

THE WEATHER: Fair tonight and Tuesday.

TWO DEAD, THREE INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT YESTERDAY AT TARBORO

ACCIDENT OCCURRED WHILE MACHINE WAS GOING OVER CREEK NEAR THE TOWN. CAR WENT DOWN SIX FOOT EMBANKMENT.

WM. ARNHEIN AND MRS. E. MORRIS, DEAD

Mrs. Arnhein, Mr. Matthews and Edward Morris were injured. Although not seriously. Accident was due to skidding of car as it passed over bridge.

Two people were killed and three injured in an automobile accident near Tarboro yesterday afternoon. The dead: William Arnhein, prominent merchant of Tarboro. Mrs. Edward Morris. The injured: Mrs. Arnhein. Mr. Matthews, of the N. C. Telephone Company. Edward Morris of Tarboro.

The accident occurred at about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The party were passing over a creek near Tarboro. Arnhein driving at a moderate rate of speed. The car suddenly skidded badly to the right. Arnhein tried desperately to straighten it out, but in spite of his efforts the machine struck the guard rail, broke through and went down a six foot embankment, into the creek.

The agonizing screams of the victims soon brought assistance and they were dragged to the bank of the creek. It was found that Mrs. Morris had been killed instantly, having been struck by a part of the car as it turned over. Mr. Arnhein was also badly injured and died from internal injuries while he was taken back to town. The other three were also badly scratched and bruised, but received no serious injuries.

O. DAMMIT TO CHANGE HIS NAME.

Elmsford, N. C., May 25.—Orlando Dammit of this village wishes to change his name and has started proceedings whereby he will be entitled to change his present cognomen to a less startling one.

NOTICE.

Only five more days in which to list your taxes. Please attend to this at once. Hours from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. in the Court House.

CIVIL COURT MEETS.

The regular term of the Civil Court began this morning. Judge Whedon presiding. Several important cases were taken up, but unfortunately we are unable to publish the verdicts today. The full proceedings of today's court will be published tomorrow.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR MAKES WOMEN BEAUTIFUL.

New styles hair at Miss Hattie Hembly's. 5-26-13

ROOSEVELT SUES FOR $10,000

ACTION AGAINST GEO. A. NEWELL OF MICHIGAN COMES ON TODAY.

Defendant Has Kept His Course a Secret. His Witnesses Are Not Known, But He Will Claim that Publication was Privileged.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt is, today, suing Editor George A. Newell of Michigan for $10,000.

Newell is charged with having made libelous assertions against the Colonel in his paper, having called him a liar and also stating that the Leader of the Progressive party was frequently drunk.

The results of the trial, which commences today, will be watched with lively interest throughout the country. Both the defendant and the plaintiff are noted for their fiery tempers and great things are expected to come up in the court.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY HONORS.

Congressman James M. Gudger, Jr., of North Carolina, is fifty-two. He is a lawyer by profession; was educated at Emory and Henry, Virginia; elected to the State Senate in 1906 and served as solicitor for the fifteenth district before his election to the Fifty-ninth congress. He has been re-elected to every succeeding session.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Daughters of Confederacy wish to thank Prof. Smith and his orchestra for the lovely music they furnished on the night of the benefit, May 20th, given in behalf of Pamlico Chapter.

MAY 26 IN HISTORY.

1813—Bombardment of forts George and Niagara.

RECORDER'S COURT NEWS.

L. M. Coleman Found Guilty Under Search and Seizure Law. Latham to Be Held Over Until Criminal Court Term.

L. M. Coleman, colored, was found guilty of having more liquor in his house than the law allows and was fined $25 and costs. He appealed the case and was put under a bond of $100 to appear at the next session of the criminal court.

Noah Duns, who had been charged with retailing, was found not guilty and was discharged.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY SERVICES—A GREAT DAY YESTERDAY.

FROM was the interest in the Sunday school. It was conducted by C. Q. Morris, one of the teachers, the superintendent, E. H. Nixon, being absent, owing to his mother's illness.

Special prayer was offered for this good woman at the opening of the 11 o'clock service, when the pastor preached to the children and young people generally, many of whom were present, giving inspiring attention. The text was, Prov. 10:11. "Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right."

In the evening the sermon was evangelistic, a persuasive presentation of Christ's call. "And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom; and he saith unto him, follow me, and he arose, and followed him."—Matt. 9:9.

