but inasmuch that Bishop Henderson is to be in Washington at that time looking over the field in interest of the college that has been granted here for Eastern Carolina, the pastor of the First M. E. church and the official body have extended to Bishop Henderson an invitation to occupy the pulpit on Tuesday night.

Bishop Henderson is a member of the episcopacy of one of the greatest religious organizations in the world and has the reputation of being one of the most attractive and thoughtful preachers in this country. No doubt he will be heard by a large and appreciative audience. The choir of the First M. E. church is now preparing special music for the occasion. The following is the program for the Sunday School and Epworth Institute which is to begin on Sunday next: (Five talks of five minutes each). 1. Increasing the Enrollment. Some Methods. Mr. J. T. MISS F. WILSON ACCEPTS POSITION WITH BANK

Miss Farnes Wilson, of Caswell County, N. C., arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of accepting the position as stenographer at the Bank of Washington. She has already entered upon her duties. Miss Wilson is a graduate of the State Normal and Industrial School and came to Washington bearing with her the highest endorsement. She is gladly welcomed to our city. Miss Wilson is boarding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Moses J. Fowler, on East Second street. She has the best wishes of the Daily News. The improvements now in progress at the Bank of Washington are progressing rapidly. When completed no banking house in this section of North Carolina will surpass it for attractiveness and convenience both to the employee and patrons.

WASHINGTON GUN CLUB TO HAVE SHOOT THURSDAY

The Washington Gun Club is to give another interesting and exciting shoot at their grounds on North Renner street tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. The last shoot given by the club was one of the most successful of the season and was thoroughly enjoyed not only by the participants, but the visitors as well. Everybody is cordially invited to come out tomorrow afternoon and take part no matter whether they are members of the club or not.

MR. E. F. SPARROW ILL. The many friends of Mr. E. F. Sparrow, who has been critically ill at his home on East Main street, were glad to see him out yesterday. He has been indisposed for the past week.

Vice-President—Ella Lee Wright. Secretary and Treasurer—Violet A. Sillley. Poet—Helen Shaw.

Prophet—Sallie Carrow. Statistician—Olivia Jordan. Testator—Josie McCullers. Adviser—Mr. M. A. Huggins. The class of 1913 of the Washington High School consists of twelve girls and two boys, viz: Louise Bright, Sallie Carrow, Mabel Dalley, Rena Harding, Bruce Hodges, Garland Hodges, Olivia Jordan, Josie McCullers, Helen Shaw, Margie Spain, Bettie Spencer, Violet A. Sillley, Elizabeth Taylor and Ella Lee Wright.

HON. W. M. BOND TO SPEAK HERE OCT. 14

Hon. W. M. Bond, of Edenton, N. C., is to speak in the Court House, Washington, on October 14, in the interest of the candidacy of Senator F. M. Simmons, who is a candidate for the United States Senate. Mr. Bond is one of the State's gifted and attractive speakers and his coming to Washington on that date is hailed with genuine pleasure by not only the advocates and admirers of Senator Simmons, but his opponents as well. Mr. Bond is scheduled to speak at noon and no doubt he will be heard by a large and appreciative audience.

DELIGHTFUL SERVICE AT PAYNE MEMORIAL CHURCH

Another delightful service was conducted at the Payne Memorial church, Nicholsonville, on last evening and a most thoughtful and instructive sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Percy Pemberton. There will be services again this evening at the usual hour. Much good has been accomplished since the meeting started and no doubt several will be added to the different churches of the city as a result of the series of meetings. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the services this evening.

W. B. WALLING VERY ILL AT HIS HOME IN CITY

The entire city will regret to learn of the critical illness of Mr. W. B. Walling. His condition today is such that very little hope is entertained by his physician and friends for recovery. He is suffering from Bright's disease. Mr. Walling for years has been one of Washington's leading citizens. He has been actively engaged in the manufacturing business and from a small beginning has acquired considerable property. The news of his critical illness carries with it universal regret throughout the city and when known in Beaufort County will be received with sorrow. The sympathy of all go out to the grief-stricken family.

