Water and Sewerage Is to Be Discussed This Evening

Remember the mass-meeting to be held at the City Hall this evening called by board of aldermen to discuss the water and sewerage problem in Washington.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND'S BIRTHDAY

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 11.—Archbishop Ireland entered upon his seventy-fifth year today and the occasion was marked by the receipt of a number of congratulatory messages from friends throughout the country.

WILSON GIVES IMPORTANCE TO TARIFF

(By C. H. Tavenner.) Special Correspondence.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Governor Wilson has indicated in the speeches he has made thus far in the campaign that he attaches a great deal of importance to the question of the tariff as it affects farmers.

The farmer does not derive any benefits from the tariff when he goes to market to sell his products, but on everything the farmer buys there is an artificially high price due to the tariff tax.

High protectionists in Congress have for many years deceived the farmers into believing that because a tariff is kept on wheat and corn the farmer is necessarily benefited thereby. That this is false logic is apparent to any student of American import and export statistics.

If there were no tariff on grain, therefore, the American farmer would not be menaced by the possibility of foreign competition, for the reason that foreigners have no grain to sell.

But the situation is vastly different with the farmer when he comes to buy the tools, machinery, clothing, and other necessities of life. He finds every article that he uses in producing his crops taxed higher and higher, until, as Gov. Wilson says, "it is getting to be next to impossible for the American farmer to make a legitimate profit."

Governor Wilson has shown a deep grasp of the tariff question as it affects farmers, and it is certain that before the campaign is much older he will have some illuminating things to say to the farmer on this vital subject.

MARYLAND SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Frederick, Md., Sept. 11.—Noted Sunday school workers from all over the State assembled in Frederick today for the forty-ninth convention of the Maryland Sunday School Association.

WATERMELON TIME

Becker to Face Court Tomorrow For Murder of Gambler Rosenthal

New York, Sept. 11.—Ten o'clock tomorrow morning before Justice John W. Gott presiding over an extraordinary term of the criminal branch of the Supreme court, is the time fixed for Police Lieutenant Chas. A. Becker to face the bar on a charge of murdering Gambler Herman Rosenthal.

The trial of Becker which is expected to unfold tales of the New York underworld hitherto undreamed of by the general public, though familiar enough perhaps, to the tenebrous habitues, has put every resident of the metropolis on the tip of expectation.

The cause for this extraordinary display of public interest is not difficult to find. Back of the murder are believed to lie crimes of an even more serious character, crimes that affect directly or indirectly every citizen of New York.

Events have moved swiftly since Herman Rosenthal, one of the best known of New York gamblers, was riddled with bullets and left to die on the sidewalk in front of the Metropolitan Hotel in the early morning hours of July 16.

GOOD SIZE AUDIENCE HEARS REV. R. V. HOPE

A large and appreciative audience heard with profit as well as pleasure the sermon delivered by Rev. Robert V. Hope, pastor of the Christian Church, at the Payne Memorial church, Nicholsonville, on last evening.

A series of meetings are now being conducted at the church by the pastor, Rev. Percy Pemberton and already considerable interest has been manifested. The services are being well attended nightly and the outlook is that quite a number will be added to the church.

MOTORED HERE. Messrs. W. A. Thompson and Claude Roberson motored to this city this morning from Aurora, N. C.

EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE AT LYRIC THEATER

Those who witnessed the performance at the Lyric Theatre last night are loud in their praise of the attraction, so much so that the management has been the recipient of numerous congratulations.

Another Primary for Recorder Washington

To the Democratic Voters of Chocowinity, Long Acre and Washington Townships, and the City of Washington:

In the primary held on Saturday, September 7th, none of the candidates for Recorder received a majority of the vote cast, and under the legalized primary law, there will be another primary between the two candidates receiving the highest vote, viz: Mr. W. B. Windley and myself.

I wish to thank all my supporters for their assistance in the last primary and to ask them for a continuance of the same in the next primary. I also ask the support of all Democrats in the next primary. I have not had a full term in this office.

Respectfully, W. D. GRIMES.

R. J. MANNING RETURNED HOME ON YESTERDAY

Robert J. Manning returned home last evening from Norfolk, Va., where he has been for the past week. Mr. Manning states that he has been away looking for employment. Apprehension was felt as to the safety of Mr. Manning by his friends caused by the rumor that he had met with an accident in Norfolk and as the report could not be verified or denied it was natural that concern be felt as to his whereabouts.

PRAYER MEETING. There will be prayer meeting services in all the different churches of the city this evening at the usual hour to which the general public has a cordial invitation.

AS TO GOV. KITCHIN COLLIER'S WEEKLY

The State Executive Has a Forgetting Memory, Says Ernest M. Green of New Bern. Publishes Following to Inform Young Men With Facts.

To the Editor: I see that Governor Kitchin is still quoting from Collier's, so I append an article I wrote and published in the New Bern Sun of April, 1912. I have reason to know that the governor saw the article and is aware of the sort of sheet Collier's is, but the governor has a most convenient forgettery, and this is published to inform the young men unacquainted with the revolution of 1898.

ERNEST M. GREEN. New Bern, N. C. (From the New Bern Sun.)

Mr. Editor: I was glad to see that the Newton Enterprise had held up to the view of the Democracy of North Carolina Governor Kitchin's record of 1898.

What the Enterprise says about the governor's efforts to have the committee accept Butler's proposition of fusion upon a purely "spoils basis" is undeniably true.

Nor will the governor attempt to deny it, for the evidence is conclusive. In his speech at Greensboro, which the governor sends to me in pamphlet form, he points to the dire disasters to flow from following Senator Simmons' leadership.

The governor, to bolster up his cause in denouncing Senator Simmons, is singularly unfortunate in quoting from "Collier's Weekly."

Does the governor hope to strengthen his position by calling to his aid the publication which so insulted Southern womanhood a few years ago as to arouse the manhood of the South almost to frenzy?

Vertly! has North Carolina fallen on evil days when the utterances of the paid hireling of Northern publication, which, but a few short years ago, vilely slandered the womanhood of the State, are embodied even as a quotation in a speech of its Democratic governor to "black-jack" the manhood of the State in its bitterest hour?

Certain it is that that so-called speech has been circulated since the opening of this senatorial campaign but some of us, who are not among Mr. Kitchin's political friends, have sufficient faith in his personal honor to excuse him from that infamy.

The governor can only get into the Senate on his own record. Senator Simmons' record would not serve to put the governor in, for there are two other candidates for that office—with much better records than his.
