GOOD REPORT OF CHARITY WORK HERE

A year has elapsed since the organization of the Associated Charities, and it has been deemed advisable to make a statement of the work done by this organization.

Forty-two families in all have received assistance; about one-half of these have received wood, coal, oil, gas, and groceries; and where necessary, medicine has been provided for the sick. The doctors have kindly given their services. In one instance only has a nurse been hired. Of these forty-two families, only one has received regular assistance; and this family consists of three women and one small child. Two of these women are confined invalids and the child is too young to work, which leaves but one wage-earner in the family.

In one case it was found necessary to pay burial expenses. In many cases clothing and shoes have been provided, particularly to children who would otherwise have been obliged to stay away from school. In one or two cases families have been helped where otherwise the children would have had to stop school and work for the support of the family. Mr. Newbold thinks keeping these children in school is worth something to the town.

The Crystal Ice Co. kindly contributed all the ice that has been given the sick, and Jas. E. Clark Co. contributed clothing, which has been a great help.

Aid has been given to families quarantined for smallpox. In a few cases house rent has been paid.

Of the fifty-two families helped, only five were colored.

The object of this Association being to help only the worthy poor, I have persistently refused assistance to all unworthy beggars. The society has been of great benefit to the city poor.

The funds at present are very low. The majority of the members have failed to renew their membership, but I feel sure they will do so when they realize the necessity of continuing this organization.

MISS RACHEL HUMLEY
Superintendent.

SMALL DEBATING SOCIETY HOLDS LIVELY MEETING

The John W. Small Debating Society met Thursday evening, April 2nd, 1914. The query for the debate was, "Resolved, that the Monroe Doctrine should be continued as a Permanent Policy of the U. S." The affirmative was ably upheld by James Fowle. The negative was battled for by Sam Fowle, Hubert Ellis and Jack Harris. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

There will be a public debate on commencement night at the school building. The query is, "Resolved, that the United States should enlarge Her Navy." Speakers on the affirmative were Hubert Weston, Jas. Fowle, Charles Meekins, and Hubert Ellis.

Those on the negative were: Jack Harris, Frances Charles, and Charles Proctor.

Admission free.

FULTNER SUES GAYNOR

New York, April 5.—The suit for libel instituted against Mayor Gaynor of this city by Ralph Fultner, owner of the New York World, is scheduled for a hearing today, but it is believed that a delay will be granted to the defendants. Mr. Fultner is suing the mayor because of attacks alleged to have been made against the name of his father by Mr. Gaynor. The mayor has been accused in more than one law suit during his administration, having recently had one withdrawn by Alderman Curran, after withdrawing the statements he made against Mr. Curran.

Miss Mary Tankard is expected home from Norfolk today. She will be accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Cox.

SUPT. NEWBOLD DESIGNS HIS POSITION

At a meeting of the Board of Education last night the resignation of Superintendent N. C. Newbold of the city schools was accepted.

This resignation was accepted with reluctance by the Board, the present superintendent having rendered most efficient service for over three years. Mr. Newbold, however, feels that he can do more effective work for the cause of North Carolina education by accepting the very flattering offer which he has repeatedly received from the State Board of Education at Raleigh. He is to be the Superintendent of Elementary Schools for the State, and in this capacity will have an opportunity to personally inspect schools in distant parts of the State and to make suggestions for improvement.

His resignation does not take effect until the close of the present school year, June 30.

FLOOD LOSSES IN OHIO ESTIMATED

Washington, D. C., April 5.—Ohio's loss in the recent flood was estimated last night in a telegram from the American Red Cross agent in charge at Columbus as follows:

- 460 lives lost.
- 4,300 homes destroyed.
- 40,000 persons homeless.
- 9,000 families outside of Dayton, Columbus and Cincinnati in need of rehabilitation.

It has been extremely difficult to get information, according to the agent, because wires are still down and transportation facilities uncertain.

"Emergency relief situation in each flooded district in Ohio being well covered," the telegram said. "Dayton, Columbus, Piqua, Troy, Ottawa, Sidney, Hamilton, Miamisburg, Middletown and Zanesville covered by Red Cross representatives. In these places information is being rapidly accumulated on which to base rehabilitation. We are pushing men into other flooded towns as fast as water subsides and we can get men, Col. Miller, chief quartermaster, reports need of underwear of all sorts, bedding and blankets."