HELEN HODGES TRENHOLM DIED THIS MORNING

This morning between four and five o'clock sweet little Helen Hodges Trenholm, the 16-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Trenholm, of Wilmington, N. C., fell sweetly to sleep at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Walter E. Jones, on Fourth street. This little casket of jewels had only been ill for a few days when on last evening a turn was taken for the worse. All that the skill of the physician or loving hearts could do was performed, but all to no avail for God wanted her to brighten the battlements of heaven and she with a smile left for that home not made with hands eternal in the heavens. Sweet little Helen gave promise of a life of usefulness not only for others, but for father and mother. The fragrance of her young life will ever linger and although the crib today sits quietly in the corner, the memory of this dear little girl will ever abide. "Not now but in the coming years all of us will understand why death is only a dream."

TO MEET IN TORONTO.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 18.—Everything is in readiness for the Canadian convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which will meet in this city tomorrow for a three days' session. Many men of prominence are scheduled as speakers, among them Premier Borden, Sir James Whitney, A. B. Wiswell of Halifax, Bishop Farthing of Montreal and Right Rev. Dr. Talbot, Lord Bishop of Winchester, England.

FUNERAL 10 A. M. TOMORROW.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Walter E. Jones on Fourth street tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. The interment will be in Oak Dale cemetery.

AMERICAN GIRL WEDS IN LONDON.

London, Sept. 18.—At St. George's Church, Hanover Square, this afternoon, Miss Edith Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks, of New York, was married to the Hon. Arthur R. Nutting, youngest son of Sir John and Lady Nutting, of Dublin. The wedding ceremony, which was attended by many persons of social prominence, was followed by a breakfast at Claridge's.

BREWERS' ANNUAL MEETING.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 18.—The annual convention of the United States Brewers' Association began in Boston today, with headquarters at the new Copley Plaza Hotel. There are present many leading brewers of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Baltimore, Milwaukee, San Francisco, New Orleans and other cities. In connection with the convention there is an elaborate display of brewery machinery, materials and products. A miniature brewery is shown in operation and there is also an interesting exhibit from the hop fields in irrigated sections of the West.

POSTMASTER INDISPOSED.

The many friends of Postmaster Hugh Paul will regret to learn that he has been indisposed for the past few days. Although able to go to the postoffice today he is far from being a well man. His rapid recovery is wished for by his numerous friends throughout the city and county.

SCHOONER IN PORT.

The schooner Cecl, Captain J. H. Howerlin, of Lowlands, N. C., arrived in port last night loaded with cotton seed. The Cecl will load with a general cargo for the return trip.

JOHN T. TROWBRIDGE IS 85.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 18.—John T. Trowbridge, known to several generations of readers through his "Darius Green and His Flying Machine" and other stories and poems, quietly observed his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary today at his home in Arlington. He is in excellent health and only recently returned from his annual tour of Europe. Mr. Trowbridge is the last survivor of New England's famous group of authors and poets, which included Whittier, Emerson, Longfellow, Melroe and Lowell.

MR. J. E. WYNNE ILL.

The friends of Mr. James R. Wynne will regret to learn of his indisposition. He is now confined to his home on East Main street.

PRAYER MEETING.

There will be prayer meeting services in all the different churches of the city this evening at the usual hour to which the general public is cordially invited.

A NEW YORK PAPER URGES READERS TO SUPPORT WILSON

Lester Simmons Makes a Fine Record on Team

Mr. Lester Simmons, of the Petersburg Baseball Club, has arrived in the city and is the guest of his brother, Mr. Daniel Simmons, at the corner of Second and Vanorden streets. No player in the Virginia League during the past season made a more enviable record. In every game in which he participated he made good both in fielding, base running and batting. He was one of the stars in the Virginia League and his many friends in Washington are glad to know that he delivered the goods.

CAR MANAGER HOWE SHOWS IN CITY TODAY

Bert Rutherford, car manager for the Howe Great Railroad Shows is in the city. This is Mr. Rutherford's third visit to Washington and his many friends are glad to shake his hand again. He states that the Howe shows which is billed for Washington on Wednesday, October 2, is better this season than ever before and that all who witness it will agree with him. The show requires twenty cars for the purpose of transportation on the railroad. Mr. Rutherford knows the show business from A to Z. He is an "old timer" and says there is no place like Eastern Carolina and especially Washington.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. J. A. Tucker and daughter, Ida, have arrived in the city from Virginia. Mrs. Tucker is the wife of the new manager of Hotel Louise and this paper takes pleasure in welcoming her as a resident of Washington.

