

Rain Tonight and Tomorrow

MRS. THOMAS R. MARSHALL

Wife of the Democratic Vice-Presidential Nominee, Honorary Vice-President of the Woman's National Democratic League.

Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, wife of the vice-presidential nominee of the Democratic party, is a keen student of affairs and as the constant companion of her husband has had an exceptional opportunity of specializing on human nature. A very practical and far-reaching result of this peculiar interest in the larger family of the state—she has no children of her own—is found in the long list of humanitarian bills passed by the Indiana legislature during her husband's regime as governor. A bill to curtail child labor heads the list, which numbers twenty, and includes almost every legal correction for the immediate relief of labor, especially for that pertaining to women and children.

The Marshall home, like that of the Wilsons, is a home of books, and yet one does not feel "bookish" within its walls. On the contrary, one feels very much at home there the moment Mrs. Marshall appears upon the scene, and, if possible, more so when Mr. Marshall comes in.

They are such chums, this "tender-hearted" governor and his wife, and where one is the other is pretty sure to be found. They have traveled all over the country together, and if the Woman's National Democratic League has anything to do with it they will soon be going to Washington together.

Mrs. Marshall is honorary vice-president of the league and keenly interested in its work, not because it is part of the campaign, but because she recognizes the permanency of the movement to educate women in the principles of Democracy.

POLITICS! POLITICS!

MRS. CONE JOHNSON

One of the Vice-Presidents of the Woman's National Wilson and Marshall Organization.

Mrs. Cone Johnson of Tyler, Tex., one of the vice-presidents of the Woman's National Wilson and Marshall organization and president of the Wilson and Marshall Woman's organization in Texas, is in New York, where she will remain during the rest of the presidential campaign in connection with the work of the national organization at the headquarters in the Fifth Avenue building. Mrs. Johnson came east with her husband, who is one of the most prominent politicians, most successful lawyers and most brilliant orators in Texas, to attend the Baltimore convention. Mr. Johnson was chairman of the Texas delegation which, as is well known, was sold for Governor Wilson throughout the famous Baltimore sessions. He will actively participate in the campaign, delivering a number of speeches for the ticket. Mrs. Johnson has been spending the summer in the east and will remain here to do all in her power for the advancement of the Democratic cause and the election of Wilson and Marshall.

Mrs. Johnson has done splendid work in her own state at the head of the organization of women which has been working with success in a well directed effort to raise funds for the Democratic cause and increase interest in the campaign. She was president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and has for years been active in that organization. She was formerly president of the Texas division United Daughters of the Confederacy. She Industrial Arts located at Denton, Tex. This board was the first in the state for over ten years a member of the board of regents of the College of history of the state to include women.

Mrs. Johnson's presence will add material strength to the splendid headquarters force of the national organization with which she is officially connected.

INDOOR RIFLE SHOOTING FOR SOUTHERN STATES

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—In arranging the competition for the New National Trophy which has been presented by the National Board for Indoor Rifle Shooting, it has been suggested that a "Southern League" be organized as well as an Eastern and Western league. The only obstacle in the way of organizing such a league is a lack of rifle clubs in the Southern states. Not counting Texas, there is only one Civilian rifle club affiliated with the National Rifle Association in the states of Virginia, West Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana. If the riflemen of these states would organize Government rifle clubs, the National Rifle Association of America, under whose auspices the competitions for the National Indoor trophy will be carried on, will be very glad to organize the Southern League for this competition. It will require not less than ten clubs for this purpose.

I enclose herewith, for your information the conditions which govern the competition for the National trophy. By-laws and application blanks for the purpose of organizing a Government rifle club can be secured from the undersigned. The following State Secretaries in the states above mentioned will be very glad to co-operate in the organizing of such clubs.

Alabama, Major Cliff S. Price, Birmingham.

- Florida, Capt. L. C. Menagee, 2990 St. Johns Ave., Jacksonville.
- Georgia, Capt. W. T. Spratt, Jr., Atlanta.
- Mississippi, Major G. E. Hobaboom, Vicksburg.
- North Carolina, Capt. R. R. Morrison, Mooresville.
- South Carolina, Capt. C. V. Boykin, Charleston.
- Tennessee, Col. F. H. Phillips, Nashville.
- Texas, Major O. C. Guessaz, San Antonio.
- West Virginia, Major James I. Pratt, Charleston.
- Virginia, Major Alfred B. Percy, Lynchburg.

