ACTOR WEDS PARTNER

LYRIC PERFORMERS MARRIED
YESTERDAY MORNING BY REV.
H. B. SEARIGHT.

"DIAMONDS CHANGE TO PLAIN GOLD BAND"

"Diamond and Diamond" is the way they are billed at the Lyric. Louis F. Hunkeler and Miss Emily L. LaZelle were their names in private life before yesterday. Now they are Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Hunkeler. The change of names came about yesterday morning at eleven o'clock when they were married at the Presbyterian manse by Rev. H. B. Searight.

The couple are well known members of the theatrical profession and arrived here Thursday for a three-day engagement at the Lyric. Yesterday morning, accompanied by a few friends, they sought out Mr. Searight and the ceremony was performed. Mr. Hunkeler is a native of Newark, N. J., while his wife comes from Washington, D. C. They have the best wishes of all Washington folks for a long and happy wedded life.

They'll be at the Lyric again tonight for their last performance. Let's give 'em a good send-off.

F. KUGLER AGREES WITH ARTICLE IN DAILY NEWS

SAYS THAT CORRESPONDENT
WAS RIGHT IN REGARD TO THE
CONDITION OF THE LOTS IN THE CEMETERY.

IT IS TIME THAT SOMETHING WAS DONE

"I'm glad that correspondent of your brought up that matter in the Daily News the other day, about the lots in the cemetery," said Mayor Kugler last night to a representative of the News. "I fully agree with him. The present conditions are a disgrace. I too have heard many complaints regarding the condition that the grounds are kept in. What your correspondent said about the place being over-run with weeds and the impression that visitors would obtain from the neglected appearance of the cemetery is also very true. It is time that something was done."

THREE THRILLERS.

Among the score of interesting articles to crowd the pages of the 24-page illustrated Magazine of next Sunday's New York World, will be found: "My Mile a Minute in a Hydroplane," by a prominent New York society and business man; color sketches of the ice-rimmed passages and towering mountains explorer Stefansson must traverse in his new search for a polar continent; thrilling story of two escaped French lifer-term convicts now under arrest on Staten Island. Don't even dream of missing next Sunday's World. Order it in advance.

HAS GRADUATED.

J. Selby Forbes, jeweler at R. Lee Stewart's store, returned this week from Lancaster, Pa., where he has been taking a course in engraving and jewelry repairing at Bowman's Technical School. He has resumed his position with Mr. Stewart and is prepared to take care of this rapidly growing business.

TEAMS, DRIVERS AND

C. A. Faucette was interviewed by F. H. Rollins yesterday as to what he would do toward the building of the proposed sand clay road if the money was spent on the road leading past his place, the old Colucci Wharton farm.

Mr. Faucette willingly offered to furnish two teams and drivers and also furnish money to aid in the work. He stated that he would cheerfully do his part in getting the work started and added that he had no doubt but what the other farmers in his neighborhood would do likewise.

Mr. Faucette is one of the most successful tobacco farmers in eastern North Carolina. He is interested in the betterment of conditions in the county and always willing to do his share in whatever comes up. The other men in his vicinity are of the same calibre and will also doubtless come forward with offers of aid and assistance.

TAKE SAUNDERS TO EDENTON

ARRESTED THIRD TIME ON CHARGE OF ALLEGED LIBEL.

Elizabeth City, July 18.—W. O. Saunders, editor of the Independent, a weekly newspaper published here, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Reid upon a warrant from Chowan county, sworn out by E. F. Aydtlett, of this city, charging him with criminal libel. Sheriff Reid took Mr. Saunders to Edenton last night and delivered him to the sheriff of that county.

The arrest grew out of a publication which appeared in the Independent several weeks ago, which Mr. Aydtlett alleges is defamatory and libelous. This is the third time that Mr. Saunders has been arrested for libel for different publications concerning Mr. Aydtlett which have appeared in the Independent. He was convicted of the charge of criminal libel in the two cases which have been tried.—News and Observer.

Coming Out Into the Open

It was not so many years ago that advertising was considered unethical from a business standpoint.

Many of the finest old houses held aloof, saying that they didn't have to advertise. Even today there are some business and professional men so bound by custom and tradition that they have not yet availed themselves of the advantages of advertising.

By so much as these custom still hold, by just so much is the public deprived of knowing all about those professions and businesses.

The most successful way and the only honest way to deal with the public is to "play the game out in the open."

If there are true and interesting reasons why the public should buy something from So & So, then So & So should be glad of a chance to say so over and over again through the medium of reliable newspapers.

Epworth Team Defeats Locals By Score Of 9-7

Bland Knocked Out of Box in Fourth Inning

GARDNER AND CARRAW DIVIDE
HITTING HONORS FOR WASH-
INGTON. EACH SECURED
THREE OUT OF FOUR.

The Epworth team, from the Maple-Cypress section of Craven County defeated Washington yesterday afternoon by the score of 9-7. The game was played at Fleming Park.

Quite a large number were present to see the game and many enjoyed the advantages offered by the new grand stand.

Bland started in for the locals as pitcher, but only lasted three innings. In the fourth, he was touched up for six hits, five of them being a row and seven runs were scored off him. Taylor relieved him and pitched during the remainder of the contest. He allowed eight hits in the six innings he pitched. Two runs were scored on him.

The Washington line-up was changed somewhat yesterday from what it has been in previous games. Davenport acted as catcher, P. Brown played second base and Walker pivoted around third. All of these three played a rattling good game. Carraw and Gardner divided the hitting honors between them, each securing three safe singles out of four times at bat. Both also played an errorless game. Loris shows up good at short and is the best man the locals have for the place.

The summary of the game is as follows:

Notes of the Game.

The Epworth team (called Vanceboro yesterday) threatened to quit in the seventh. They objected strongly to one of Empire Warren's decisions. Funny that these fellows should have been the first to kick at any.
