MONDAY, JAN. 27, 1913.

Congressman Small made an able speech in defense of the $809,000 appropriation for improving inland waterways between Norfolk and Albemarle Sound.

Waterways are coming into their wn, and will play a notable part in future commerce of the country The biggest thing which ever happento New Orleans in a commercial why was the discovery how to deep-en the channel of the Mississeni.

Some years ago there was a boat the "Old Dominion," which maintain ed a regular schedule between this city and Norfeln.

Mest of us will live to sea the day when vessels will ply regularly between this city and Norfolk, and without passing anywhere within range of Cape Hatteras either.

When this comes to pass it will be the biggest thing commercially that over happened to Washington.

Robbing the Home

The dust in houses robs the vitality of the strong and so weakens the delicate as to allow diseases to often attack and sometimes destroy that life which might otherwise have continued on through its alloted three score years and ten. Therefore in speaking of the death the scientist would say its the parents

Catalpa speciosa makes quick growth sometimes. It comes out very inte, has a leaf like a paim leaf fan and is not pleasing in the winter.

Therefore we most heartily recommend the Japanese poplar as the best of all quick growing trees.

CIVIC PRIDE.

The autumn days go driftin' by at Poblick on the Crick.
The branches stand forth bare where once the leaves were green and thick.
And, though we miss the music and the blossoming so fair.
The campaign speaker tries to make us all forget our care.
He tells us of the duty that we owe our fellogumen.
And one man in particular he mentions now and then.
He sort of tries to make us discontended with our lot.