Indoor rifle shooting is greatly on the increase in this country. It has been demonstrated that without a doubt the following of the indoor game during the winter months will greatly increase the efficiency of the riflemen in his outdoor work. Surely all of our best shooters in the country keep in practice this way during the winter. A range of 75 feet the distance at which all the National Rifle Association work is done, can be very easily installed with slight expense.

The undersigned will be pleased to give any further information on this subject desired.

Very respectfully,
ALBERT S. JONES,
Assistant Recorder and Secretary of National Rifle Association of America.

MISS NORA ANGEL LEAVES FOR PANAMA

On Monday evening last while heavy clouds hung low, and a dreary rain was falling, a storm party, gathering strength as it came, swept with irresistible force down Second street and broke with violence upon the hospitable home of Dr. Jno. G. Blount. The low barometer dampened not the spirits of the party, which burst with a gale of merriment into the bright cherry parlors and showered Miss Nora Angel with many dainty and lovely gifts, loving evidence of warm friendship from her old friends in Washington, to carry with her to her new home in Panama.

After a charming evening, the happy memory of which will linger with us, delicious refreshments were served and then another shower of good wishes and good-byes. Those present were: Misses Josephine and Fannie Whitney, Mayme Burbank, Mattie Laughinghouse, Bess and Margaret Boyd, Katie Bragaw, Mes. James John H. Small, John K. Hoyt, Stephen C. Bragaw, P. Pratt, and Caleb Bell. Miss Angel left yesterday for New York and on Monday sails for Panama on the S. S. Columbian. She goes to be with her brother, Mr. Creth Angel, who has been out there for the past eight years.

MISS ADDIE CHERRY WEDS MR. GEO. R. RADCLIFF

On last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Webb G. Cherry, who reside about three miles from this city on the Williamson road, was the scene of a very beautiful home wedding, when their daughter, Miss Addie, became the bride of Mr. George O. Radcliff, of Alberta, Canada. The bride wore a handsome going away gown, with hat and gloves to match. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. V. Hope, of this city.

Mr. John Carry, brother of the bride, was the groom's best man and Miss Rosa Cherry, sister of the bride, her maid of honor. The attendants were Miss B. Parisher and Miss Carman Warren.

Miss Cherry wore a handsome gown of white marquisette and Miss Parisher pink marquisette. Both carried exquisite bouquets of carnations. Immediately after the marriage the bride and groom drove to this city and boarded the Norfolk Southern for a visit to several cities, after which they will go to Alberta, Canada, their future home. They carry with them the best wishes of a numerous hosts of friends. The Daily News extends congratulations.

Christian Church.
The pastor of this church is to deliver his third sermon of the series on the "Life of Jesus" tomorrow morning at 11 a. m. His subject will be: "The Temptation of Jesus and Beginning of His Galilean Ministry." At night pastor Hope will use as a topic, "The Gospel Call." The Bible School meets promptly at 9.45 a. m. and every member of the school is urged to be present. Good music. Seats free.

JURY SAYS JOHN R. GIBBS IS NOT GUILTY OF CRIME

Verdict Returned Last Night. State Will Ask That Defendent be Confined in Asylum for Dangerous Insane.

John R. Gibbs has been cleared of the charge of murdering his son at his home in Bath, N. C., on June 3rd last. The jury received the case after the argument of counsel and the charge of the Court late yesterday afternoon. After being out about one hour they returned a verdict of not guilty—the jury believing that the defendant was insane at the time the act was committed. Immediately after the verdict had been returned the Solicitor gave notice that he would ask the court to send the prisoner to the asylum for the dangerous insane. This cause will be heard by Judge Lane next week. It is understood that the counsel for the defendant will make no protest as to this request. This case has been in progress for the past three days and attracted no little attention. The jury was addressed by Solicitor Eberlinghaus for the State and Messrs. Ward, Grimes and Stewart for the defense.

Jack Johnson Reported Killed

Wilwaukee, Wis., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Jack Johnson, the champion pugilist of the world, is reputed to have been shot in a hotel in this city last night, by the young white girl, whom it is alleged he recently kidnaped.

Johnson has had trouble with his wife over the girl and it is thought that she took sides with her mother, who by the way is a white woman, and in consequence attempted to avenge the wrong perpetrated recently by the pugilist in the home circle.

Up to the hour of going to press the Daily News was unable to verify the rumor.

Leaves for Western Markets.
Mr. B. L. Susman, president of the Washington Horse Exchange Co., left this morning on the Norfolk Southern for St. Louis, where he will purchase for his company a car load of young horses and a car load of young mules. This concern receives a car load of stock from West every week and are therefore better fitted to supply the trade with sound young horses than any other concern in Eastern Carolina.

