TONIGHT PROMISES TO BE THE GREATEST OF ALL. MR. ORGAN TO PREACH ON "SIN AND ITS CURE."

He located the beginning of the church at Christ on Pentecost, the record of which is in the second chapter of the Acts. He said that in the beginning the preaching was Scriptural, plain and brought conviction. Also, the sinner was told

DEPUTY COLLECTOR WANTED

OFFICIAL DESIRED FOR LOCAL PORT. MATTER OF LATER MAIL COLLECTION DISCUSSED

A regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held last night. President C. M. Brown, presiding. Several matters of importance were brought up for discussion. The matter of having a public cotton warehouse in Washington was discussed. Several of the members stated that the present tax on selling cotton in the city had practically done away with the sale of this material in Washington. Upon motion, it was decided that the commission be asked to remove the matter and asked to remove the tax. Secretary Flynn read a communication from Mr. Morris of Kinston, in which the latter stated that he was unable to attend last night's meeting and made inquiries regarding the establishing of a cotton mill here. Secretary Flynn also read a letter written by himself to Washington, D. C., officials, in which he asked that a deputy collector be appointed for this port. The letter met with the approval of the chamber and he was instructed to send it. The matter of a boat line between here and Baltimore was brought up for discussion. It was believed that a paying line could be established between these two points. No definite action was taken on the matter. The matter of mail collections was brought forward. At the present time no mail is taken from the boxes after two o'clock in the afternoon. It was moved that the secretary confer with the post master and that a letter be written to the Postmaster General asking him to allow another clerk to the local office. It is believed that with this addition to the present force, collections may be made at the boxes after eight o'clock in the evening. No further business being brought forward the meeting was adjourned.

PEARL DIBBLE HAD FOWL CONCEALED IN BUREAU DRAWER WHERE IT WAS FOUND BY OFFICER ROBERTS

Mr. Officer Pearl Dibble does not like to be swiped a chicken! Officer Roberts had this remark hurled upon him this morning by an indignant colored lady who stated that she was Mrs. Sam Rodman. "So!" said Mr. Roberts, (just like that.) "Where's Pearl now?" "You-all come with me and ah'll show you!" Roberts followed Mrs. Rodman who lead him to the residence of the accused Pearl, also colored. When Pearl was confronted with the charge she denied it vociferously. Mr. Roberts, who is keen on smelling chicken, searched the room and found the fowl in bureau drawer, neatly plucked and ready for the oven. He held it up before Mrs. Rodman. "Yas sah! That's ma bird. Ah'd know it among a hundred!" When charged with the theft, Miss Dibble broke down and confessed. She was brought up before Recorder Windley this morning, who listened to the facts of the case. "Thirty days. Next case!" was all that the judge said.

AURORA HERE TOMORROW.

EPWORTH TEAM FRIDAY.

TWO GOOD GAMES SCHEDULED WITH LOCAL TEAM FOR THE NEXT TWO DAYS

The recollection of that ten inning tie game Monday between Washington and Aurora ought to bring a large crowd out to Fleming Park when these two teams play tomorrow Monday's score was 1-1. The same line-ups will participate in tomorrow's contest. Bland pitching for Aurora and Barnes working for Washington. Game will be called at 4.30. Friday Washington is going out for revenge against the Epworth team, which played here in the early part of the season and had the nerve to defeat the local team. This team was known as Vanceboro at the time. Brown will probably be called out to work against the Craven county men and ought to be able to hold them down without any trouble.

AUGUST IS IN HISTORY.

1894—Vice-President Aaron Burr arrived on the east coast of Florida.

Found Guilty of Retailing.

ARRESTED ON TALE OF DEM-ENTED MAN

LEWIS HENRY JACKSON, WHO IS IN JAIL, GIVES TESTIMONY WHICH LEADS TO JOHNSON'S ARREST.

Dick Johnson was brought up before Recorder Windley this morning, found guilty of retailing and fined $100 and costs. His attorney, A. D. MacLean has asked until Monday to decide whether to appeal the case and is responsible for Johnson's appearance.

The circumstances leading to Johnson's arrest are somewhat odd and unusual. For the past few days, Louis Henry Jackson, who is demented, has been in the local jail. Yesterday, "while confessing his sins," he made the statement that he owed Dick Johnson $1.25. When asked why he owed this amount, he stated that it was due for liquor which Johnson had furnished him. Jackson's son who was visiting his father, bore out the latter's statement and after a little further inquiry, the sheriff learned the names of several men to whom Jackson had given a drink from the liquor secured from Johnson.

On July 31, Sheriff Ricks, Deputy Sheriff Adams and Revenue officers Fagan and Lewis visited Johnson and searched the wads near his house for a still, which they suspected to be located there. They found nothing however. Yesterday, when they asked Jackson where Johnson kept his liquor, the former laughed boisterously. "He's sure fooled you all!" he cried. "Yes sir! But I know where it is. He's got a nigger wench washin' for him. Well, you all just look under that wash tub and see what you find." The officer went to Johnson's place, but the liquor had been taken away from the place described by the demented man. They arrested Johnson and this morning he was tried on the charge of retailing. He pleaded "not guilty" but on the testimony of the witnesses, Recorder Windley fined him $100 and costs.
