

WASHINGTON AT GREENVILLE

Locals to Play Rivalry Tomorrow Afternoon at Greenville.

Washington will play Greenville tomorrow afternoon at Greenville. The game will be called at 4:30. It is hoped that a large crowd of fans will take the trip and see Washington win their third straight.

Trains connections are just right. Leave Washington at 8:20 and return home in time for supper. It is expected that a number of fans will take advantage of this and go to see the game.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT

James Robert Connell-Mrs. Eva Lettice Wilson.

Mrs. Sarah Francis Wilson has announced the engagement of her daughter, Eva Lettice, to Mr. James Robert Connell, the wedding to take place July 30, at her residence, 214 West Hume street.—Virginia-Pilot.

Miss Wilson is a former Washington girl and will be remembered by many of our residents here. Mr. Connell is a native of Wilmington. Miss Wilson has been living in Norfolk during the past years. The Daily News extends congratulations to the couple.

TO CONSTRUCT NEW ARMORY FOR NAVAL MILITIA

WILL BE LOCATED IN PHILLIPS BUILDING ON WATER STREET.

REPAIRS WILL BE HERE AFTER AT NORFOLK. HAS COST $7,200.

The local division of the North Carolina Naval Militia have made arrangements for securing a new armory. It will be located in the second story of the building which is being erected by George Phillips on Water street. This building will make ideal quarters for this purpose. It is 45 feet wide and 220 feet long, about 50 feet being built out over the water. It will be furnished complete, will have turrets on top for flag signalling. Davits will be swung out from the rear doors, so that the men can obtain the same exercise and work in lowering boats as if they were on ship-board.

The dock in front of the building will be used for the Elfrida, which is now undergoing repairs at the Norfolk navy yard. $7,200 have been expended in repairing the craft and she will be brought back to Washington after the summer cruise of the militia has been completed. Everything has been changed on board of the vessel. The crew's quarters have been made larger and made sufficiently adequate to accommodate all of the division. A new issue of clothing and equipment will be given to the men before the summer cruise.

Local Tribe of Red Men Thirteenth Anniversary

WILL CELEBRATE THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF ORGANIZATION ON MONDAY EVENING.

Tau Tribe No. 18, Improved Order of Red Men, will celebrate the thirteenth anniversary of their organization Monday evening at 8 o'clock at their hall in the Taylor building.

The committee of arrangements, of which Frank A. Wright is chairman, is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the chiefs. Chief E. L. Stewart will deliver a short address on Redmanship and especially the growth of the local tribe. Chief of Records, W. H. Ardevit is now preparing a report to show the members what has been accomplished in a financial way, and will show the growth of the tribe from year to year since its organization. He will also prepare a statement telling of the amounts paid out to the chiefs on account of the death of their wives and also the sum paid out to the widows of departed Red Men.

After the above program has been carried out, the members and a few invited friends will be served with refreshments, which will be followed by a smoker.

The local Tribe of Red Men have been a power for good in this community since their organization. They have handed out their charities quietly but with a lavish hand. Yet their management has been so careful that their last financial report showed a balance of more than $1,000 on hand.

NEWS FROM SMALL.

We are having very dry weather now and crops in some places are suffering for rain, but cotton is doing fine. Elder Phillip Woodard filled his regular appointment at Whitehill last Saturday and Sunday. There was one addition to the church. Mrs. W. C. Rowe and daughter, Dora, went to Pamlico County last Saturday to attend the Primitive Baptist quarterly meeting. Misses Ruth and Lillian Rowe visited friends at Vandemere last week. Rev. Mr. Canipe is holding a series of meetings at Holliday's hall this week. Mrs. Garce Bradshaw and husband are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Scott, at Small, and we regret to say that she is quite sick at this time. C. L. Gaskins, the architect and builder of Small, is doing some fancy work on the new residence of D. B. Mixon.

Uncle Bill Dowdy went to the famous Blue Springs in Craven County last week. He says the water is fine. J. A. Hardy is on the sick list this week. Quite a number from Prescott attended services at Small Wednesday night. P. M. Hardy has invented an automatic gate that works to perfection.

Smith Lee and wife of Washington have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lee. They returned home Wednesday.

GALVESTON'S POULTRY SHOW. Galveston, Texas, July 24.—Prize poultry from several states will be the fifth annual Cotton Carnival seen here during the next week at Poultry and Pigeon Show which opened today. The entry list is the largest in the history of these shows.

