MRS. VENTERS VICTIM OF AN ACCIDENT

Bicycle Collided With Her and Threw Her Heavily to Pavement. Was Unconscious for More Than an Hour

Mrs. Charles Venters was knocked down by a bicycle on Main street yesterday afternoon and badly injured. She is now in the Washington Hospital.

The accident occurred near the corner of Main and Respass streets. The streets were crowded with bicycles returning from the ball game. James Hill was riding towards the Atlantic Coast Line depot. At the corner of Main and Respass streets he turned out to avoid hitting a colored woman, who had just stepped off the curb in front of J. K. Hoyt's store. In doing so, he collided with Mrs. Venters, who was coming across the street in an opposite direction. The latter was knocked to the ground, her head striking the pavement. She was rendered unconscious by the fall and taken into Hoyt's store, where Dr. Joshua Taylor took charge. An ambulance was summoned from the Washington Hospital and she was carried there. Dr. Taylor looked over her, but it was fully an hour after her arrival at the hospital that Mrs. Venters returned to consciousness. She had three convulsions. This morning she was resting quietly and it is believed that her accident will cause no serious injury. She is suffering from a bad bruise over her left eye.

"PAKING" THE NEWSPAPERS.

London, June 19.—London newspapers today have awakened to the fact that they have been victimized to the extent of many dollars by an entirely new game—that of "bomb finding." The suffragette bomb outrage started it all. The method adopted was to plant a "bomb," covered with suffragette literature, in some public place, and then "find" it, and after turning it over to the police, run to a newspaper office and sell the "story" as an exclusive. Many newspapers throughout England have fallen for the stunt and today the police are on the lookout for dozens of "bomb finders."

PENNY IN DISPUTE OVER BRIDGE.

Louisville, Ky., June 18.—Lieut. Col. H. J. Jervis of the United States engineering corps held a public meeting here today on the building of a new Pennsylvania bridge over the Ohio river between Jeffersonville and Louisville. The Penny says that its plan is to not call for a new structure, but a remodeling of the old bridge. While the bridge is being remodelled the train service to Louisville will be through New Albany.

DANIELS PLANS TO MAKE NAVY APPEAL TO YOUNGER MEN.

HAS ADVANCED IDEAS FOR RAISING THE RANK AND FILE OF THE NAVY DEPARTMENT.

NAVY IS SHORT OF MEN

AT THE PRESENT TIME, FIGURES OF DEPARTMENT SHOW THAT THE NAVY IS ABOUT 4,500 MEN SHORT OF AUTHORIZED NUMBER.

Washington, June 19.—If you are a man, and are between the ages of 17 and 35 years and are from five feet two inches to six feet one inch, and weigh in proportion, with a chest measurement of from 33 to 36 3-4 inches, dependent upon your age, height, and weight, Secretary of the Navy Daniels has a job for you. Moreover he has declared that if you pass all these qualifications and want the job, he will give you as fine an opportunity to see the world as you could get anywhere, on board a floating home that was built for from $5,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Secretary Daniels has some advanced views regarding the way the navy of the United States ought to be run, and he is especially "strong" for reforms that will attract and hold the best class of men and boys the country can provide for the navy.

He believes the navy should be made attractive to the young man, the college graduate, the school boy and to every man and boy who come up to the physical qualifications mentioned. Perhaps the most radical of the reforms Secretary Daniels would like to see effected is his plan to change the rules of enlistment so that it would be possible for college men to accept the hospitality of the navy and cruise as man-o'-war-men during the vacations. He would have it so that college men who have a liking for travel during their vacations, could take such cruises and acquaint themselves with the duties of a sailor.

Secretary Daniels, explaining his project today, declared he believes every young man should have a "working knowledge" of the navy. If this were the case, he said, the rank and file of the navy would be raised even higher than it is now.

The secretary's plan is a virtually the creation of a volunteer citizen reserve. He would have conditions such that in case of necessity there would be thousands of young men as useful as they were willing to go behind the big guns and uphold the prestige of the United States navy.

Although Secretary Daniels is an avowed "man of peace," he believes in maintaining a high degree of preparedness, and it is his aim to educate the young men so that the navy can be placed "on a war footing at very short notice."

At present time, figures at the navy department show today, the navy is approximately 4,500 men short of Under the Daniels regime every effort will be made to fill these vacancies with enlisted men, as well as to qualify as many more as possible who are now in civilian life, for possible emergency work.

This is one of the reasons for the attractive cruises which has been mapped out for the Atlantic fleet this year. The coming cruise will be in the Mediterranean where every port of moment will be touched and the sailors given ample opportunity to spend many hours on shore. Similar cruises are today being mapped out for each succeeding year, and while Secretary Daniels is at the head of the navy department there will be no fear, he declares, of Jack Tar having too much work and so play.