AUSTRALIANS COMING FOR MATCH

Sydney, Australia, April 5.—The Australian lawn tennis team which will meet the American team in one of the preliminary ties for the Dwight F. Davis International lawn tennis challenge cup, called for the United States today on the steamship Ventura. This is in accordance with the expressed wish of the Americans that the matches be played in their country. Horace Rice replaces Anthony F. Wilding on the team, as the latter is unable to play. The other Australians are S. M. Doust and Campbell Jones.

The nations which will meet in the preliminary ties to decide a challenger for the cup are: United States vs. Australia, Germany vs. France, Canada vs. South Africa, and Belgium vs. U.S.

KING'S ORCHIDS ON VIEW

New York, April 5.—King George V. of England has entered an exhibit of orchids at the third international flower show of the Society of American Florists and Ornamental Horticulturists which opened here today in the Grand Central Palace. It is the first time that the products of the King's conservatories have been placed in competition outside of Great Britain. About $15,000 in cash prizes will be distributed.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH TOMORROW

There will be morning prayer and sermon at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, conducted by the rector, Rev. Nathaniel Harding.

The evening hour has been moved up to 8 o'clock, when services will be conducted by Rev. E. L. Moore of Lewisburg, who is a son of Rev. C. D. Malone of Chowchewy. The collection will go for the relief of the flood sufferers in the Middle West.

FIRST SALE FROM U. S. FOREST LAND

Washington, April 5.—The United States has made its first timber sale on the newly purchased Appalachian Forests, and the voucher that established the fact has been an object of interest in the hands of the officials of the Department of Agriculture who have had occasion to handle it.

The voucher itself does not show the character of the sale was, but inquiry has drawn forth the information that the material disposed of was $1 worth of logs, bought by a Georgia farmer to use in building a barn. This apparently insignificant transaction is regarded as a forerunner of the future when the government will be taking in a tidy revenue from the forest lands which it is now buying in the East.

These lands are being bought primarily to protect navigation. Congress held, in providing for their purchase, that the Constitution prohibits the government from buying lands for these eastern forests except at the headwaters of navigable rivers, and for the purpose of regulating streamflow and preventing the silting up of the channels of commerce. Yet the production of timber will also be made one of the objects of applied forestry as the government will practice it on these areas. The latest purchase, made last February, was of 75,000 acres in North and South Carolina and Georgia, on the headwaters of the Savannah River, and brought up the total which has been bought to 400,000 acres. Of this 320,000 acres are in the Southern Appalachians, and $0.00 in the White Mountains.

Not all of the land is well timbered now, for the government in many cases can not afford to pay the value of land and heavy timber together. Consequently most of the land acquired has been culled or cut over or else is sold to the government with the right to cut and remove the timber under methods prescribed by the Forest Service. In this case, sales of material will doubtless be made from time to time, and will increase in number and value as improved forests grow on these areas under the stimulus of proper forest management and protection from fire.

FUNERAL OF MR. CRUMPLER TOMORROW

The funeral of Mr. W. J. Crumpler has been announced for tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Christian Church. It will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. V. Hope.

Read What James J. Hill Says About Women Shoppers:

Every woman tries to get the best value for her money. That is natural and proper, but the indiscriminate hunt for bargain spells trouble.

"The tendency of the average woman," says James J. Hill, "is to buy everything as cheaply as possible. That is the worst kind of economy. It is difficult to convince a housewife of this fact; but when she once realizes it she is on the true road to making money. The same principle that governs a railway in buying steel rails ought to govern the housewife in her purchase of beefsteak—not how cheap, but how good."

"Not how cheap, but how good for the price." Read the advertisements of the merchants who advertise in The Daily News with that in mind and your purchase will give every satisfaction.

The best is the cheapest.

GOTHAM NEWS AND GOSSIP IN BRIEF

New York, April 5.—Whatever untimely reputation New York City may have gained throughout the country as a result of the police scandals, certainly the great metropolitan has commended itself to the world at large by its warm-hearted response to the appeals for aid from the stricken cities of the West and Middle West. Although the unfortunate cities have begun their plans of rehabilitation rather committees were today working as hard to raise funds as they did when the appeals were first received in New York.

One remarkable feature of the work done by the committee on relief in New York has been the care exercised in sending articles of wearing apparel. The citizens of New York, in answer to special requests, have sent only clean clothing and this has been made thoroughly sanitary before being shipped to the flood victims, to avoid any possible spread of disease.

