

Weather: Fair with Killing Frost

BASEBALL AND DRAMATICS THE ORDER OF THE DAY

Mr. W. M. Shaw of the Elizabeth City High School is here with his team of heavy ball players from that town, who will do their level best to wrest victory from the Washington High team this afternoon. The game will be called at Fleming Field promptly on the stroke of 2:30 this afternoon. Admission is 15 and 25 cents.

While it is not known exactly what Elizabeth City has in store to go against us, Washington has every reason to feel more at ease tonight, looking from a glance at today's lineup, as published in yesterday's paper.

Cast of Characters

- C. Crotchet (A retired merchant, sick in the spleen) . . . Paul Simpson
- B. Frizzo (A barber, addicted to punning and scraps) . . . Charlie Weeks
- Dr. G. Linton (A practical physician troubled with patients) . . . Earl Williams
- L. Staple (A young merchant, subject to bashfulness) . . . Angus MacLean
- Clarence (A student inclined to ale) . . . Dan Lee Simmons
- John Henry (A man-servant, complaining of nothing to do) . . . Jack Oden
- J. Seizer (A constable, used to take away bad effects) . . . Charles Merriman
- Mrs. Crotchet (An invalid, ill with nervousness) . . . Leonora Mount
- Daisy (Her daughter) . . . Cassie Martin
- Billy (Her niece) . . . Dorothy Brown
- (Both affected with a disease of the heart, called love.)
- Dorothy (A maiden aunt, afflicted with deafness, knitting, and a poodle dog) . . . Elise Ballard
- Betty (A maid-servant, suffering out of sympathy for Frizzo) . . . Bertha Stanton

Time—The present.
Scene—London and suburbs.

- Act I—The Invalid at Home.
- Act II—A Barber's Scraps.
- Act III—A Lover's Link.
- Act IV—A Sure Cure.

Admission: Adults, 25c.; children, 15c.
Everybody invited to come and help a worthy cause.

LONG BESIEGED CITY FALLS AT LAST

London, March 23.—Adrianople has fallen after one of the most stubborn defenses in the history of warfare, and, Chatalla, according to a telegram received by the Bulgarian Legation in London, has suffered a like fate.

The information regarding Chatalla may refer to the town of that name and not to the line of fortifications, but as the allies have made just as determined an attack on Chatalla as they did on Adrianople it is possible that they have carried all before them.

Shakri Pasha, the defender of Adrianople, who held the town for 153 days against great odds, which included, besides the invading armies, disease and famine, handed his sword yesterday afternoon to Gen. Bayev, the Bulgarian Generalissimo—not, however, before carrying out his stern threat to destroy the town rather than let it fall into the hands of the Bulgarians.

From all accounts the arsenal and all the stores and a great part of the town are in flames.

ADDISCO CLUB MEETING PROVES DELIGHTFUL

The Addisco Club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon with Miss Maria Myers. A large number of ladies were present and the club had the pleasure of entertaining several visitors. The meeting was called to order promptly at 4 o'clock by the vice-president, Mrs. F. H. Rollins. After the usual business there was an extremely interesting paper on "Warfare, as Part of Britain, to the Sixteenth Century," by Mrs. W. B. Morton.

In view of the coming meeting in New Bern of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, two delegates were elected to represent the Addisco: Mrs. M. J. Payne and Miss Maria Myers. It is hoped that the club in a body will go over for one day. A most satisfying salad course was then served, and the ladies adjourned, thanking the hostess for another delightful afternoon.

TO DEBATE IMMIGRATION

Stanford University, Cal., March 23.—The exclusion from the United States of undesirable and unskilled immigrants from Southern and Southeastern Europe will be the subject of the third annual tri-State debate between the teams of the University of Oregon, Washington and Stanford tonight.

WOLGAST STARTS TRAINING

San Francisco, March 23.—Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion, who is to fight "Harlem" Tommy Murphy of New York next month, started training at the Ocean Beach today. A fortnight is more time for training than Wolgast usually gives to a match, but he realizes that it is necessary with Murphy as an opponent, he says.

MARCH 23 IN HISTORY

- 1802—Planet Pallas discovered.
- 1854—General Hull sentenced.
- 1861—Albert B. Kitzreded, former United States senator of South Dakota, born.
- 1874—John G. Whittier, Gen. Banks and Charles Francis Adams were among the candidates voted on to succeed United States Senator Chas. L. F. Sumner, of Massachusetts.
- 1903—Cuban Senate adopted amended reciprocity treaty with the United States.
- 1904—U. S. Senator J. R. Burton, of Kansas, convicted of accepting a bribe at St. Louis.
- 1904—Religious orders debarred from teaching in France.
- 1912—Talk of sulphurite coal strike in Pennsylvania.

