SATURDAY, DEC. 7, 1912.

A detective who climbed two hundred feet in the air to arrest a steep-jack ought to rise rapidly in his chosen profession.

The French telegraph department refuses to recognize Esperanto. Few people do on sight.

This is an age of speed mania. Even the seasons fly by with accelerated pace.

Even a poor man can possess the riches of health.

Eating lunch every day in ten minutes is another form of speed mania that is responsible for many deaths.

That St. Paul woman who wrote a novel with her toes certainly handled her subject with a good understanding.

Some men are born liars, some have to be for a living, and some lie because their wives are too inquisitive.

When there are so many great men and women in the country it makes us few common people feel awfully lonely.

Some women pay more attention to their dogs than they do to their husbands, but then maybe the dogs grow less.

A woman in Washington was married eleven years and never told it. This shatters another long-cherished tradition.

Another defective golf ball has broken into print by exploding, but as a rule it is the defective golfer who is explosive.

Food supplies are to go through the mails, and the cancellation of stamps on packages of eggs should be conducted gently.

"People could live on half the food they eat now," says a physician. Also perhaps we could get along with half as many doctors.

Scientists claim they have discovered the germ of measles by experiments on apes. But measles is not a thing to monkey with.

We are objects to the dog's having his day if he wears a muzzle.

What has become of the old-fashioned orator who made the welkin ring?

Every time an aviation meet does not kill anybody congratulations are in order.

The summer romances will have their happy sequels in the autumn weddings.

Japanese feminine fashions have remained unchanged for 2,500 years. Happy Japan!

Our notion of complete and utter futurity is to say "by-by" to a six-week-old infant.

Go swimming while the swimming is good.

Looks as if summer has returned from its vacation.

Putting it mildly, summer has been very lenient with us this year.

Once in a while summer remembers the address as well as the telephone number.

Hay fever about this time of year ceases to be a theory and becomes a condition.

"Listen to your wife," advises a medical expert. But what if you really need the sleep?

What will our courts do without that garrulous ancient mariner, the hypothetical question?

Some magazine might make a hit by putting the picture of a girl in a bathing suit on its cover.

The new nikado has only one wife. This may be taken as an indication that he does not care for war.

"BUY IT AT HOME"

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Halbrook returned last evening from their bridal tour. They are boarding with Mrs. Halbrook's mother, Mrs. R. F. Shelton, on West Second street.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardul.

Meets, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly get up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well. One day, I decided to try some Cardul. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life. The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardul will do for sick women. A few doses of Cardul at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness. It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardul. Suppose you try it. It may be just the medicine you need."