1. The Call. "Follow Me." is direct and individual. Matthew was constantly to wait upon Christ. a. As his Saviour. b. As his Teacher. c. As his Master.

"It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant of his lord."—Matt. 10:25.

PRIZE FIGHTER IS KILLED

LUTHER MCCARTHY, LIGHT HEAVY WEIGHT CHAMPION DIES AS RESULT OF BLOW.

Was Knocked Out in First Round of Fight Saturday. Opponent, Was Arthur Pelky. McCarthy Never Regained Consciousness After Blow Was Struck.

Calgary, Alta., May 24.—Luther McCarthy, the white heavy weight champion of the world died as a result of a blow received in a fight with Arthur Pelky of Canada.

The fatal accident occurred in the first round of their scheduled ten round bout. Pelky landed a stiff jab over McCarthy's heart. The latter doubled up and fell to the floor unconscious. Dr. Smith, the referee counted McCarthy out, without being conscious that anything had happened except an ordinary knock-out. When the fallen man refused to be revived a doctor made an examination and stated that the man was dying. McCarthy was dead eight minutes after the blow was struck. He never regained consciousness after falling to the floor.

PRINCESS VICTORIA LOUISE WITH PRINCE OF CUMBERLAND

Princess Victoria Louise, daughter of the German Kaiser, became the bride of Prince August of Cumberland Saturday in the presence of a notable assemblage which included representatives of all the royal families of Europe.

COMMENCEMENT ARE HELD AT PANTEGO HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

Held in Auditorium of High School Building Thursday and Friday. Six Graduates. Diplomas Presented by Superintendent Vaughan.

The commencement exercises of the Pantego High School were held Thursday and Friday nights at the High School Auditorium. The baccalaureate sermon was preached the Sunday before by Rev. Mr. Lowther, president of the Washington Collegiate Institute.

The principal feature of the exercises held Thursday night was the address made by Dr. H. W. Chase of Chapel Hill, who is at the head of the Department of Education there. Dr. Chase made a most interesting and instructive address. Several excellent musical numbers were also on the evening's program and were loudly applauded by the large audience which filled the auditorium.

Those who took part in the evening's program were Misses Grace Shavender, Gladys Judkins, Carrie Smithwick, Esther Aycock, Sarah Respass, Mildred Casey, Eula Mae Green, Elizabeth Tapping, Sadie Green, Violet Whitley, Charlotte Shavender, Alta Latham, Elsie Respass, Elizabeth Pritchard, Dorothy Aycock.

Friday Night, May 23, 8 p. m. Voices of the Wood—Rubinstein Forman—School chorus. Grand Polka de Concert—Bartlett—Pearl Davis. Essay—Mina Topping. Class Prophecy—Temperance Aycock. March Aux Flambeaux—Clark—Evelyn Radcliffe, Pearl Davis, Elsie Respass. Poem—Arlene Davis.

former principal of the school for the highest average. Miss Davis' average was 96. The medal was presented by County Superintendent Vaughan. Mr. Vaughn also presented the diplomas to the graduating class. Mr. Davenport the principal of the school presented certificates to the members of the grammar school, who will enter the High School next year and also to those who had obtained honors in attendance and scholarship.

CLOSS OF 1913.

Essay—Pearl Davis. Blossom Time—Lerman—School chorus. Il Travatore—Sidney Smith—Evelyn Radcliffe. Class History—Alice Green. Essay—Evelyn Radcliffe. Boicorolle—Offenbach—School chorus. Rewarding medal, delivering diplomas, report and announcements. Class Song—Senior Class. Miss Pearl Davis was awarded the medal, donated by Prof. Noble, a

CAST OF CHARACTERS IN "GIRL IN PINK"

Tickets for the production of the Masonic opera house. All of the principals in the play are working hard on their lines, music and business of the comedy and the choruses are singing like veterans of the stage already. Those who will be seen and heard in this promising attraction are as follows:

