SIX STUDENTS A DAY ARE REFUSED

Many Being Turned Away From the Training School.

Greenville, N. C., Aug. 16.—During the past eight days, including Sunday, more than fifty-one students have been turned away from the Training School, because of a lack of accommodations that can be offered by the institution. This rate is the record, as it has not been surpassed so far as is known. Since the institution opened its doors to the worthy and ambitious young women of Eastern North Carolina, it has turned away more than one thousand who applied for admission to the various departments.

President Wright stated this morning that he was now averaging about a half dozen students every day, and that at the present rate the number will be tremendously large by the time the fall term opens next month.

BROWN AND SHIELDS PITCH

Believed that Local Management Has Secured Services of Crick Twinkler to Replace Harcoe.

Beginning tomorrow, Washington will play a four game series with the Aurora team. The first two games, tomorrow and Wednesday, will be played at Aurora, while Thursday and Friday's games will be played at the local ball park. F. Brown will work in tomorrow's game and will probably come back again on Thursday. Owing to Barnes' sudden departure, the management is looking around for another twirler and it is believed that they will secure Shields, who twirled a winning game against them for Greenville. We have doubt but what Brown can hold the laurels down without any trouble and if Shields is as good as they claim, he should do likewise.

5000 At Tabernacle Services Yesterday

1013 Attend Sunday School And Over 2000 Were Present at Evening Services.

GREAT RELIGIOUS MEETING.

Mr. Organ Preached Forceful and Strong Sermons. Probably Largest Meeting Ever Held in State.

What was without doubt, the greatest religious meeting ever held in this section of the state, took place yesterday at the Tabernacle. Hundreds arrived in the city early in the morning and helped to swell the number of those who attended the services.

One thousand and thirteen members composed the Sunday school, which assembled at 9.45 in the Tabernacle. After preliminary singing by the Junior chorus and a musical treat by Mr. Howe on the organ, the various classes to their different places. The Baraca Class met in the church building. There were 220 members in the class and they listened to a strong and earnest address by H. S. Ward, The Philathea Class remained in the Tabernacle. This class consisted of 157 members and were taught by Mrs. W. T. Hudnell and Mrs. A. H. Wilkison. The Loyal Sons Class adjourned to the pavilion where they were taught by W. R. Roberson. There were 57 regular members in this class but their number was increased to about three times this amount by visitors. The Loyal Daughters Class, whose number was about equal to the Loyal Sons Class, studied the lesson in the Tabernacle and were taught by Mrs. G. G. Gabriel. The collection was over $22.00.

Other classes gathered under the shade trees near by, seating themselves on the grass. It was an inspiring spectacle to see the hundreds scattered about the grounds, all profoundly studying the Word of God. Many passersby stopped, listened for a few minutes and then joined the various classes. People of all ages were present. There were 17 people over 65 years of age and there were many babes carried in their mothers' arms.

Prior to the morning services, Mr. Organ played a cornet solo in front of the Hotel Louise and gathered about fifty young men around him in the street. He explained to them about the great meeting that was being held and stated that they were to be taken as a part of the meeting. Some one suggested taking up a collection and the amount taken up showed the men's appreciation of Mr. Organ's services. Mr. Howe also gathered a crowd around him in a similar manner and met with equally good results.

The morning services were held at eleven o'clock. Rev. C. L. Organ preached on "Keeping the Faith." He delivered an excellent sermon, which was listened to attentively by the hundreds present. Five extra chairs were arranged outside of the tabernacle and the awnings raised in order to accommodate the large crowds.

The afternoon meeting was held at four o'clock. Mr. Organ preached a forcible sermon on "The Devil and His Way." He brought out many strong points. "The man who says there is no devil, is as mean as the devil himself" was one of the phrases he used. He also said that he KNEW that there was a devil and that he had seen his tracks in Washington." Mr. Howe played on the aluminum harp and ably led the singing.

The greatest of the meetings was held in the evening at eight. Fully two thousand people assembled and heard Mr. Organ's sermon on "Christ and His Way." The congregation listened with rapt attention to his address and no sound disturbed the speaker. In fact, the order and quiet which prevails at these meetings has been of the highest order at all times. Excellent music was furnished at the evening services.

Tonight, Mr. Organ will preach on "Knocking out the Props." Mr. Howe will render several selections.

Barnes, for some reason, was dissatisfied with conditions here, although the exact reason for his leaving is not known. The Washington team will miss him in the box for he was a good twirler and made a fine showing against the opponents of the locals. His fielding ability was one of the features of every game in which he played. He will be missed with regret by many of the fans.

ON THE THRONE FOR 65 YEARS

Vienna, Austria, Aug. 18.—Emperor King Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary, celebrated his eighty-third birthday today and the sixty-fifth anniversary of his ascension to the throne. His reign holds the record in modern history. His family is gathered about him at Ischl, where he has received congratulations from all parts of the world.

An official in close touch with the Viennese court gave some interesting facts about the emperor. He goes to sleep at the incredible hour of 3.30 in the morning. This has been his habit for years and to which he adheres in his old age. At 4 he is shaved, usually by Herr Spanbauer or Herr Kotterl, his two valets. "Not against the grain," is his injunction.

Still Fond of His Cigar.
Francis Joseph is still fond of his cigar. Until recently he smoked a very light, medium cigar especially made for him by an Austrian cigar factory. Some time ago he expressed a desire to gratify his taste for a Havana. Dr. Kerzl, his physician shook his head. The Emperor made known his wish every time that the physician saw him until finally he succeeded in convincing Dr. Kerzl that a Havana weed was no less healthy than an Austrian cigar. Since then he enjoys daily two small light Havanas. His eyes are sensitive to the smoke and to protect them against this the aged monarch smokes his cigars in a wooden holder 18 inches long.

Emperor Francis Joseph receives a salary of approximately $4,200,000 provided by the "civil list," less than half the salary the Russians pay their Czar, and a few hundred thousand dollars less than Prussia pays Emperor William of Germany.

The Emperor inherited about $20,000,000 to $25,000,000 when he took the crown in 1848. This it is estimated, has doubled.

HARRY K. THAW ESCAPES FROM MATTEAWAN

ESCAPED FROM ASYLUM YESTERDAY MORNING.

SPED AWAY IN AUTO

DASHED THROUGH OPEN GATE, LEAPED INTO MOTOR CAR AND WAS GONE LIKE A ROCKET.

Matteawan, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, escaped from the hospital for the criminal insane here at 7.45 o'clock this morning. A dart for liberty through an open gate, a leap into the open door of an automobile that stood quivering outside and a flight like a rocket for the Connecticut state line 30 mile away accomplished his escape.

Tonight he was still at large and the hospital authorities felt certain he was outside the state. Once beyond its boundaries Thaw is free. Only months, perhaps years, of litigation can bring him back to Matteawan and then only in one event—that he be adjudged insane in the state to which he has fled.

Five confederates manned the car in which Thaw escaped and a black limousine which trailed it past the asylum gate. The police have descriptions of Thaw's confederates and the names under which they registered at a local hotel Friday night and are seeking them.

The hospital authorities believed that Thaw had fled to the shore of Long Island Sound and boarded a yacht waiting with steam up to rush to Europe.—Greensboro Daily News.
