GREENSBORO TO HAVE CONVENTION OF BLIND

Greensboro is to entertain a convention that is decidedly novel which will meet in this city July 15 to 19. This is a convention of the blind people of the State. Recently a meeting of a committee representing the citizens of the city and the association for the blind was held to consider preliminary arrangements. At this meeting many interesting facts were brought out.

There are in the State over 1,000 blind people, over 1,200 of whom are white. The membership of the association is about 110, nearly all of whom attend the annual convention. One delegate who lives far away in the mountains travels about 40 miles over mountain roads to reach his railway station, which is 300 miles from Greensboro. Evidently it is a great event in the life of the sightless ones when they are permitted to meet with those similarly afflicted, the bond of sympathy between them being of an intimate nature, which the more favored cannot readily understand or appreciate.

ODD CONTEST IN AURORA

CAN CONTEST HAS BEEN STARTED. PRIZE OFFERED FOR THE BOY WHO SECURES THE MOST CANS.

Aurora has had a tin-can contest and did rid herself of all the tin-cans and tin-buckets and various other kinds of such that would catch water, thereby causing mosquitoes to hatch from them. There was offered a $1.00 reward by Mr. J. T. Wilkinson, to the boy who would collect the greatest number by the 13th of June. Those contesting and the number are as follows:

- Adolph Lapton ..... 1,238
  - Wm. Shaw Bonner, Jr. .... 1,475
  - Marshall Gillford ..... 1,279
  - Wiley Thompson ..... 1,077
  - Willie C. Bonner ..... 1,422
- The town commissioners have requested all the citizens to observe June 20th as a general clean-up day, by asking them to thoroughly clean their premises of all kinds of trash, cut all the weeds, and white-wash the fences, trees, out-house and paint their homes, and all who own vacant lots to also have those cleaned off. The summer period is now at hand, when disease is more active than any other period, and every household in Aurora should do their part in seeing to it that Aurora is made a clean town, the good old summer time is here with its flies and mosquitoes and the health of the people is at stake. The commissioners earnestly hope the people will observe this day for getting on the sanitary side.

To Fly Across Atlantic in Steam Driven Aeroplane

Young French Student Plans to Make the Flight in 31 Hours. To Make Experimental Flights Over Lake Michigan.

To fly across the Atlantic Ocean in 31 hours in the largest and heaviest ship of the air ever constructed is the aim of a young French law student of Chicago, who has already constructed the hull of an aerial craft which he will name "Napoleon."

This machine is planned to have the widest pair of wings ever made, constructed of aluminum steel. The total weight of the monoplane will be 5,000 pounds, but the raising capacity of the wings, as designed, will be, theoretically, about 16,000 pounds, sufficient to lift a crew of six men, with their provisions and fuel supply.

The motive power is to be provided by two 150-hp. steam turbines, weighing 250 pounds each, the fuel for which will be condensed coke. Each engine will control two 8-ft. propellers of the usual shape, one pair in front and the other behind. Additional stability is expected to be secured by six automatic shutters, in the form of square shutters to open and close as the hydro-aeroplane tips beyond a certain angle. A fluid in a metal ball will control the releasing triggers for each set of balancers, the action consuming only 1-25th of a second. The inventor claims to have floated stationary in the air for more than 20 minutes by means of this equipment on an ordinary monoplane, during which time the shutters were kept fluttering constantly. It is proposed to carry 800 lb. of coke, and over 500 gal. of water in two boilers, which the inventor claims will be sufficient to keep the craft in motion for 58 hours. The spread from tip to tip of the wings is 100 ft. 6 in.; the boat hull is 35 ft. long, with a beam of 6 ft. 6 in. The length, over all, will be 55 ft. The area of the spread surface will be 1,655 square ft. The boat, exclusive of flying rigging and machinery, weighs 496 lb. It is made of selected white pine on a frame of rock elm, sheathed with aluminum steel, and is shaped like an ordinary launch. The aluminum wings and tail have cork inserts, instead of pontoons. Clock-spring steel, 1-2 in. wide and of No. 16 gauge thickness, will be used in place of wire for stays. The vessel will cost $11,000 when completed, of which $2,700 will go for each turbine. The equipment will include a wireless outfit and an electric-lighting system with searchlight. One of the crew of six will be an electrician and wireless operator. The actual construction of the "Napoleon" was begun early in 1913, and the inventor plans, after experimental flights over Lake Michigan, to fly to the Atlantic coast, and then attempt to cross the ocean.