J. W. Ferrell, W. E. Morton, K. W. Cobb and R. C. Flanagan of Greenville were here on a business trip yesterday.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 24.—What promises to be one of the most sensational cases in the history of the California courts is on today's docket, the defendant being George H. Elxby, the Long Beach millionaire, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Marie Brown-Levy. The case will probably involve a score of beautiful women and well-known men at witness.

Miss Levy, the slender accuser of Elxby, will be the chief witness. The capitalist will be tried by jury and the case will be fought bitterly. There is also another against Elxby, growing out of a charge made against him by Cleo Helen Barker. He has been at liberty on $5,000 bail.

RECORDER'S COURT NEWS

JUDGE WINDLEY HAS RETURNED FROM ANNUAL VACATION AND PRESIDED THIS MORNING.

Three Cases Brought Up for Disposal. One of Retaining, Another Charged With Carrying Weapons and a Third State Library.

Judge Windley presided at Recorder's Court this morning, having returned last night from his annual vacation trip.

The first case brought up before him was that of Henry Eason, charged with retaining. A verdict of not pros with leave was rendered.

B. Fleming, colored, was charged with carrying concealed weapons. He had been arrested by Chief Howard yesterday afternoon. He was found guilty and sentenced to six months on the roads.

Dan Bocae, colored, was found guilty of charging more than the law allowed for carrying two trunks to the Norfolk Southern station. He was fined one dollar and costs.

CORPORATIONS EARNED $3,304,000,000.

Washington, July 24.—In spite of the fighting in which they have figured during the past year, the corporations of the country have not fared so badly. The directors and stockholders of these various concerns should be able to take little trips to Europe, buy a yacht or two, then come back to enjoy a season of opera next winter. Exactly $3,304,000,000 was earned by corporations of the United States last year according to statistics just published.

The increased prosperity of the Federal Government more than $26,000,000 including $3,000,000 of omitted taxes for previous years. This represents the greatest amount of corporation taxes ever assessed by the Treasury exceeding the previous year by $7,000,000. The total number of corporations during 1912 was about 310,000, an increase of 7 per cent over 1911, and compared with increases of 6 per cent in 1911 over 1910, and less than 4 per cent in 1910 over 1909.

KAISER MAY SUE, TOO.

Berlin, July 24.—Kaiser Wilhelm is said to be seriously considering joining the ranks of royal libel litigants. A story recently printed in a Paris newspaper to the effect that his holding of Krupp stock influenced his lord appeals for armaments, has so excited his majesty that it has been with difficulty that he has been persuaded not to take any steps before. He has had government and personal attorneys at work finding out what can be done in the matter. The article says that the present Kaiser, "who is at bottom a pacifist, gives himself up from time to time to warlike manifestations, just sufficient to make the Reichstag vote extra credits for orders given to the Krupp firm."

BIXBY TRIAL TO BE SENSATIONAL.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 24.—What promises to be one of the most sensational cases in the history of the California courts is on today's docket, the defendant being George H. BASE BALL GAME TUESDAY

Washington to Play Robersonville Here.

The Robersonville ball team will play at Fleming Park against the locals next Tuesday afternoon. Word was received to that effect this morning. Robersonville has been playing strong ball this season and will probably bring their best line-up when they visit us. It's up to Barnes a thing or two. We'll see him to do so.

Edgar Tankard of Jessima was in the city yesterday.

SCHOONER DRAGGED ASHORE

The Lovett B. Cobb Meets With Accident During Squall.

The schooner, Lovett B. Cobb of Aurora, Captain Robert Thompson, was washed ashore on the south side of Ocracoke Island Monday. A number of passengers were on board. Captain Thompson had thrown over his anchor and was waiting for a squall to pass over. The boat was gradually drawn to the shore and grounded about twenty feet from land. She was not damaged to any great extent and was dragged off this morning.

Locals Defeated Bath Yesterday Afternoon By Score of 15-9

Locals Secured Fourteen Hits. Cowell Gets two Three Baggers. Tayloe Gets Three Hits Out Five. Bland, Tayloe and Barnes Twirled for Home Team.

Won another, B'Gosh! 15-9.

Bath was the victim yesterday. The fray was pulled off at Fleming Park before a rather slim crowd of fanatics.

It was a rather weird game. Hitting by the locals was the principal feature. The boys grabbed fourteen bingles for themselves.

