FIRST MOTOR BOAT RACE WITNESSED YESTERDAY BY GREAT MANY CITIZENS

F. A. Moss' Boat Was the Winner and M. A. Smith Was Second. There Was Four Contestants For The First Honors.

The first motor boat race of the season took place on Pamlico river yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Much interest centered in the contest and in consequence a large number of enthusiasts lined the wharves eagerly watching for the boats to pass, but alas none came, only one at a time. It was thought that all the boats would be on the start together, but this course was not followed and in consequence the race was over and of an end before the spectators realized that there had been any race. The following is the time made by each respective boat:

First Lap—
Moss, 23.57.
Smith, 37.56.
Pratt, 26.35.
Fuller, 17.10.

Second Lap—
Moss, 23.56.
Smith, 39.49.
Pratt, 37.97.
Fuller, 18.53.

Total Time—
Moss, 47.53.

Smith, 38.46.
Pratt, 53.42.
Fuller, 36.02.

Miles per hour—
Moss, 12.53.
Smith, 16.73.
Pratt, 11.17.
Fuller, 16.07.

The course was ten miles. The start was made at the county bridge and ended at the Norfolk Southern Railway bridge. The judges were: Captain Samuel Baker, of the yacht Thetis; Mr. F. C. Kugler, president of the Kugler Lumber Company, and Captain C. L. Morton, of the Naval Militia. The official time-keeper was Mr. A. L. Quells, of Woodbury, N. J. Each boat had a proper handicap of time.

Pratt's boat left the starting point first, Moss was second, Smith third and Fuller fourth.

The spectators enjoyed the occasion to the greatest extent and their earnest request is that the participants repeat the program again at an early date?

BITTER DISAPPOINTMENTS

Allies Peace Terms Are Now Rejected by the Turks

Constantinople, Nov. 22.—The Ottoman government has rejected the terms offered by the allied Balkan nations. Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, has been ordered to resume operations.

The official announcement of the rejection of Bulgaria's terms read: "The Porte, finding the Bulgarian conditions for an armistice unacceptable has ordered Nazim Pasha to resume military operations."

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 22.—The Turkish cruiser Hamidieh is reported to have been blown up by Bulgarian torpedoes near the port of Varna, on the Black Sea.

No confirmation of the report has been received by the war office.

Constantinople, Nov. 22.—In an attack on the Turkish cruiser Hamidieh in the Black Sea this morning two Bulgarian torpedo boats are asserted to have been sunk and two other torpedo boats badly battered. The Hamidieh is said to have escaped practically without damage.

Vienna, Nov. 22.—The terms offered to Turkey by the Balkan nations are neither in form nor in substance uncompromising, according to information derived from an authoritative source in Sofia.

They even leave the door open to eventual modifications by negotiation so that it may be assumed Turkey will accept them and a truce will be brought about.

Emperor Francis Joseph expressed his admiration at the way the Bulgarian troops had behaved during the war, in the course of a speech to the Hungarian delegates at a banquet last evening. On the other hand, however, his majesty declared he could not understand why the fortunes of war were so unfavorable to the Turks.

Referring to the dispatch of an Austro-Hungarian consular official to investigate the situation at Prighepa that the reports published regarding the Serbian treatment of the Austro-Hungarian consul there would prove exaggerated and that the incident would be settled peacefully.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Nov. 22.—"All statements about selections for the cabinet may be disregarded until I make the announcement myself," declared President-elect Wilson last night, when he was told of the reports published in the United States.

Governor Wilson said he had not offered or intimated an offer of a position in his cabinet to any one. William J. Brady, it was learned yesterday, has not been invited to Bermuda, and it is said he is not expected here during Mr. Wilson's stay.

President-elect Wilson is thoroughly enjoying his sojourn here. He spends much of his time driving and exploring.

Lieut. Gen. Sir George Mackworth Bullock, governor and commander-in-chief of Bermuda, returned Mr. Wilson's visit this afternoon.

Waycross, Ga., Nov. 22.—"I have not conferred with Governor Wilson since the election, and have never discussed with him, at any time, or any person in connection with any office, and I have no intention of going to Bermuda."

This answer was made last night by William J. Bryan in response to numerous messages regarding reports today that he proposed to visit the President-elect in connection with a cabinet appointment.

"The public knows that Governor Wilson has gone to Bermuda to rest and that he is not selecting a cabinet," added Colonel Bryan. "They ought to let him do the selecting and not spend their time in guessing. If they do guess, I see no reason why I should spend my time discussing their guesses."

Colonel Bryan, accompanied by his wife, is en route to Miami, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

CHRISTIAN CONVENTION ADJOURNED YESTERDAY

Rev. Robert V. Hope, Mrs. W. T. Hudnell, M. A. Davis, W. H. Stancill, George W. Freeman, R. F. Freeman, Mrs. L. L. Lancaster and Mrs. J. L. Warren have returned from Farmville, N. C., where they have been attending the State Missionary Convention this week. Rev. Mr. Hope says that the convention was the largest and very best in the history of the church. The convention adjourned yesterday afternoon to meet next year in the City of Asheville. This will be the first time the convention has ever met in Western Carolina. A movement was launched to raise a one hundred thousand dollar endowment fund for the Atlantic Christian College at Wilson. Mr. Hope says the citizens of Farmville treated them royally. Everything points to a great year during 1913.

