining and the numerous allied industries.

SMALL FIRE LAST NIGHT ON GLADEN STREET

On last evening between 9 and 10 o'clock the alarm of fire was sounded and it proved to be the residence of Edward Cooper, colored, on Gladden street. The blaze was extinguished before the department reached the scene without much damage.

IS IN THE CITY.

Dr. Charles T. Windley arrived in the city last evening from Asheville, N. C., where he went to take his son for treatment.

ERROR CORRECTED.

In giving the names of the respective candidates to be voted for in the primary, on Saturday, inadvertently, caused by haste and many other matters claiming the attention of the editor when the list was prepared, the names of W. B. Windley, Frank H. Bryan and Moses J. Fowler were omitted from the list as candidates for Recorder in Washington District. These gentlemen are before the people of Washington District for Recorder and are qualified for the position.

THE VERMONT RESULT PLEASES THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE

NEXT PRESIDENT WILL BE DEMOCRAT VERDICT YESTERDAY

President Taft Makes no Comment. No Votes Lost by the Democrats to the New Party.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 5. The close race between the three parties, Republican, Democratic and Progressive, in yesterday's election was emphasized today in the revision of returns of the vote for Governor. Additional returns compiled and revised from all but 14 small towns gave for governor: Allen M. Fletcher, Republican, 56,072; Harlan B. Howe, Democrat, 19,472; Rev. Fraser Metzger, Progressive, 15,070; Clement F. Smith, Prohibition, 1,493; Fred W. Suito, Socialist, 1,042.

Republicans' First Failure. The failure of the Republican candidate for governor to obtain a majority for the first time in the history of the State in an election preceding a presidential election causes the election of the State's executive to be made by the Legislature. It is expected that the Republicans will have a substantial majority in the Legislature although there are nearly 51 towns yet to report on the vote the Progressive vote was the feature for representative. The strength of the election. The Democrats also increased their vote over two years ago. The falling off in the Republican vote was marked. Indications were that a great part of the defection went to the Progressive, although the Democrats also gained and a few of the Republican voters went to the Prohibition ticket.

Progressives Encouraged. Comparison of returns for five of the fourteen counties show that the Democrats carried Caledonia county and the Republicans were successful in the Grand Isle, Orange, Washington, Lamolle counties. The result of the election is greatly encouraging to the Progressive party of the state.

Both Progressive and Democratic leaders professed to see in the result a good prospect to defeat the Republicans in the Presidential election in November in Vermont.

No Comment by Taft. Washington, Sept. 5.—President Taft arrived here from Beverly at 10:40 a. m. to formally open the International Congress of Applied Chemistry and welcome its delegates at a White House garden party. Mr. Taft expects to stay at the White House tonight and leave tomorrow morning for New York, New London and Beverly. He declined to comment upon the election returns in Vermont.

Vermont Result Pleases Wilson. Seagriff, N. J., Sept. 5.—"The fact that the Democrats more than held their own in Vermont, a Republican State, and also made substantial gains means business throughout the country," said Governor Woodrow Wilson, today, commenting on the election results in Vermont.

The Governor said the big Democratic vote was "very gratifying." It was difficult, however, he said, to analyze the results in Vermont on any comparative basis because the total vote was so much larger this year than two years ago, and it was hard to trace the sources of the gains. At any rate, he said, the Vermont election indicated a heavy vote throughout the country in the coming election, and he said that he regarded it as significant that the Democrats had carried the cities throughout Vermont.

Waterways Meeting Is In Session.

New London, Conn., Sept. 5.—One of the most notable gatherings ever assembled in the history of this country in the interest of waterway development was called to order at the Hotel Griswold in this city today, when the Atlantic Deepwater Waterways Association met for its fifth annual convention. The visitors, who represented all of the eastern States from Maine to Florida, were welcomed to Connecticut by Governor Baldwin.

President J. Hampton Moore, of Pennsylvania, in his annual address reviewed the work already accomplished in the project for an intra-coastal canal from Boston, Mass., to Beaufort, N. C., and spoke most encouragingly of the prospects for the fulfillment of the great development plan towards which the association is bending its energies. The Cape Cod canal, which is a prominent feature of the project, is rapidly nearing completion. The southern end of the proposed waterway, from Norfolk to Albemarle Sound, is provided for in the last rivers and harbors act. At the next session of Congress the association will endeavor to have an appropriation made for the improvement of the old Delaware and Chesapeake canal, which is to form another important link in the system.

No session of the convention was held this afternoon, the time being devoted to the delegates to a trip to Fisher's Island and an inspection of the great fortifications at Fort Wright. President Taft is expected to come to New London tomorrow to deliver an address at the concluding session of the convention.