Harry Footie's big musical play "The Girl in Pink," went on sale at Worthy and Etheridge's store this morning. The play will be given Friday night of this week without fail and if it proves a success, the whole cast will go to New Bern on Monday where it will be given one night at a Talking Booth—A theatrical actor-manager Isaac Hughes Lunette Starlight—Booth's leading lady Miss Robena Carter Willie Loveloy—Comedian of Booth's All-Star Comedy Aggregation Ben Taylor "Props"—Booth's property man, always tired Charles Meekins Izzy Morgan—Dolly's wicked uncle Will Harding Otto Snickelfritz—A saloon-keeper and speculator Harry Footie "Girl in Pink" Miss Ada Rhodes DEBY WHITING—Booth's ward, The Sheriff Ketchum—Who enforces the law John Cotton Tayloe Prof. Kelly—Proprietor of a Female Seminary James Fowle Eunice Kelly—The professor's sister Miss Nina Rhodes Florice—A seminary girl Miss Pat Harris Doublefree—A corporation lawyer John Cotton Tayloe Choruses of Show Girls, Actors, Cuties, Seminary girls, Goblin girls, etc.

THE NEWS HABIT.

A man of our acquaintance, who might not be suspected of knowing much about his wife's hats and gowns, has lately acquired the habit of studying the advertising pages of The Daily News. The result is that he has enjoyed no little amount of profitable diversion in helping his wife make her Spring selections of hats and shoes and other apparel.

SHIPPING NEWS

The tug Mollie L. Fesmer, with a large belonging to the dredging company is moored to the Norfolk Southern wharf.

The schooner A. L. White is on the ways of Chauncey's ship yards and is being repaired.

The schooner Alma White is in port. She is taking on a load of lumber at the Market street wharf.

Our job printing department will turn out work to your satisfaction at satisfactory prices. Have you tried us?

A SPECIAL SALE OF SHIRTS.

Values that will amaze you. We don't ask you to purchase; all we want is for you to come and see them. The price is THIRTY-NINE CENTS. Lewis & Calais. 5-26-13

OFFICERS ELECTED AT I. O. O. F. COUNCIL

The following officers were elected at the Council, which was held in Greensboro last week: Grand Master, M. L. Shipman of Raleigh. Deputy Grand Master, W. F. Evans of Greenville. Grand Warden, F. L. Green. Grand Secretary, B. H. Woodell of Raleigh. Grand Treasurer, R. J. Jones of Wilmington. Grand Representative, Charles Dewey of Goldsboro. Grand Chaplain, E. Paris of North Wilkesboro. Grand Conductor, J. D. Berry of

KILLS MAN WHO ELOPES WITH WIFE

Irving, Va., May 26.—Ralph Connor shot and instantly killed F. C. Warren, who ran away with Connor's young wife. Connor, immediately after the shooting, gave himself up to the police.

THE ONLY STOCK OF MODERN HAIR IN THE CITY

Will be found at Miss Hattie Hembly's. 5-26-13

RECORDER'S COURT NEWS.

L. M. Coleman Found Guilty Under Search and Seizure Law. Latham to Be Held Over Until Criminal Court Term.

L. M. Coleman, colored, was found guilty of having more liquor in his house than the law allows and was fined $25 and costs. He appealed the case and was put under a bond of $100 to appear at the next session of the criminal court.

THE NEWS HABIT.

A man of our acquaintance, who might not be suspected of knowing much about his wife's hats and gowns, has lately acquired the habit of studying the advertising pages of The Daily News. The result is that he has enjoyed no little amount of profitable diversion in helping his wife make her Spring selections of hats and shoes and other apparel.

SHIPPING NEWS

The tug Mollie L. Fesmer, with a large belonging to the dredging company is moored to the Norfolk Southern wharf.

The schooner A. L. White is on the ways of Chauncey's ship yards and is being repaired.

The schooner Alma White is in port. She is taking on a load of lumber at the Market street wharf.

Our job printing department will turn out work to your satisfaction at satisfactory prices. Have you tried us?

A SPECIAL SALE OF SHIRTS.

Values that will amaze you. We don't ask you to purchase; all we want is for you to come and see them. The price is THIRTY-NINE CENTS. Lewis & Calais. 5-26-13 former principal of the school for the highest average. Miss Davis' average was 96. The medal was presented by County Superintendent Vaughan. Mr. Vaughn also presented the diplomas to the graduating class. Mr. Davenport the principal of the school presented certificates to the members of the grammar school, who will enter the High School next year and also to those who had obtained honors in attendance and scholarship.

PANTEGO HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.