IN BRG MEET

Princeton, N. C., March 18.—Yale, Columbia, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Harvard and all of the big colleges of the East will have representatives in the intercollegiate meet taking place here today. Yale has sent some of its best men who have done remarkable work this season and who say they expect to carry off most of the honors.

FIRST DANCE AFTER EASTER HELD IN ELKS HALL

The first dance of the season after Easter was given in the Elks Club last evening by some of the young men of Washington.

The affair was delightfully informal, only about 18 couples being upon the floor. Laughter and happy chatter could be heard from the Elks hall until long past midnight, when the orchestra declared it impossible to play longer. All present seemed to abandon themselves to the charms of congenial company and unobtrusive music, and as the couples spun round with the care-free joy of youth, no one was inclined to question if any dances ever before given in that hall had been so pleasing to the spectators or so enjoyed by those upon the floor.

The gowns of the young ladies, designed in the latest graceful mode in a variety of shades of red, blue, yellow, pink, rose, and other tints, made the scene look like a soft, ever-changing kaleidoscope of bits of colors of delicate colors.

The dance was peculiarly a dance of the younger set, many of the young ladies and their escorts being still in school. As such, it lacked the stiffness and formality which the presence of too many older dancers might have created.

The dance was led by Mr. John Smith with Miss Lizzie Hill, who led the dancers occasionally through a simple march.

The excellent music was furnished by the Forbes Orchestra.

Those dancing were: Miss Lizzie Hill with Mr. John Smith, Miss Rebecca Simmons with Mr. Bruce Whitely of Williamston, Miss Stella Phillips with Mr. Solby Jones, Miss Mabel Dalley with Mr. T. W. Rouse, Miss Elsie Kelly with Mr. Brevard Stephenson, Miss Margaret Gordon with Mr. Charles Meekins, Miss Annie Weston with Mr. James Weston, Miss Elizabeth Carrow with Mr. Fred Carrow of New Bern, Miss Halla Carrow with Mr. Green of New Bern, Miss Lucie of New Bern with Mr. Albert Willis, Miss Lucy Gulon of New Bern with Mr. Fred Moore, Miss Mildred Halloway with Mr. R. Fulford, Miss Kornegay with Mr. Joe Mayo, Miss Laura Branch with Mr. Frank McKee, Miss Elsie Harris with Mr. Louis Gardner, Miss Ella Lee Wright with Mr. Ellis Phillips, Miss Olivia Jordan with Mr. Charles Wright, Miss Helen Shaw with Mr. Bruce Hodges.

The chaperones were: Mrs. George A. Spencer, Mrs. L. E. Kidd, Mrs. E. J. Simmons, Mrs. H. H. Carrow, Mrs. J. B. Moore, Mrs. C. E. Jordan.

Thoughtful Buying Will Lower Your Cost of Living.

It has been laid down as economic law that lowered cost gained through simple change in supplying your wants carries with it no loss of pleasure in consumption.

This means you can often times lower your cost of living by thoughtful buying—for example: Mercerized silk serves the purpose of its users and gives as much pleasure as the more expensive kind. A sewing machine stripped of its nickel plate and artistic finish (but with the same mechanism) costs less than the original article. A coat lined with cambrie costs less than one lined with high grade silk, yet the wear is practically the same.

You should think not only of what can be saved as between different articles and their uses, but as between different stores and buying seasons as well. Read the advertisements in The Daily News closely and constantly every day and they will help you keep your cost of living down to a minimum. They will direct you to the right store at the right time.

WEDDING BELLS FOR CAVALIERI

Detroit, March 23.—An air of expectancy is prevalent in Detroit today, and it will grow more intense as evening approaches, for tonight, it is reported that Madame Cavalleri, opera singer, ex-wife of "Bob" Chanler, the New York politician and alleged schemer of no end of wealthy admirers, will wed Lucien Muratore, the French tenor of her company at the Detroit Light Guard.

The two artists have been touring several times that they were to become husband and wife.

Muratore is a famous tenor of the Paris opera. Madame Cavalleri is better known on this side of the Atlantic. Her last husband was Robert Winthrop Chanler, whose matrimonial experience with the beautiful song bird is reported to have cost him a fortune.

2 BILLION 310 Million, 500 Thousand Descendants of 2 Flies in 3 Months.

WARDSHIPS FACED BY SURVIVORS OF FLOOD

Dayton, Ohio, March 23.—All but a few of those hundreds of persons who have been marooned in the Co-watowa section of flooded Dayton since Tuesday morning, are safe. This was the news brought out late today by an Associated Press staff man, the first man to penetrate so far as North Miami river.

