THE TAX LEVY.

Last night, at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen, the "Specific Taxes" for the coming year were brought up for revision. Quite a number of important changes were made in last year's list. In some cases the tax was lowered, and again in others, it was raised. In every case, the change in rate was justified and the ordinance committee deserves special commendation for the work they put on this matter.

The most important changes were made in the rate that the Express Companies are taxed and the rate on "It's a Real Estate Dealers."

The express companies' yearly tax was raised from $15.00 to $30.00. The first amount was ridiculously small and the committee made a wise move when they doubled the tax. In the case of the real estate dealers, the committee had the interests of the public at heart. The tax was raised from $10.00 to $50.00. This was done in order to protect the residents of the city from the multitudinous of real estate "peddlers" who make a practice of coming into a city, staying for a short while, and trying to sell the people all kinds of "gilt edge" investments.

HAWKINS SCHOOL HOUSE.

Several of our people attended divine services at Deaver Dam Sunday and Sunday night.

Jessie Jones is visiting her sister, Miss Lena Jones, at Balk.

Mrs. O. O. Kafer and children, who have been spending some time at Morehead City, returned Friday.

How Beautiful

Is Washington Park

If its real beauty could be appreciated before one lives in the property, the few choice unsold lots would be sold in a day, but the only way you can conceive the true grandeur of the homelife is to live here. The exhilaration of the pure air and pleasing scenery will so thoroughly enrapt you you will wonder why more people do not know and feel the true worth of a choice Washington Park Homelife.

Knowing your friends will be ever grateful to you for convincing them of the superior life you will try to tell them some of the reasons why Washington Park is such an ideal Homelife Property, you'll say:

Come live by our river, our broad bold stream, Where life's worth living, 'tis really a dream; Such comfort you'll find for here breezes blow, And cool keep your house by the Pamlico.

And as for the children they are blythe and gay, Their cheeks so rosy, that's pure air way; And baby so cherry, not kept peevish from heat, Nor sickened by dust from a close busy street.

Reward'd you'll feel, repaid you will be, For all inconvenience you think you can see; This life only holds health, comfort and rest, And in Washington Park these are certainly best.

The health and comfort problem is not the only one you solve in Washington Park for there's the housekeeping. Listen, in Washington Park

Washington Park shore line from the Pavilion. Always a tonic for the tired nerves.

Much time you'll have at home to rest, Not clouds of dust your life to pest; Wide streets, grass parks and the Pamlico, Are reasons why the dust keeps low, Here red and purple, pink and brown, Bright colors your carpets stay; With little work your house stays clean; You feel 'tis a holiday.

Then healthy children no trouble give, You'll see their faces beam; 'Tis life, enjoyment full and sweet, Come live this perfect dream.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, he chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
