LITTLE WILLIAM ROBERT ROBERSON DEAD.

On Wednesday night, September 18th, the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roberson and took from them their sweet little boy, William Robert. He was ill for some time, but just a week before his death he was taken with typhoid. When God in His wisdom saw fit to take him from us. He was two years, six months and a few days old at the time of his death. He leaves a father and mother, one brother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, but they sorrow not as those who have no hope, for he is not dead, but sleeping. May the good Lord comfort his loved ones and help them to lean upon His strong arm and trust in Him.

He can not come to them, but some time they will go and meet him in the heavenly home, where all is joy and love, and parting will be no more. I know your home is sad without your precious one, but remember, while our hearts bleed with sorrow, he is resting peacefully. It was hard to part from him though we feel that our loss is his eternal gain. He was the sunshine of his home and will be sadly missed, but Jesus says, suffer little children to come unto me, for such is the kingdom of heaven. It was His will to take this little rosebud from us. He was so bright and loving, but now we know that he is at rest where there is no sorrow, no death, no pain, but eternal rest forever, and we should not grieve over his joy. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Dalton. Quite a large number of sorrowing friends were present.

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we love is stilled. A place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled.

His loving aunt, STELLA ROBERSON.

MANY ATTENDED LYRIC WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Lyric with its mid-week matinee received a large patronage yesterday both from the young and old.

The matinees the management is now offering are proving to be very popular for the afternoon amusement seekers, the next matinee date will be Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5.

The pictures for last evening was very creditable ones, especially the comedy which drew large applause from both young and old.

The main feature offering is for Friday night, "The Lady of the Lake," in a three reel feature, made by the Vitagraph players, and received comment from both press and public where shown.

This feature is along the lines of Sir Walter Scott's poem and closely follows the story, and one that can only be appreciated by those who see it.

The admission prices for Friday night will be 10 and 20 cents, and there is nothing considered cheap about this picture but the extreme low price.

WASHINGTON PARK

On the Parade.

Assures you a homelike where children will grow strong and healthy, robust, full of life. Have you talked it over yet with your wife? Imagine yourself kept in the back yard! Now, when a child, you would have thought that hard. Give children playgrounds, from the hot streets of dust. To eat their vitality soon makes them pass. Or weakens their lungs, which will put them away. Now come to the Park, where good health lets them stay.

Prepare here your home to throw open the doors. And the blinds for fresh air yet no dust on the floors. Reward will be yours, health, pleasure, come, speak. Keep well, you will be happy in Washington Park.

Sec. 4. Be it further ordained that the closet or privy of each private family shall be cleaned and disinfected, not less than once each week, and all other closets or privies shall be inspected once each week and cleaned and disinfected as often as the Sanitary Inspector shall deem it necessary.

YOUNG BOY'S ARM IS CRUSHED BY WHEEL

Leo Bright, the 8-year-old son of Mr. Elias Bright, superintendent of the County Home, met with the misfortune to break his arm last Tuesday afternoon while on his way home from school, in this city.

He was riding in a wagon with some other boys and in attempting to alight from the wagon, fell between the wheels. The wheels crushed his right arm. Dr. John G. Blount rendered the necessary medical attention. The little fellow is reported as doing nicely today.