Following the Mediterranean cruise, it is planned for the fleet to go through the Panama canal to Asiatic ports. This trip is only in embryo at the present time. It was said at the department today that announcement of the itinerary for this trip may be made within the next few months.

WASHINGTON DESCRIBED IN BOOK

BOOKLETS PUBLISHED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ARE READY FOR DISTRIBUTION.

Contains Forty Pages. Is of Handsome Design and Contains Numerous Illustrations of Washington and Beaufort County.

The booklets, telling of the advantages of Washington and Beaufort County, and which were printed by the Chamber of Commerce, arrived here last night. They are being prepared for distribution today.

The booklet presents a most attractive appearance. It is printed on cream colored paper, the cover design being carried out in cream and blue. There are a number of illustrations and views of Washington and the county. The reading matter is to the point and tells of the prospects of this section of the State in a clear and concise manner. There are forty pages.

The Chamber of Commerce deserves great credit for the work. It is a most excellent form of advertisement.

MR. M'KENZIE AT PINETOWN.

Rev. J. M. McKenzie, of East Seventh street, left yesterday afternoon for Pinetown, where he will conduct a meeting. Mr. McKenzie is a native of Scotland, but has been in North Carolina since his boyhood, married one of our good women, and is now in the ministry of the Missionary Baptist church, his field being several churches adjacent to Washington.

During his short stay he has certainly made a very favorable impression.

DEATH OF CHILD.

Capt. and Mrs. A. W. Dixon, residing at 318 E. Water street, are bereft by their youngest child's death. Madalene Dixon, six months old, after a protracted illness, died yesterday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock rather unexpectedly, as she was apparently much better. Following a brief burial service conducted by Rev. R. H. Broom in the home, the remains were taken to South Creek, a former home, for interment this morning.

Capt. and Mrs. Dixon greatly appreciate the kindnesses shown them by sympathizing neighbors.

GEORGIA'S "PRETTIEST PEACH" A BRIDE.

Athens, Ga., June 19.—Miss Ruth Tribble, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Samuel Tribble, famous as Georgia's "prettiest peach" was married here today to Samuel K. Dick, of Atlanta, at the home of her parents.

The bride was daintily gowned in chiffon cloth over satin, carrying a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a lace robe and carried pink sweet peas.

The solemn vows which made them man and wife were spoken.

The happy couple were showered with congratulations, after which dainty refreshments were served by Misses Latham, Norma, and Grace Jones, Lybilla Griffin, Elenor Berry, Myra Hodges, Ella Lee Chancey, Ellen Lewis and Annie Thomas Archbell.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, and numbers her friends by the score.

The groom is a rising young business man of this city and interested in the firm of Harris Hardware Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington left on the midnight Norfolk Southern train for a tour of northern cities, after which they will make their home in this city.

Willie Asby of Hall Swamp was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Allgood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Sheppard of Holly Glen were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Allgood Sunday afternoon.

Tuesday afternoon we had a terrific electrical storm with much rain and wind.

SUMMER HOME AWAITS PRESIDENT.

Cornish, N. H., June 19.—Harikenden Hall, the summer home of President Wilson, is in complete readiness for President Wilson and his family. Mrs. Wilson and the Misses Wilson will arrive here next week and remain until the President joins them. It is not expected that Mr. Wilson will come to stay until late in the season, however. The housekeeper has arrived to take charge of things.

MR. HARRINGTON AND MISS JONES WERE MARRIED YESTERDAY EVENING

SURPRISE WEDDING TOOK PLACE AT THE RESIDENCE OF THE BRIDE'S PARENTS.

MANY FRIENDS PRESENT

At the home of Mrs. W. E. Jones last evening a beautiful surprise wedding was solemnized, when Miss Mary Simmons Jones became the bride of Mr. Jesse M. Harrington.

A few days ago invitations to an "at home" for Wednesday evening were sent to the immediate friends of the bride and groom. At nine-thirty the guests arrived and were met at the door by Lester Savage, who ushered them into the parlor, where they were greeted by Mrs. Jones, Miss Mary Simmons Jones, Miss Mae Ayers, Jesse Harrington and S. A. Harrington of Weldon, N. C.

The home was beautifully decorated in palms, ferns and cut flowers. The color scheme being pink and white. In the midst of much merriment the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march sounded sweetly, being rendered by Miss Emily Harris. Quiet reigned supreme as Rev. R. H. Broom, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, entered the room and took his stand before the improvised altar. All eyes were turned upon the door when little Miss Hazel Hodges, cousin of the bride, entered bearing a wedding ring upon a white satin cushion. The groom, Jesse Harrington, with his best man, Sam Harrington of Weldon, N. C., entered the side door and was met at the altar by the young bride, Miss Mary Simmons Jones, and her maid of honor, Miss Mae Ayers. The bride was daintily gowned in chiffon cloth over satin, carrying a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a lace robe and carried pink sweet peas.