Bath started mighty strong, in the first span, scoring a tally on J. Weston's muff in right. After that they were held scoreless until the fourth, when they scapped two more. In the sixth they got after Tayloe, who replaced Bland and scored six runs. Barnes took Dave's place and pitched for the balance of the game; no runs being scored while he was on the mound.

Washington scored three runs in their half of the first on two errors made by the visitors and a couple of three-baggers by Cowell and Tayloe. They scored another in the third, four in the fourth and hammered Tyer all over the lot in the fifth for six runs. They made their final tally in the eighth.

Bland pitched great ball for Washington while he was in the box. Only five hits were made off him. Twelve batters faced him in succession without getting a hit. His arm went back on him in the sixth. Tayloe led the locals in batting honors. A three-bagger, two-bagger and a single out of five times at bat is something that even Ty Cobb needn't be ashamed of. Cowell nabbed a couple of three baggers for himself and also played a mighty good game at first. Watkins caught in his usual good style, although he was a bit shaky at pegging to second in the first two or three innings. He was the life of the team, always talking and keeping things "loved up." Carrow also obtained two hits and was so tickled that he tried to get up to bat out of his turn. Old Herman was right there when it came to nabbing flies in center. Elbert Weston, who was put in to right field, took two hits for himself out of three times up and ran the bases like a flash. Red Davenport led the visitors in hitting. Barnes also knocked out two two-baggers, and fielded his position in big league style. He's made a big hit here.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE LYRIC THEATRE TONIGHT.

Today's program at the Lyric features an excellent vaudeville act and a feature class of motion pictures beyond par.

Miss Mitzie Admont, an extra clever singing comedienne, featuring violin imitations, and Miss May Mulligan, a clever singing, talking and dancing comedienne, head the list as vaudeville artists. The above mentioned vaudeville artists open at the Lyric tonight for a three-day engagement and they carry with them a reputation of pleasing the most severe critics.

The motion picture program feature a three reel subject, "Notre Dame" Le Paris, made by the Pathe players and one of the most beautiful hand colored dramatic subjects ever shown here. The prices of admission will be 10 and 20 cents.

WRITES ABOUT GOOD ROADS AND TOBACCO MARKET

J. A. Buck Gives Opinion About Proposed Bond Issue for Beaufort County.

Editor Washington Daily News.

Dear Sir: The farmers are well advanced in housing their tobacco. The crops are very good. The gentlemen, who represent the tobacco warehouses in Washington, have been canvassing through this section regarding the marketing of the tobacco. They say that Washington is going to have an excellent market and that they are going to pay as much as Greenville or any other market.

The farmers of Beaufort County should appreciate this fact and endeavor to do their trading at the Washington market.

I believe, and I think my brother farmers will agree with me, that it is our duty to give Washington our patronage and show them that we appreciate what they have done. I, for one, will give them a trial and if I find that they pay as much as other markets, I will continue to do so. On the other hand, if they do not pay the right price, I shall pull for other markets. I would advise other farmers in this section to do the same. It is a much better haul to Washington and would be a saving in that alone. I hope that the Washington market will be successful. I am sure the good roads question is coming up again. All the farmers with whom I have spoken seem to be in favor of good roads but appear to fear that 10 year bond issue. We have all had some experience in the investment of public money in roads in Beaufort County. We know that in our road district, eighty-eight dollars are paid in polltax, to say nothing about the personal or property tax, and there has not been spent ten dollars on the roads in the past two years. Trees lay across the roads and remain there until some individual finally cuts them up and carts them away. We will have to have our roads laid off and have them kept up by the citizens or we will not be able to drive to church or to market.

This is a bad state of affairs, but it is true. It is hard for the people to vote on a bond issue when they do not know what becomes of their money. We would all like to have better roads and we would all like to have better farms and buildings, but we are not able and it would be unwise to run the risk of getting better ones and lose the ones we now have. A bonded state and a bonded county is a very poor sign of progress. There is no danger of this county voting a bond issue. Very truly yours,
J. A. BUCK,
Blounts Creek.

PRESIDENT ANGRY: "I SHOULD WORRY"—SMITH.

Trenton, N. J., July 24.—It has developed that during the past week quiet influences have been at work trying to secure the resignation of ex-United States Senator James Smith, Jr., as a member of the board appointed by Chancellor E. H. Walker of New Jersey to appraise the property of the Prudential Life Insurance Company preliminary to its nationalization. Smith has let it be known that he will not resign. The President is said to regard the appointment as a direct slap at him. Chancellor Walker was at one time prominently mentioned in connection with the appointment as Attorney-General of the United States.
