WORLD SERIES WON BY THE RED SOX ON YESTERDAY

Required Ten Innings to Decide the Contest. Score was 3 to 2 in Boston's Favor. Yerkes Scores the Winning Tally.

Fenway Park, Boston, Mass., Oct. 17.—The Boston American League club won the world's championship for 1912 yesterday by defeating the New York Nationals by a score of 3 to 2 in a ten inning contest before 26,000 people.

Mathewson pitched a wonderful game until the final inning, when he weakened. The Red Sox were one run behind when they came to the bat at the end of the tenth inning.

A glaring muff by Snodgrass of Eagle's long fly put the batter on second after Hooper had flied out. Speaker went to second, Yerkes having gone to third on the play. Lewis was purposely passed in order that a forced play could be made at the plate.

When Gardner came to the plate, the stands were in a turmoil of excitement. Gardner caught an inshoot on the end of his bat and sent it to Devore, whose throw to the plate was too wide to catch Yerkes as he went over the plate with the winning run.

The crowd rushed on the field and gathered around the Red Sox bench cheering the home players. Some spectators addressed an insulting remark to McGraw and here was an exchange of blows.

McGraw was on his way to the Red Sox bench to congratulate Stahl on his victory. The crowd pressed about Mathewson and patted him on the back for his clever box work. Bedient and Wood pitched effectively for Boston.

FIRST NUMBER LYCEUM COURSE HERE MONDAY

Music lovers in Washington are delighted to learn that the "Metropolitan Grand Concert Company" is to be the first number on the Lyceum Course furnished by the Radcliffe attractions of Washington, D. C., for the winter. The date will be Monday evening, October 21st.

The company comes in place of the "Neil Litchford Trio." Mr. Litchford at present is seriously ill, and has found it necessary to cancel his Lyceum dates for this winter. While the "Neil Litchford Trio" is well known to the people of this city as an exceptionally fine number, yet the "Metropolitan Grand Concert Company," which is one of the finest attractions placed on the road by the Radcliffe people, is a number of more than 3 times the cast of the "Litchford Trio," and is composed of artists of national fame.

The company consists of a mixed quartet, Miss Edna Sands Dunham, soprano; Miss Marion May, contralto; John Finnegan, tenor; and Royal Dudson, basso. Ethel Tosler, who gained fame as an accompanist for the Victor Herbert Orchestra on its Southern tour last year, is the pianist with this company.

Each member of the "Metropolitan Grand Concert Company" has achieved fame, not only in this country, but also abroad.

The attraction appears only in the large courses managed by the Radcliffe Bureau, and Washington is decidedly fortunate in securing its services. Miss Dunham, the soprano, has a voice of exceptional power and sweetness. She has had training not only in the great American conservatories, but abroad, and she has been soloist for Sousa's Band as well as other great organizations. Last year she was prima donna of the Washington Opera Company, of Washington, D. C., where she made a decided hit with the music lovers of the nation's capital.

The other members of the company are just as talented. Mr. Finnegan is the chief soloist of the great Cathedral Choir at St. Patrick's, New York City.

Mr. Dudson has been supported as a bass soloist for leading organizations, and at music festivals in the leading cities throughout the United States.

Marion May possesses a charming personality and a delightful stage presence, couple with a contralto voice that is as rare as it is beautiful.

Experts have pronounced the ensemble, as well as the solo work of these artists beyond reproach. They sing nothing but the very finest music.

Tickets will go on sale at Worthy & Etheridge's drug store Friday morning at 12 o'clock.

MAJESTIC TRIO PLEASES

"The Majestic Trio" opened for a four days engagement at the Lyric last evening, and played to a large and appreciative audience, their act was of the very highest type, and their singing drew large applause.

The artist remain here for the remainder of the week, and their act was highly appreciated by the large and enthusiastic audience.

They have an act that can be appreciated only by those who are lovers of good comedy, and high class singing, and no doubt but what they will be a feature drawing card at the Lyric for the remainder of the week.

single through next week if possible. This sale is for a worthy cause and should be well patronized. Remember the sale starts tomorrow morning on West Main street in the Havens building.

Will The REAL FREEMEN Uphold Wilson's Hands?

Woodrow Wilson has refused emphatically to accept contributions to his Campaign Fund from the Interests, from 'ing influences, from any questionable sources.

He has given us, the Democratic National Committee, to understand that he will go into the White House with clean hands or not at all.

Who Is Getting The Money of The Trusts?

So sure has been Wilson's stand, so well known his incorruptible purpose, that no private interests have dared to approach either our candidate or his committee.

We have not been offered a penny by the trusts, and we certainly have not solicited a penny from them. The money of the Interests is being spent against Wilson. No matter for whom—we need not discuss that here—it is now common gossip that the money power of the nation is being used in an attempt to defeat Woodrow Wilson.

What Is a "People's Campaign?"

We are addressing ourselves to the real freemen of America, the upright, Progressive Voters of the country who are doing the work of the nation and not the work of trusts and bosses.

We realize that the salvation of every righteous cause rests with you. Often this cry of a People's Party or a People's President is raised by the very forces we seek to defeat and whom we must and will defeat. But look to our standard and our standard bearer and decide yourself as to which is the People's Campaign and most, therefore, be fought with the People's money.

Woodrow Wilson Has Clean Hands

Woodrow Wilson is the cleanest man in national politics. He came of illustrious forefathers, who laid by blood and heredity the foundation of a future President through generation after generation of upright record.