ARRESTED FOR VIOLATING U. S. POSTAL LAWS

Washington, Nov. 22.—Results compiled today by the division of inspection of the Postoffice Department indicate that the country-wide raid made yesterday on persons charged with misusing the mails was remarkably successful.

Telegrams are being received hourly from additional arrests, but all of the divisional offices have not completed their reports.

At noon today the names, addresses and records of one hundred and forty-two individuals arrested had been compiled. Of these, ninety-nine were men and forty-three women.

Forty-two business concerns, of more or less commercial importance, were included in the official reports thus far received, approximately fifty representatives of the concerns having been arrested.

A large majority now have indictments pending against them.

Mrs. R. L. Frazer, of Washington, was arrested today charged with violating the postal laws in connection with the subject of yesterday's raids.

JAKEVILLE ATOMS.

All ladies wear skirts. All skirts are hobbie skirts. Therefore, all ladies wear hobbie skirts.

The foregoing little syllogism was made at home, on a cold night—by a lightwood knot fire, and must be taken at its face value.

Frosty nights and bright skies—you looking up at the stars and the 'possums looking down at you. Bully times in the country when the frosty fall weather comes on and Mr. Frosty climbs the simmon tree, and you climb all the fences in the neighborhood before bed time. Now, what do you think of it, Mr. Town Jake?

A lady's age and a horse's age are hard things to get at. Who has not seen saintly and angelic ladies who, after all, were a little uncertain on this point? And whoever saw a horse trader but what would lay his hand on the Bible, look up to the stars, and swear in a loud voice that a horse was only seven years old, when he knew he was fifteen?

Don't compliment me, Edward. You said you "must compliment" me; say hereafter you "mustn't." I don't like compliments I don't want to be complimented. This is why I have never said or done anything remarkable—don't want folks saying silly things about me. Dangerous. Folks been running after compliments till you can't find more than one in ten that hasn't got a protuberance on his head that looks like a cancer. It is cancer, too; and it's eating up common sense and puffing up with vanity. I see great possibilities before me—bright things I might do, but I refrain; had rather be an ordinary unimportant chap so I can keep out of "the maddening crowd." No, no compliments. Want you friendship, love to talk to you, and want you to write real often and become a star of first magnitude in this brilliant constellation. Lots of fun, I tell you, to come in these cold nights, after a hard day's work, and settle

The condition of Mrs. T. W. Phillips is reported to be not so well today. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Phillips is one of Washington's highly esteemed and popular citizens.

WILSON WILL NAME HIS OWN CABINET

Hamilton, Bermuda, Nov. 22.—"All statements about selections for the cabinet may be disregarded until I make the announcement myself," declared President-elect Wilson last night, when he was told of the reports published in the United States.

A MARKED VICTIM OF THE DYNAMITERS TELLS STORY

Miss Mary Dye Says That John McNamara Forced An Entrance Into Her Room to Find Certain Papers.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—Miss Mary C. Dye, a stenographer, whom witnesses had said was marked for murder by James B. McNamara, the Los Angeles Times dynamiter, because she worked for the iron workers' union and "knew too much," testified at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial yesterday. She asserted she had been followed by detectives and on one occasion one of the McNamara brothers had forced an entrance to her room at a hotel to search for papers which he desired to destroy.

Miss Dye identified hundreds of letters introduced by the government to sustain its contention that Frank M. Ryan, president of the union, and the forty other defendants conspired to transport explosives illegally in furtherance of dynamite plots against non-union firms. The letters were written by John J. McNamara, secretary of the union.

The witness testified she quit the employ of the iron workers before the Los Angeles explosion, but she had written many letters which the Government charges were in furtherance of earlier explosions.

"Soon after I left, a boy at the door of my room in a hotel, at midnight, called out he had a telegram," said Miss Dye, "but when I opened the door John J. McNamara, much excited, forced himself in. He demanded certain papers of which I knew nothing. Then he searched my baggage and departed. In going over letters at the office I had seen a letter in which it was stated that somebody was going to 'snitch,' or give away information, unless money was forthcoming."

The government contends that the informant referred to was Herbert S. Hockin, who is now on trial, and that Hockin had already told of the hiding of nitro-glycerine at Rochester, Pa., and at Muncie, Ind.

On his flight back from Los Angeles, after causing the explosion there, James B. planned to have Miss Dye put to death and wanted Frank Eckhoff, of Cincinnati, to do it, according to Eckhoff's testimony. Eckhoff said he refused to carry out the plot, but he followed Miss Dye to Pittsburgh, where she went to live.