The solemn vows which made them man and wife were spoken.

The happy couple were showered with congratulations, after which dainty refreshments were served by Misses Latham, Norma, and Grace Jones, Lybilla Griffin, Elenor Berry, Myra Hodges, Ella Lee Chancey, Ellen Lewis and Annie Thomas Archbell.

Greenville Takes Local Ball Team Into Camp

Washington is Beaten by Score of 11-3 in Yesterday's Game. Large Crowd of Spectators Witness Contest

That the people of Washington are ardent baseball fans was shown by the attendance at the Greenville-Washington game, which was played at Fleming field yesterday afternoon. It was an enthusiastic crowd, although its joy was slightly dampened by the fact that the locals lost by the count of 11 to 3.

During the early stages of the contest, it was nip and tuck for both sides. In the fifth inning, however, Greenville scored two runs, three in the seventh, one in the eighth and two in the ninth. This, with the three runs that they scored in the first four innings, gave them a grand total of eleven. Washington did their scoring in the third, tying the visitors. The feature of the game was the heavy hitting of Bonner. He nabbed three hits out of four times up. Dave Taylor sure was on the job in the field. That "shoe string" catch he made in the first inning certainly was a bird.

Summary.

Struck out, by Ragsdale 15, by Bland 5. Two-base hits, Bowling, Bonner. Three-base hits, Lutterloh. Base on balls, off Ragsdale 1, off Bland 1. Stolen bases, Lutterloh, Bonner, Moore and Bland. Umpires, Warren and Maxwell. Attendance, 200. Time of game, one hour and forty-five minutes.

Notes of the Game.

This guy Ragsdale pitched a hot hit game against Farmville the other day.

Dave Taylor got five put outs in left field, and some of them were some dandy running catches.

Maybe Chief Howard ain't some coach! You should have heard him back of this.

The attendance was better than was expected. Hope that many get out for the "Bloomer Girls" game.

This is our first game. Wait until the fellows get used to playing together and get limbered up a bit. Then we'll try Greenville again.

REGARDING LIQUOR ORDINANCE.

Atlanta, Ga., June 19.—The State Supreme Court yesterday held invalid Atlanta's city ordinance known as the McClellan ordinance, which required railroads, express companies and other common carriers to furnish the police with lists of liquor shipments delivered by the carriers. The court held the ordinance void on the ground that it was in contravention of the section of the interstate commerce law.

Capt. Geo. J. Studdert, in the Recorder's Court yesterday, argued that the same should be done in North Carolina.

TO FIGHT LOAN SHARK EVIL.

New York, June 19.—The fifth annual convention of the National Federation of Remedial Loan Associations began here today. The organization was formed in Buffalo in 1909 at the time the National Conference of Charities met there. It is comprised of thirty-two organizations spread all over the country and is devoted entirely to the removal of the "loan-shark" evil. These companies compete with the "loan-shark" in his own field and are financed by men of the greatest repute, whose sole ambition is to remedy the prevailing conditions by providing a place where people of small means may borrow money without fear of persecution and extortion. The society does not advocate the constant borrowing of money, but desires the working man, when hard pushed at times, to come to these associations where he will receive a sum under simple conditions and without fear of being handicapped by large rates of interest.

WELCOME OUR ENGINEERS.

Berlin, June 19.—The German Association of Engineers has made extensive preparations for the reception of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers which will hold its annual meeting this year in Leipzig.

The Americans arrive at Hamburg today. Saturday the members will go to Leipzig. Following the annual meeting the visitors will make a fortnight's tour of Germany, including especially an inspection of the Rhenish and Westphalian industrial district and visits to Dresden, Dusseldorf, Cologne, Frankfurt-on-the-Main and Munich.

The German engineers in the cities visited will attend to the arrangements for the guests' stay and act as guides and hosts.

Mrs. Ed. Mallison has returned from Ayden, where she went to attend the wedding of her sister.

Summer Comfort for the Stay-at-Homes.

The first warm days bring disappointments to many of us who cannot join the general summer exodus from town, but who, for one reason or another, must stay in our houses or apartments during the warm months.

We can't all go to the mountains or seashore, but, by a careful and judicious expenditure, every woman can make a summer atmosphere in her own home if she chooses.

Rugs, heavy curtains, and draperies can be put carefully away, and in their place can be substituted a whole new set of things at a surprisingly low cost. There is an infinite number of fine rugs in the market to fit any size space; there are dainty fresh, cotton curtain materials in charming designs; and as for cretonnes for furniture coverings, their beauty and variety are bewildering.

Just read carefully through the housefurnishing advertisements in The Daily News and calculate for yourself how little summer comforts would actually cost.
