HON. JOSEPHUS DANIELS, SECRETARY OF NAVY IS MADE WELCOME IN WASHINGTON

Large crowds, beautiful decorations and warm reception testify as to the regards in which the distinguished guest is held at his birthplace

School Auditorium is Crowded to its Capacity Limit. A most Interesting Address by Mr. Daniels is Heard

All Washington turned out this morning to welcome the distinguished son, Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the United States Navy. Mr. Daniels arrived here last night on the Atlantic Coast Line and spent the night with Col. and Mrs. W. C. Hodman. He was accompanied by his wife, his brother, C. C. Daniels, of Wilson, his mother, Mrs. Mary O. Daniels, of Goldsboro, Lieutenant Mallison of the U. S. Navy and Brown Shepherd of Raleigh, Rear Admiral Heister of the U. S. Navy, and Congressman and Mrs. J. H. Small, were also prominent figures in the day's events.

At promptly 10:30 the parade, which was to escort the party to the School Auditorium began to form in front of Col. Hodman's residence. Shortly before eleven Mr. Daniels and the other distinguished guests came down the steps of the residence and took their places in the automobiles which were waiting for them. The marching, on horseback, headed the line of march. Next came the Washington band followed by the reserves of the U. S. Revenue Cutter Famine. The Naval Reserves of Washington were next in line, and presented a smart and neat appearance. Then came the long line of automobiles carrying the guests of the city and prominent local persons.

The parade proceeded smoothly to the School Building where the occupants of the automobiles descended and entered the Auditorium. All along the line of march the buildings and business houses were beautifully and artistically decorated with flags and banners, and the sidewalks were thronged with people from neighboring towns and cities. Many of these followed the automobiles to the School Building and crowded into the large hall. The stage was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting, ferns and flowers. The guests proceeded down the aisle and took their places, amid the loud and prolonged hand clapping of the hundreds present.

After all were seated, A. D. MacLean, chairman of the entertainment committee, rose and introduced E. A. Daniel to the audience. Mr. Daniel made a brief speech, giving a short sketch of the Secretary of the Navy's life and his achievements. He then introduced the Hon. Josephus Daniels. Amid cheering and hand clapping, Mr. Daniels arose and unveiled his acknowledgment to the warm reception extended to him. When the applause had subsided, he began his speech, which, in part, was as follows:

PENSION MATHEWSON

McGraw Will Give Three Years' Full Pay When Usefulness is Over. Boston, Mass., May 16.—When Mathewson's days of usefulness as a pitcher for the New York Giants have ended Manager McGraw is to tender him a three-year contract without reduction in salary. McGraw recently announced this plan of retaining his star pitcher to Manager Joe Tinker, of the Cincinnati Nationals, according to a statement by Tinker here today. That Mathewson would earn his salary as a coach of young pitchers was McGraw's reason, as Tinker gives it, for this continuing the veteran on the pay roll. But Matty's career as an active pitcher has still some time to run, the New York manager is said to have added.

EXPECT TROUBLE IN CUBA

Havana, May 19.—The greatest anxiety prevails in many quarters here over the outcome of tomorrow's inauguration when Gen. Moncal will be inaugurated President to succeed Gen. Gomez. The amnesty bill recently signed by the retiring President Gomez is the cause of violent political discussion. Some regarded it as a lighted bomb planned for the reception of Gen. Moncal whose explosion is apt to end the Cuban republic. The amnesty measure was avowed for the purpose of granting freedom to hundreds of prisoners arrested. As a matter of fact, its terms are so sweeping that it not only provides for liberation of thousands of criminals, as well as political offenders, but also gives a clean bill of health to every one now connected with the Gomez administration. The Gomez administration in Cuba has been notorious for corruption and many persecutions of men now holding public office would follow the inauguration of the Conservative President, Gen. Moncal.

That the law was unjust was agreed, but it is hoped by the Japanese that the United States will see the unfairness of discrimination. It was declared at the meeting that the time had come when Japan and the Japanese people must be given equal treatment with other people.

CITY IN ARMS AGAINST HOBOS

Mayor of New Bern Starts Crusade Against "Knights of Tin Can." Every tramp who is caught within the city limits stands a good chance of being sent to work on the County Roads. Tramps, beware. Stay far away from New Bern. There's a reason, Albert H. Bannert, the newly elected mayor of the city has begun a crusade against the knights of the tin can that is almost equal to the "swat the fly" crusade. Every "Rusty Rudder" who is caught within the limits of the city is haled into the municipal court and the odds are 10 to 1 that he gets a month on the county roads.

WORK ON ROADS IS PENALTY

It seems that the tip has been given out to the hobos for during the last few days they have been pretty scarce in the city.
