MORTGAGE SALE.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed dated January 27, 1912, and registered in the Register's Office of Beaufort County in book 166, page 265, which mortgage deed was executed by Nancy Purser and Garfield Purser to the undersigned, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House door in Beaufort County, at 12 o'clock noon, on Monday the 26th day of May, 1913, the following described land:

and north side of the Dragon road. Beginning in Alonza Mackey's line at the lead ditch, running Westwardly to James Barrores first cross ditch, thence with cross ditch northwardly with Barrores line and road to the lead ditch and with the lead ditch to the beginning.

Default having been made in the debt secured by said mortgage deed, sale is made to satisfy same.

This the 24th day of April, 1913.
J. C. MAYO, Mortgagee.

Rest Before Eating.
In the first place, never come to table with a mind full of worries and troubles or in an irritable state of temper. When you do, you should try to eat when very fatigued. Both these states tend to diminish the blood supply to the digestive organs and therefore to hinder digestion. Do not read or study when eating, but also do not sit gaily silent. A little pleasant conversation is helpful and prevents one getting into the obnoxious and dangerous habit of bolting one's food. Masticate your food thoroughly. The preservation of the teeth depends largely on the use of misure of them at meal times. Try to eat a little more than you need. They must be given plenty of work to do. Also in order that your meals may be properly digested they must be well masticated. Especially in this piecey in the case of farinaceous or starchy foods.—"Health in Business."

Sensitive Cheese.
"A cheese in the making is as sensitive to a cold as you are," said a cheese monger. "The finest cheese if it is left in a draft will catch cold and deteriorate. There will be no flavor to that cheese thereafter. You mustn't bruise a cheese either. Knock its face and it will discolor, like flesh, and the hurt place will spoil. A cheese, in fact, is flesh for the most part—a solid mass of living microbes—and that's why it catches cold and bruises. It's alive, son—see like you and me. Fancy"

The Amende Honorable.
"So!" roared Bilk, setting Wiggles by the arm. "I've found you at last! You called me a jackass at the club the other day, and, by ginger, you've got to apologize."
"All right, Bilk," said Wiggles. "Anything to oblige. Lead me to the real jackass and I'll apologize to his face."
—Harper's Weekly.

A Stern Censor.
An English censor once passed a play called "London Life" in the third act of the play the hero, entering a restaurant, calls for a chop and a jug of musty ale. Opposite this speech the censor wrote, "During Lent the order must be a glass of water and a plate of dry toast."

Man and His Muscles.
The total strength of all the muscles in the body of a strong man can be estimated at about 10,000 pounds. Apart from the voluntary muscles, which number over 500, there are infinite involuntary ones which are even too great to attempt to estimate.

Decorations.
"Why do you think so much of being decorated? It doesn't give you ability."
"No, but it makes people think I have some."
—Palo Melo.

Hot Wind From the Desert.
"Shamsi" is the hot wind from the desert which blows out of the Sahara from Egypt. The word means "fire" from the idea that it burns for five days. The shamsi is terribly hot and dry and sometimes brings pestilence with it.

For a Starter.
"What would you advise me to do?" inquired the uncertain man.
"Well to start with, I'd advise you to quit waiting your time asking people's advice."
—Washington Star.