Rev. R. H. Broom, pastor of the First Methodist Church, is in Monroe, N. C., at the bedside of his aged father. He is expected to return home on next Saturday.

Mr. F. J. Forbes, of Greenville, is a Washington visitor today.

Mr. W. Cowell, of Boston, Mass., is registered at Hotel Louise.

Mr. S. E. Weeks, of Raleigh, N. C., is in the city on business.

Mr. H. G. Parks, of Elizabeth City, is in the city today.

Mr. C. M. Cobb, a prominent business man of Tarboro, N. C., is a Washington visitor.

Captain John W. Keyes, one of the Norfolk Southern clever conductors, of Raleigh, was here last night shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. John Walton, of Rocky Mount, is a guest at Hotel Louise.

Captain J. H. Howerlin, of Lowlands, N. C., is a Washington visitor.

Mr. Frank H. Short left this morning for Lynchburg, Va.

Mr. Lester Simmons, a member of the Petersburg baseball team for the past season, is home, the guest of relatives and friends.

Mr. W. S. D. Eborn, of Bunyan, N. C., is a Washington visitor today.

Now if some woman would only leave a man a hundred thousand or two for giving up a seat in a street car it might really promote civility. Courtesy reserved for Pullmans is too rare.

Prof. Jenks of Minnesota would cure the divorce evil by letting wives control the family purse strings. This, added to the countless other sure cures and panaceas, makes one wonder why divorce should stick around at all.

Women who attend the First Methodist Episcopal church in Ithaca, N. Y., have agreed to remove their hats during services so that the men will no longer have an excuse for remaining away. All will be well if the new plan doesn't serve to keep the women away from church.

BUFFALO TIMES IS ANXIOUS FOR WILSON TO WIN

San Francisco Call is Weary of Dissension in Republican Party and Urges the Election of Wilson.

New York, Sept. 18.—The Buffalo Evening Times says: "The San Francisco Call, one of the leading Republican newspapers of the Pacific Coast, as well as one of the most influential papers in the country, is weary of the dissension, bickering and open rupture within the Republican party, and editorially is urging its readers to vote for Woodrow Wilson."

"The Call has not been the only paper to switch since the nomination of the Democratic candidate, but it is probably the most significant change of policy of any of them."

"More and more to the best-thinking people in the country is the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson assuming that of the ideal. Each day it becomes more evident that in the New Jersey executive Democracy has made no mistake. From every side come reports of the espousal of the Democratic cause on the part of those hitherto antagonistic. His achievements in public office, his personality, his policies and his plans are compelling admiration and attracting allegiance. Election day will find a strong percentage of the Republican vote ranged on the Democratic side. The Call is one of many great newspapers that are patriotically giving their support to the man who they know will conduct the affairs of the nation along lines that will tend to the greater happiness and comfort of the people and the honor and glory of the country."

MEMBERS M. E. CHURCH CHOIR TO PRACTICE

On account of the Sunday School and Epworth League Institute, which is to begin in the First Methodist Church on next Sunday and lasting through Tuesday night at which time Bishop Henderson, of the M. E. church, is to preach. The members of the M. E. church choir are requested to meet at the church this evening promptly at 8 o'clock for purpose of practice. All members are requested to be present.

WILBUR H. ROSS THANKS HIS FRIENDS FOR THEIR SUPPORT.

I feel that I am due my friends a word of thanks for the support given me before the primaries held September 7.

While I was an abortive candidate for the office of Register of Deeds, still I feel that the candidate nominated must be the rightful one, since he is the preference of the people, and I want to assure Mr. Rumley that he will have my solid support in helping to elect him Register for the coming two years.

In aspiring to that office I did it in accordance with the two-term policy resolution, not because I believed that I (or any other man in the county) could fill the office more efficiently or more willingly than does Mr. Rumley, but because I hoped to maintain the resolution passed; thereby establishing rotation in office holding.

Again I wish to thank my friends for the support given me and should I come before them again, and ask for that, or any other office within the gift of the people, I now assure them that their support will be as earnestly solicited as in the past.

WILBUR H. ROSS. The many friends of Mr. E. T. Tilghman, of Wilson, N. C., were glad to see him in the city on last evening. He was a former resident.