The Great White Way is in sackcloth and ashes. The Mayor's order to put the lid on "gazzling" went into effect Tuesday evening, and although a few restaurants are trying to find ways to evade the new order, they are tame and harmless. Every one who ever had a vish ravigote or a Long Island rarebit or a lobster Newberg, or some eggs imperial, after gazing upon a musical comedy, a solo-show or a grand opera, is wondering just what will happen to the Great White Way. The order to close all places where drinks were served at one o'clock was bad enough, but now, Oh, how could his honor say that folks who frequented such places after midnight were, as a rule, not decent and gizzlers! Ah, it is too much!

For the purpose of gaining a hearing for "quiet plays" which often fail before the public has learned of their unobtrusive merits, the Drama Society has been incorporated in New York by a number of prominent society women and persons of literary distinction.

The directors are persons who have had some experience as actors, playwrights, critics or directors of welfare clubs. They will enlist an initial membership of about 500, who will pledge themselves to attend plays recommended by the society and to "boost" them to their friends if you please.

The incorporators are Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. E. R. Hewitt, Mrs. Philip Lydig, Mrs. Frederick B. Platt, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Egerton L. Winthrop, Jr., Mrs. Geo. T. Haven, Jr., John Corbin, Walter P. Eaton, Archer M. Huntington, Thomas W. Lamont and Robert Perkins.

The newest thing next to the School of Mother Craft is the Baby Garden. The idea is still in its swaddling clothes, but it is expected to grow and develop under the careful guidance of Mrs. Alvia Levitas, a graduate of Teachers' College. The baby garden is intended for the baby of the professional woman who must go to business every day, and who has no one to leave her children with except a nurse girl. It is to come between the day nursery and the nursery of the rich who can employ a trained nurse.

Mrs. Alvia Levitas, a graduate of Teachers' College, and she lives in the model Vanderbilt apartments at Seventy-eighth street and East River. She says that her idea solves a long-felt want among business women, for when a woman must go to business, whether she is a doctor, lawyer, actress, teacher, journalist or private secretary and stenographer, if she has children to support, her days are incessantly clouded with anxiety about her children.

Foot-Coney Island is to be returned again. Not by the missionaries and the sober-garbed coterie of men and women who stand on the corners and sing hymns, deliver addresses and pass the hat around. But Coney is going to be returned by business men whose idea it is to introduce amusement features of a high class throughout the season, joined with special features from

EXPLOSIVES BEING USED BY WOMEN

London, April 4.—Two girls suspected of being militant suffragettes about to commit an outrage were arrested before dawn yesterday morning. They carried bags containing paraffin, paper saturated with oil, candles, matches, etc. In each of the bags was a paper bearing the scrawl, "Beware how you treat Mrs. Pankhurst."

The girls when brought up at the police court gave their names as Phyllis Brady and Millicent Dean. They explained to the policeman who arrested them that they were returning from their Easter holidays.

Warnings were sent out today by the directorates of all the railroad systems in the United Kingdom to the effect that militant suffragettes had threatened to burn stations in various parts of the country. Patrols will be stationed at all stations and in tunnels.

Some empty trains were derailed near Stockport, Cheshire, in the course of the night, and suffragettes are suspected of having committed the outrage.

A canister of explosive had been placed under a seat in one of the cars with a quantity of fire lighters saturated with resin and oil. The force of the explosion splintered several cars. There was also an attempt during the night to blow up Oxford station, in Surrey, on the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway, but the damage caused by the explosion was inconsiderable.

A traveling basket was found in a lavatory containing an elaborately devised infernal machine timed to go off at 3 a. m. and explode a charge of gun-powder and several cans of gasoline. Apparently the gun-powder exploded without igniting the petrol. A revolver was found which apparently had been dropped during a hurried flight.

CARD PARTY GIVEN BY MRS. MOSS

Mrs. Beverly Moss delightfully entertained the younger set at a card party last evening. The entire affair was most enjoyable, and every guest thanked their charming hostess for an exceedingly pleasant evening.

They are also working to improve the appearance of the resort in decorations and other ways. All of this is to take place before the formal opening next month.

It has been decided to open the Island earlier than usual this season and to put this through there will be a three days spring carnival, running from May 15 through May 17. This will resemble the Mardi Gras, to which many of the island's business men are opposed on account of features that aroused criticism.

It is planned to make Surf Avenue a Great White Way by stringing electric lights across the street which will probably be kept in position all the year round. There will be nautical and other decorations and music.

Aeroplane flights, baby shows, swimming contests and competitions of other kinds will be weekly events in different parts of the resort.