YOUNG MAN IS KILLED IN NEW BERN.

New Bern, June 14.—Warren Ramsey, a young white man, whose home is at Beaufort, but who was employed at a local machine shop, was instantly killed at James City, just across Trent river from New Bern, at an early hour yesterday morning when a wagon containing a heavy piece of casting which he was taking to a point across the river overturned and caught him beneath one of the wheels. With Mr. Ramsey at the time of the accident was a young man named White. The latter was unable to lift the wagon from Ramsey's body and Ramsey died before aid could be secured.

This is the fourth fatal accident which has occurred within one mile of New Bern during the past four weeks.

After holding a short session at the Gaston hotel this morning the druggists, who have been here this week attending the 34th annual convention of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical association, decided to give up the proposed trip through the inland waterway canal on the revenue cutter Pamlico, and formally closed the convention. Many of the members returned home on the morning train, while others left this afternoon.

"Etiquette" in Advertising.

Up to within the last few years it has been considered a breach of etiquette in certain businesses and professions to advertise.

These men have said: "Oh, yes, advertising is all very well for the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker, but it would not do at all for us. It is not good business ethics."

In later years, however, that idea is being abandoned, together with a lot of other old and worn-out theories. The public now looks to the advertising section of the good newspapers for information on all subjects. The demand has created the supply.

People want to know not only where they can spend their money, but where and how to invest it. This has led bankers, brokers, and other business and professional men to tell their stories in the best newspapers.

The advertising pages of a newspaper like the Daily News are a veritable index in this community, and the day is not far distant when every legitimate business and every recognized profession will understand the value of advertising.

TO HONOR KAISER.

Berlin, June 14.—Elaborate preparations have been completed to honor Kaiser Wilhelm tomorrow on the occasion of the completion of the twenty-fifth year of his reign. It will be one of the greatest festive events since the creation of the empire. All Germany will endeavor to show appreciation of the Kaiser, who, during the quarter of a century has placed the nation in the front rank of the industrial commercial and naval, as well as the military powers of the world.

According to the local press, the other twenty-five rulers of German States, including the Kings of Saxony, Bavaria and Wurtemberg, are coming to Berlin personally to congratulate the Kaiser and to participate in the celebration. The United States and all European countries have sent congratulations. The Archduke Francis Ferdinand, of Austria, will represent Emperor Francis Joseph.

The Kaiser will signalize the occasion by commuting the sentences of many prisoners and pardoning others. He will also grant titles of nobility.

GOTHAM NEWS AND GOSSIP.

New York, June 14.—Colonel Roosevelt gets himself into the limelight again tonight when he speaks in this city and Brooklyn in the interest of Governor Sulzer's direct primary fight. The State legislature meets in special session next week to consider the matter and a lively time is in store for the senators and assemblymen who will vote against the measure, according to Governor Sulzer and Colonel Roosevelt, both of whom have been doing some vigorous campaigning upstate this week.

New York society is greatly interested in the memoirs of Frederick Townsend Martin, the bachelor leader of the Smart Set, which are to appear with the next few weeks. These memoirs deal largely with his experience in America and England, and though it has been predicted that some startling facts will be revealed, Gotham Society claims not to be worrying. Certainly no man is in a better position to "say things" than Frederick Townsend Martin, for he has entertained all classes and there is no member of the so-called Four Hundred who can reconcile the different factions with as much grace as Mr. Martin.

Although much is said of the sardiness and selfishness of New York, more attention is paid to the poor and unfortunate than is generally supposed. The first vacation parties which the New York Association for the Improving of the Condition of the poor are announced. This organization during the summer months sends each Monday mothers, babies and aged sick to the seashore or country to get an airing for two weeks at least. These recently discharged from hospitals get first change with the babies. Reports show that sickness among the poor has greatly increased this year.

Roy C. Andrews, a noted whale hunter, who has captured many specimens for the whale hall of the American Museum of Natural History, has been making for several months plans for a cruise in the Arctic regions in quest of the rare bowhead whale, which if secured will complete the museum's valuable collection and thereby make it one of the greatest in the world.