Except for possible loss of life on the north side of the river, there will not be more than 200 dead in Dayton, according to all estimates.

The worst condition found near the center of the flood was in the workhouse, where sixty prisoners have not had a drop of water nor a bit of food since Tuesday. The men revolted Tuesday night and demanded their liberty and a chance to fight for their lives. Since then the workhouse has been a mad-house according to Superintendent Johnson. The prisoners repeatedly fought with Johnson and threatened to kill both him and his family.

The dance was peculiarly a dance of the younger set, many of the young ladies and their escorts being still in school. As such, it lacked the stiffness and formality which the presence of too many older dancers might have created.

The dance was led by Mr. John Smith with Miss Lizzie Hill, who led the dancers occasionally through a simple march.

The excellent music was furnished by the Forbes Orchestra.

Those dancing were: Miss Lizzie Hill with Mr. John Smith, Miss Rebecca Simmons with Mr. Bruce Whitely of Williamston, Miss Stella Phillips with Mr. Solby Jones, Miss Mabel Dalley with Mr. T. W. Rouse, Miss Elsie Kelly with Mr. Brevard Stephenson, Miss Margaret Gordon with Mr. Charles Meekins, Miss Annie Weston with Mr. James Weston, Miss Elizabeth Carrow with Mr. Fred Carrow of New Bern, Miss Halla Carrow with Mr. Green of New Bern, Miss Lucie of New Bern with Mr. Albert Willis, Miss Lucy Gulon of New Bern with Mr. Fred Moore, Miss Mildred Halloway with Mr. R. Fulford, Miss Kornegay with Mr. Joe Mayo, Miss Laura Branch with Mr. Frank McKee, Miss Elsie Harris with Mr. Louis Gardner, Miss Ella Lee Wright with Mr. Ellis Phillips, Miss Olivia Jordan with Mr. Charles Wright, Miss Helen Shaw with Mr. Bruce Hodges.

The chaperones were: Mrs. George A. Spencer, Mrs. L. E. Kidd, Mrs. E. J. Simmons, Mrs. H. H. Carrow, Mrs. J. B. Moore, Mrs. C. E. Jordan.

MRS. BROOKS PASSES AWAY THIS MORNING

The city will learn with sorrow of the death of Mrs. E. L. Brooks, one of Washington's most popular and most accomplished ladies, who passed away this morning at her home on Market street.

For over a year Mrs. Brooks has been seriously ill. She was operated upon twice last summer at the Washington Hospital, and every possible measure has been employed to prolong her life, but it became evident of late that she was sinking rapidly, and this morning she succumbed to a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Brooks before her marriage was Miss Alma Sugg of Greenville, she being the daughter of the late Colonel I. A. Sugg of that place. About a decade ago, she was married to Mr. E. L. Brooks, then of Kingston. Not long after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Brooks moved from Kingston to Elizabeth City, and from the latter town here, where they have endeared themselves to a large number of friends. Mr. Brooks is a leading shoe merchant of Washington.

Mrs. Brooks leaves two little boys, Bayard and Earnest Brooks to mourn her, besides her husband, Mr. E. L. Brooks; a sister, Mrs. Jesse L. Clark of Elizabethtown; and three brothers, Messrs. B. D. Sugg, Julius Sugg, and Isaac Sugg; and many devoted friends.

No definite funeral arrangements have yet been made, but it is thought probable that the body will be taken to Greenville.

The Von Trippitz announcement, followed by Winston Churchill's declaration before the Commons yesterday, would seem to have fashioned a coffin for the bugaboo of war that has excited both nations for the past three years. It has been an enigma to the nation's most celebrated military men publishing a book declaring the conflict inevitable and putting forward a plan by which England must fall. England's superiority in Dreadnaughts being ignored for a strategy that called for the use of submarines and aeroplanes.

POPE IS WELL ENOUGH TO CELEBRATE MASS

Rome, March 23.—Pope Pius X. celebrated mass early yesterday morning, administering the communion to the household servants.

His physicians examined him before and after mass and expressed satisfaction with his condition, but advised him to be careful and to again postpone his collective audience.

It was then decided that the Pope shall receive some bishops next week Thursday, and on the next day give a collective audience.

The Observatore Romano, the Vatican organ, says that the Pope's health is not only satisfactory, but continues to improve, and he is now practically recovered, although he still needs a few days' rest.

The desire to "make up" in this manner is to look peculiar and brilliant.

(Continued on Page Two.)

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL vs. ELIZABETH CITY

Baseball--This Afternoon--3:30 P. M.--25c. Fleming Park.