ENJOYABLE EVENING SPENT AT WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

CORNELIAN CLUB GIVES BANQUET TO SENIOR CLASS

LARGE NUMBER PRESENT

Besides Members of the Senior Class and the Cornelian Club, There Were Present Members of the Faculty, Officers of Other Classes, Members of the Debating Society and Others.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the Cornelian Club of the Washington High School for the splendid banquet which they rendered to the Senior Class last night. The function was held in the large Kindergarten room of the school, which had been appropriately and attractively decorated for the occasion.

The participants of the banquet, besides the members of the Senior Class and the Cornelian Club, consisted of the officers of the other classes, members of the debating society and the faculty. All assembled in the school hall and went down stairs to the banquet hall, lead by Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Newbold. Before sitting at the tables, everyone joined in singing the school anthem.

A dainty repast, consisting in part of salad, olives, crackers, ice cream, coffee and grape juice was served. The members of the Cornelian Club made very pretty and attractive waitresses. The banquet was heartily enjoyed.

After the repast, speaking was in order. Mr. Newbold, who acted as toast master for the occasion, made a very appropriate introductory address and then called for responses to the different toasts of the evening.

We would like very much to publish the remarks of the various speakers of the evening in detail, but unfortunately lack of space prohibits us from doing this. The responses were exceedingly good and would have done credit to the most accomplished after dinner speakers. The list of toasts proposed and the names of those who responded are as follows:

1. The Cornelian Club—Miss Josie McCuller, president of the club.
 2. The Class of 1913—Bruce Hodges, president of the class.
 3. To Our High School—M. A. Higgins, principal of the school.
 4. To our Athletic Association—Samuel Fowle, president.
 5. To our High School Teachers—David Smith.
 6. Our Institution, The Washington Public Schools—James Fowle.
 7. To Our Superintendent—Proposed by Miss Estelle Davis.
 8. Our Debating Society—John C. Taylor, president of the society.
 9. The Board of School Trustees—Charles Meekins.
 10. To Our Meeting Again—Miss K. Bank.
- The evening ended with a brief closing address by Superintendent Newbold. The guests departed at about half past eleven.
- The members of the Cornelian Club wish to express their sincere thanks to Miss M. L. Kelly who so ably helped them in making the affair the success that it was.

FIND ABANDONED BABY BOY ON PORCH IN WHARTON

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Allgood Awakened, by Cries of Infant, Who Had Been Abandoned and Left on Their Porch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Allgood of Wharton found a baby boy on the front porch of their residence last night. They were awakened at about eleven o'clock by someone knocking on the front door. Allgood went to the window and asked what was wanted. As he saw no one in the porch, who asked him if he desired another man to work for him. He replied that he did not and told them to get away from the house.

He went back to bed again, but a few minutes later, just as he was doing off, he was startled to hear the cries of a baby, evidently coming from the front of the house. He made his way downstairs, opened the door, and found, on the steps of the porch, a lusty baby boy. He searched about the grounds surrounding the house but could find no clues or trace of anyone else in the neighborhood. He carried the child inside and Mrs. Allgood put it to bed.

The baby is in sound health and a very pretty child. It has evidently been abandoned by its parents. Mr. Allgood states that he will try his best to find a good home for it, but if he fails to do this, will be forced to send it to the poor house.

MAYOR-ELECT GIVES VIEWS ON PROPOSED ISSUANCE

TAX RATE NOT TO ADVANCE

States Reason Why the Board of Aldermen Did Not Ask for a Larger Appropriation of Bonds for Improving Water and Sewer Systems.

Mayor-elect F. C. Kugler, in an interview with a representative of the Daily News, today gave his views regarding the bond issue election which will be held next Tuesday.

"I would like to explain," said Mr. Kugler, "the reason why we are not asking for a larger appropriation at this time. Some of the voters in the city evidently fear that the $150,000 of the $150,000 which is to be devoted to the water system and sewerage, will not be sufficient to complete the work properly."

"The tax valuation of the city is about two and one half million dollars. Usually, bonding companies ask as to the taxable valuation of a town and the sale of the bonds is dependent, to some extent, upon this valuation. Usually it is mighty hard to dispose of bonds if a city is bonded for more than ten or fifteen percent of the total tax valuation. Washington already has outstanding bonds in the neighborhood of $144,000, and adding to this the amount of the contemplated issue, it would bring the amount to about $294,000. This amount is several thousand dollars above the ten per cent limit. Consequently, anyone can see why the Board of Aldermen were a little embarrassed in asking for a larger issue."

"We have no fear that the valuation of property will be advanced in taxable value on account of the proposed increase in the bonds of the city. We are also quite sure that even if $150,000 will not reach as far as we hope, that we will have no trouble in finishing the work by an additional smaller issue later."

"This city must make a start. To do this we must have the money. When we look at the advancement of our sister town, we are satisfied that the good people of Washington have too much pride to go backward."

"This work will never be done cheaper than it can be done at the present time, and we believe it should be done now before any more pavement is put down or other improvements made which would render it more expensive to do the work at a later date. I am sure that the present Board of Aldermen will use the money and funds in their hands with the greatest judgment."

A Word to the Storekeeper.

What kind of advertising are the manufacturers whose goods you handle doing for you?

Are they advertising merely to create a DESIRE for their products?

Or are they really trying to create a DEMAND?

General publicity may create desire for an article, but the only kind of advertising that benefits the retailer is the kind that creates demand—the kind that brings customers direct to the store.

The one effective way of linking the retail store with nationally distributed merchandise is to use daily newspaper space.

You Mr. Retailer, understand the value of newspaper advertising.

Next time you talk with a manufacturer who wants to help you sell his goods through advertising tell him what you THE DAILY NEWS and other good newspapers.

DON'T BE A KICKER

Did you ever realize that the greatest kicker in the world is a Jackass? Did it ever dawn on you that this is just as true of THE TWO LEGGED KICKER as of the four legged one?

For example, who could be a more perfect jackass than the man who kicks about his own town?

The ass kicks because he is built that way, and the man kicks because he is built the same way.

The ass usually has something to kick at, but the man often kicks about nothing at all.

Get out of the kicking habit and be a booster.

It pays—pays the individual and pays the community. Wouldn't you rather live in a GOOD town than a POOR one? All right, then; help to make your town a good one. Talk it up, arouse the town spirit. GET EVERYBODY TO BOOSTING.

Anybody can kick, but it takes a good man to boost. Be a good citizen! Get the habit!
