REPAIRS TO NORFOLK SOUTHERN STATION.

Some few weeks ago, a committee, composed of prominent citizens of Washington, met with a representative of the Norfolk Southern Railroad to confer regarding improvements on the station grounds.

Nothing unreasonable was asked and only absolutely necessary improvements were suggested. We feel that it is the duty of the Norfolk Southern to take up this matter as was promised.

TWO CASES IN CIVIL COURT.

Case of W. R. Swain vs. C. A. Wilkinson and That of the N. C. Mutual and Provident Assn. vs. E. Edwards and P. H. Bell were brought up in the Civil Court yesterday.

In the case of W. R. Swain vs. C. A. Wilkinson, the jury brought in a verdict answering issues in favor of the plaintiff to the amount of $193, also leaving a balance due the defendant by the plaintiff.

In the case of the N. C. Mutual & Provident Association vs. Edmund Edwards and wife and P. H. Bell, the motion to set aside judgments was denied and a restraining order granted to a final hearing.

We often wonder why it should be that the Pinetown and Jakeville itemizers have settled back in oblivion and are heard of no more.

They are indeed missed with their humorous witticisms and wise maxims. It must be that marrying fever which they have written somewhat of, did indeed catch them.

Boys forget your happiness for a moment and delight us once more with your wit and humor.

Mrs. Mary Harris and grandson, Howard, attended the funeral of her sister, Miss Sarah Windley, at Yeatsville Wednesday.

Miss Ann Windley was a guest of Mrs. Sam Boyd Sunday afternoon.

Best Medicine for Colds.

When a druggist recommends a remedy for colds, throat and lung troubles, you can feel sure that he knows what he is talking about. C. C. Lower, Druggist, of Marion, Ohio, writes of Dr. King's New Discovery: "I know Dr. King's New Discovery is the best throat and lung medicine I sell. It cured my wife of a severe bronchial cold after all other remedies failed." It will do the same for you if you are suffering with a cold or any bronchial, throat or lung trouble. Keep a bottle on hand all the time for everyone in the family to use. It is a home doctor. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Hardy's Drug Store.