Wednesday, October 30th, Hon. Francis D. Winston, at Aurora, at 8 p. m.
Wednesday, October 30, Hon. F. C. Harding, at Edwards at 7.30 p. m.
Thursday, October 31, Hon. John H. Small, at Chocowitzy, at 8 p. m.
LINDSAY C. WARREN,
Chairman Democratic Executive Committee Beaufort County.
10-19 to 20.

First Presbyterian Church
There will be the usual services at 11.00 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 4.00 p. m. The offering of the school will be for Sunday School Missions of Extension.

Service at County Home
Mr. William B. Harding will hold services at the County Home Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to be present and take part in the services.

WASHINGTON ENTERTAINS THE PARTY FROM STATE OF OHIO

Here Visiting the Fine Farming Lands. Given Informal Reception Last Night and Automobile Ride This Morning.

Washington last night and this morning entertained a party of eighteen, including four ladies, from the Western states, now touring Eastern Carolina, looking over the farming lands. The party arrived here yesterday afternoon, via the Norfolk Southern and were met at the station by a reception committee from the Chamber of Commerce and carried to the Hotel Louise, where they spent the night. After supper they were given an informal reception and smoker at the Elks Home, where quite a number of citizens called to pay their respects and extend to them cordial greetings.

At the reception Mr. W. M. Keaz, although a native of Ohio, but since his residence in Washington has been one of the city's energetic citizens, exhibited for the benefit of the visitors, products of this section raised and cultivated on the farm. Not only were the visitors amazed but even our own citizens were agreeably surprised. The exhibit showed conclusively that Eastern Carolina and especially Beaufort county cannot be surpassed by any section as an agricultural section.

Mr. Keaz gathered this fine and worthy exhibit early yesterday morning and that he did well goes without saying.

After the reception and informal greetings at the Elks Home the party returned to the hotel. This morning before leaving for Greenville, N. C., where they spend part of the day

Bites From Bragaw

Owing to a sudden change the weather is somewhat cooler and we can hear and feel in the softephyra from the north, whispers of the arrival of Jack Frost. He will come soon we know, for already he has visited many of our sister counties very fond of certain kinds of vegetables, especially peas and pepper. He's always trying to bite something and it does seem a bit strange that he never bites anything that tastes bad to him. I'll be gum swiped! If I wouldn't laugh sure, if I could see him when he bites that red pepper of Ma's. It will make him jump up and down I know, for Ma's pepper is half pea, and you all know what a warm taste that kind of pepper has I just bet a bite of Ma's pepper will warm him up for once anyway.

The Dixie Lumber Co., shipped their first car of boards from Bragaw today.

Mr. O. N. Gentry made a trip to Washington this morning.

Mr. H. B. Lawrence returned home this morning. She has been staying with her mother, who is very sick near Askins, N. C.

Messrs. Walter Edwards, Joseph Edwards, Walter Hill and others from near Haw Branch, were in our midst Sunday.

How-do ladies and feller politicians! Glad I have got a first rate chance to make a speech in behalf of Hon. Judge Walter Clark for the U. S. Senate. In the first place, to my way of thinking, Clark has got more what I call "political sense" than a whole country full of folks like Kitchin and Simmons—I got some sense, too, but my sense is not like Judge Clark's, for his is "political sense" and mine is "copper cents," but, as I started to say, a while ago, Clark is a man that does not resort to an abuse on either of his opponents. His campaign has been conducted with absolute quietness. He has attacked no man's character. But my good friends, just a side glance, at the campaign work of Clark's opponents will reveal the fact that each of them are making repeated attempts to expose those features of character that are not pleasant nor reliable. Why does Simmons resort to an abuse on Kitchin's past career? And why is Gov. Kitchin making repeated attacks on such parts of Simmons' administration as are not altogether pleasing? And again, why does Clark stand fearlessly before his "political adversaries" as it were and appeal to the intelligence, conducting his campaign without referring to either of his opponents in an abusive way? I ask the citizens of Beaufort county to consider these questions with honest intentions and after you have gotten the solution you will go to the ballot box on November 5th and vote for Clark.

Sales Satisfactory.

The Hummage Sale under the auspices of the Ladies Society of the Methodist church, on West Main St., and the sale of desserts in the Nicholson building today under the auspices of Ladies Aid Society of First Presbyterian church is one of the attractions in the city today. So far the result of both sales has been satisfactory.
