WILSON FIRST PRESIDENT OWING NOTHING EXCEPT TO THE PEOPLE OF U. S.

NO LONGER WILL BE DRIVEN TO THE POLES BY THREATS

The Harriman-Roosevelt Correspondence Shows its Time The Mask Should Be Thrown off.

(By Martin J. Wade of Iowa.) Chicago, Oct. 5.—It is time the mask was torn off so that the American people may not be deluded by loud protestations of virtue. The investigation is quoting Roosevelt in his proper position, as "The Pharisee in Politics." He has been going up and down the country thinking God that he is not as other men and anyone who reads the letter of November 26, 1904, entitled "My Dear Harriman," will now agree with him.

As the veil is being lifted, it becomes more and more a wonder that the Democratic party has survived the crusade of corruption which it has been compelled to meet every four years. Every American citizen should read the Harriman letter signed by Theodore Roosevelt. When a President of the United States, representing the entire people, is compelled to write in tones of appeal and apology to the head of a great railway trust it is easy to understand how these special interests have been able to dominate legislative and executive action.

"My Dear Harriman" was only one of hundreds who, if they did not receive like letters, at least exercised like influence with the executive. It will illustrate the fact that if you know who is supporting a man you can tell what he stands for. When the Harrimans, the Rockefellers, the Morgans, the Penroses and the hundreds of other trust magnates are backing a man for the presidency, you can tell whom this man will represent if elected. So this year, as Perkins manages Roosevelt's campaign, it is easy to tell who will dominate his administration and when we find all of the great protected interests and the trusts and combinations supporting Taft or Roosevelt, we know he will be taken care of when the time comes. Will the farmers and laborers and the independent business men of the country continue to join with the forces of monopoly to elect a President who will be the tool of monopoly? Will those who bend their backs in toil wait to see every dollar spent at the end of the month to feed and clothe their families, continue to join hands with those who despoil them of the fruits of their labor?

This election is going to demonstrate that the people can no longer be hoodwinked and driven to the polls by threats of starvation which emanate from the council tables of those who are beneficiaries of special governmental favor.

Wilson will be the first President in 16 years who owes nothing to anyone except the people.

NEW MUSIC TEACHER FOR CITY SCHOOL

Owing to the resignation of Miss Ruby Penay, who has been teaching music in the public schools since last January, to accept a position in Meredith College, Raleigh, the school board have necessarily been compelled to secure another teacher.

We are glad to announce that we have secured a young lady whom we believe to be fully qualified to take charge of the music department. She comes to Washington October 5th, and will be ready to take charge of the music work Monday, October 7th. The young lady secured is Miss James Mary Kornegay, of Mt. Olive, N. C. She graduated at Peace Institute both in piano and voice. She has also done special work in the Boston Conservatory in these subjects and in public school music. She comes to us highly recommended by the authorities where she was educated and after having had two years' experience in teaching piano and voice. Her coming will make it possible for us to introduce voice culture as well as piano and public school music in the school.

All parents whose children are to take music are requested to instruct them to begin music Monday, October 7th.

NOTED LA FOLLETTE MAN FOR WILSON.

New York, Oct. 5.—Governor Wilson is almost certain to capture the votes of those 8,000 or more Republican progressives in Ohio who supported Senator La Follette at the primaries, according to Walter W. Pollock, president of the Manufacturers' Appraisal Company, of Cleveland, who was a caller at the Wilson National Progressive Republican League Headquarters. Mr. Pollock, who is a life-long Republican, and who was a member of Senator La Follette's campaign committee in Ohio, said that a great majority of the progressive Republicans in Cleveland would follow Mayor Newton Baker, who is helping Governor Wilson's fight in Ohio.

"These progressive Republicans," said Mr. Pollock, "believe that Senator La Follette was the logical Republican Progressive candidate. They feel very bitter toward Col. Roosevelt, and not more than a handful of them are likely to follow his third term movement." Mr. Pollock is supporting a legislative ticket in Ohio made up of progressives who are vigorously opposed to the Roosevelt party candidate.

CONFESSES PLOT IN MURDER.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 5.—The Reuter murder case, one of the most sensational in the records of Tulsa, was called in court today and it is expected the trial will get under way the first of next week. Charles T. Reuter, a lawyer, formerly of Peoria, Ill., was murdered in his home in the best residence section of this city on the night of May 5 last. The police investigation resulted in indictments for murder being returned against Mrs. Laura M. Reuter, widow of the slain man, and Guy D. MacKenzie, "Bud" Bellew and Joe Baker. Bellew is alleged to have confessed that the motive for the murder was "love, revenge and robbery," though declaring at the same time that the wife had no knowledge that her husband was to be killed. Mrs. Reuter is confident of acquittal, and public sentiment now appears to be strong in her favor.