If Wilson is to be elected it must be by clean money and there is only one source of such money—from the voters of the country who realize the importance of having a government uninfused by the almighty dollar.

Wilson's hands are clean. Will you uphold them?

How Much Money Will You Give? How Much Can You Raise?

There are big campaign expenses to be met if we are to win on Election Day in November. We must tell the voters of the country about Wilson, what he is, what he has done. We must show them his record. We must show them his platform. We must point out to them the features of his platform which mean so much to this nation. This great work will cost a lot of money. We must meet the usual heavy toll necessary to present a platform and a candidate to a hundred million.

Your dollar, your $5, your $10, your $50 is needed. And don't mistake—we want the man who can only afford the one dollar. We need him. We need the woman who can only give one dollar. We believe in this kind of loyalty—it's the kind that wins.

Let every one contribute to the Woodrow Wilson Campaign by the first mail. Let's have as big a fund as the corporations can supply the other parties. For the people are mightier even in money than the combinations—when they get together.

A Call To Those Who Will Club Contributions

No live progressive voter can do more for Wilson's cause than to head a list with his own contribution and then to have his fellow-workers and friends swell the total with their names and money.

If you work in an office or factory, mill, warehouse, on a railroad, ranch or farm, start the ball rolling. Line up the Wilson men. Sign up as many contributions as you can. And mail to us.

CORRESPONDENTS GIVE INTERESTING NEWS FROM THE COUNTY

JAKEVILLE ATOMS. Eight correspondents reported last week and at least seven didn't. Each school can make its term one month longer this year than it has ever been before.

This is an age of steam rollers. Many a man starts out as a politician and ends up as pie crust.

To make the country schools one month longer this year is easy enough. A small private subscription will do it and will bankrupt nobody's pocketbook.

Talking about chewing tobacco and political parties, you can get any brand you want nowadays.

The country school teacher's salary is so small we are ashamed to have it. Where is the district that can't raise the trivial sum necessary to make a school one month longer?

How many correspondents endorse this plan for their districts? Making each four-month school a five-month school would be a small beginning so far as the cost would go, but a great leap forward so far as the effect would go.

"A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," but one month added to four would be worth two months. A real business proposition. Two in one, don't you see.

Let each school in this county leap forward one month this year and it will mark the beginning of a crusade against ignorance like has never before been seen.

How about it River Road, Pineville, R. F. D. 4, Bragaw and all the rest?

So here we go, not one or two, but all. One or two might feel lonely; some might turn back. But the whole county jumping to its feet as one man would make a joyful and triumphant procession.

The Jakeville Betterment Association held a meeting the other night to consider an extra month for this winter's term of school. Jake Handy made a speech on the subject from which we quote the following:

"When I first thought about this here matter, I thought it was too big a proposition for a pore neighborhood like this but since I've kind o' turned it over in my head, I see it's easy enough. Our district pays the teacher $35 a month there are 40 children of school age in the district, so you see it will take only $7 1-2 to the child to give us that extra month. Now I've got three children, and if I can't fork up $2.63 for the benefit of these little fellers, then I'm a mighty shabby Jake Handy, I'm all I've got to say about it."

R. F. D. No. 4 you better let Jakeville Jack stay where he is at. You don't need no such crack-brain dude as he is to help you out in your parties, but if you have a case of hookworm any where around, I insist on your sending for him at once and let him sit down on it.

Jake you are right much of a jack-leg or a jack at all trades. Hog cholera is still raging through

Col. Pearsall Says Aycock Would Have Voted The Way Simmons Did

(New Bern Journal.) Col. P. M. Pearsall has just returned to the city from a week's stay at Jackson Springs.

"As to Governor Aycock," he said, "I am sorry his name has been brought into this controversy. It was the wish of his friends that it should not be, but Governor Kitchin has brought it in, and he, so to speak, is his witness. In the interest of truth, and in justice to the whole people of this State, I feel that it is my duty as a close personal and confidential friend of Governor Aycock to give the facts."

"As you know," said Colonel Pearsall, "I was with Governor Aycock on his private secretary while governor and after he left the office of governor until the day of his death; we were in almost constant communication either personally or by correspondence. As many of us know, Governor Aycock had the question of becoming a candidate under advisement for many months before he declared himself, and in that time talked fully and freely with his friends. I would be safe in saying that he talked and wrote to me about this matter fifty times. I feel I know, indeed, I know I know, his feeling with reference to Senator Simmons. Personally they were kind and cordial, and I know if he had not become a candidate himself he would have certainly supported Senator Simmons to succeed himself."

"As to his vote on Lorimer, recollect, and indeed all questions of importance, Governor Aycock entirely agreed with Senator Simmons. He gave all of these questions thought and investigation. His mind was clear and positive as to these matters."

"I recall distinctly the morning the papers announced the first vote on Lorimer. I remember we (Governor Aycock and myself) had been to the Supreme Court room and were walking to occupy the entire day as well as through Friday. The case is attracting considerable attention. There are quite a number of witnesses on both sides. Gibbs is indicted for the murder of his young son in the town of Bath in June last."

"The invention of a light steel bar to be held against the upper lip by clamps to prevent persons from sneezing is announced in the patent office, but many persons are convinced that a crowbar driven deftly through the nostrils is the only permanent cure.