The change in the attitude of public sentiment toward Dr. Friedman, the German specialist on tuberculosis, has been remarkable. When he first arrived in New York he was regarded with extreme skepticism, if not suspicion. He has worked under great difficulty had constant criticism, but physicians who have been following his treatment which he claims positively cures tuberculosis declare that he has won greater confidence by his persistence, than he could have accomplished by answering the attacks against him. It seems to be the general opinion that one who had not faith in his remedies would not have continued their use so persistently. So New York and the government of the United States may, after all, accept Dr. Friedman for what his friends say he is worth, with proportionate esteem for his discovery.

LOCAL GUN CLUB TAKES ON NEW LIFE

The Washington Gun Club took a new lease on life at a meeting last evening in the drug store of Worthy & Etheridge.

Mr. F. S. Worthy was elected president, Mr. R. D. Kear secretary, and Mr. P. P. Maxwell field manager. A prosperous future is predicted by all the members.

Shooting will be confined exclusively to members of the club. The only exception to this rule is in respect to the ministers of Washington, who were elected, as it were, honorary members of the club, and will be permitted, and cordially invited, to come out and shoot as much as they desire without the payment of dues. The old grounds will be used, but a new trap has been ordered.

It is planned to have a tournament in the summer, and negotiations will be commenced with various trap shooting associations.

BASEBALL

The "fans" can skip and about a rounder, with baseball just a few short days away.

The Tri-State League, now a six-club, has raised the salary limit from $1,600 to $1,800. The season will open on April 30 and close on Labor Day.

Scott, a young shortstop of the Boston Red Sox, has been "farmed out" to the Indianapolis club, of the American Association.

Ernie Johnson, a youngster, tried at shortstop by the Chicago White Sox last fall, has been loaned to the Los Angeles club, of the Pacific Coast League.

Joe Taylor, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, and Charles Nichols, once manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, are featured.

George Stovall, manager of the St. Louis Browns, says he will have a time clock installed in his clubhouse, and the players will have to punch the time of their arrival and departure.

APRIL 5 IN HISTORY

- 1856—Constitution of the new State of Utah established.
- 1908—Sir Henry Campbell-Bennet resigned as Premier of Great Britain.
- 1910—Socialists carried the Milwaukee Municipal election. Transcandinavian railway tunnel, linking China and the Argentine Republic, was formally opened.
- 1911—Message by President Taft urging the approval of Canadian reciprocity was read in both houses of Congress.
- 1912—Reported in New York that Gen. Fred D. Grant was seriously ill of cancer of the throat, but rumor was denied.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH TOMORROW

At 11 a. m. the pastor will preach on "Charity," and administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The monthly offering for the poor will be made.

Sunday school will meet at 4 o'clock.

"The Armored Christian" will be the theme of the evening discourse at 8 o'clock, the usual spring and summer hour. The pastor especially desires to see a large attendance of church and Sunday school members at all of these services, and cordially invites strangers and visitors.

REPUBLICANS TO CAUCUS

Washington, April 5.—The Republican regulars in Congress hold their caucus today. They will select Representative Mann of Illinois as the choice of their faction for Speaker of the House, although this is only a matter of form, since Champ Clark will be the Speaker. The Republican conference is a closed session, contrary to the arrangement of the Progressives who admitted the public to their caucus held last Wednesday.

WILSON'S POLICY IS ABSOLUTE PUBLICITY

Washington, April 5.—President Wilson has been trying to find a way to get in touch with the Washington newspaper men. He is not seeking advertisement but wants to keep the channels between himself and the press open. He prefers that the public should have the truth rather than garbled accounts. His purpose is to give out all news. His Private Secretary, J. P. Tumulty, keeps open door. Any newsgatherer can go to him.

The President has adopted the plan of seeing the correspondents, about 250 of them, twice a week—Monday morning and Thursday afternoon.

At two conferences Mr. Wilson lectured the scribes as a school teacher would his class. That did not work well. The representatives of the press wanted news, or views.

The President did not hit the right lick with the newspaper men yesterday, when he saw them and announced that he was ready for all comers with questions.

"Who will shoot first?" said the President, as the 250 or more press representatives gathered about him.

"Don't all shoot at once."

President Wilson was in a bantering mood; his face wore a mischievous smile.

To questions he answered: "I am here as the agent of the Democratic party; I will carry out the party pledges. I hope that the extra session of Congress will be devoted to a few important matters."
